Wipe Slate Clean . . .

When the chips are down, the American family works just a bit harder, and maybe a bit longer, to attain its objectives.

We have just completed a year of crisis in many areas. There are many challenges still facing us, but they can be solved through the application of our simple concept: work with confidence.

It is this ability to work which has helped us to be the breadbasket of the world. It has been the ability to discover and invent that has made the most our newest frontier. It has been the ability to achieve, through mass production, the comforts and conveniences of a modern society which has drastically reduced the number of our poor people.

It has been the desire to provide for our families to the best of our abilities that has triggered more inventions in this generation than the total of those developed since the world began.

As we look into 1971, let us be constructive so that we may record new accomplishments together. — Editorial in the Industrial Press Service which reflects our sentiments.

Schools To Reopen Monday, January 7

Due to three days of extended vacation, the Garrett County public schools will reopen for the new year on Monday, January 7.

Because of an order from Governor Marvin Mandel several days prior to Christmas, Dr. William Buser county superintendent of schools, ordered that the county schools be closed on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, January 2, 3 and 4, due mostly to the energy crisis.

The additional days of Christmas vacation mean that only 1 day is left to cover any days lost on account of snow. Additional days must be made up before the school year is completed.

Gov. Orders Roll Back On Assessments

Gov. Marvin Mandel, as part of a three-way attack on rising property tax bills, ordered Maryland officials last Thursday to institute a state-wide roll back of property tax assessment level.

The action to take effect with the tax bills covering the year beginning next July, will uniformly set property assessment levels at 50 percent of a property's so-called fair market value.

Current state policy seeks to standardize assessment levels at 40 percent of market value.

Coupled with the roll back was a subcommittal order to the state department of assessments and taxation to reassess all properties each year rather than once every three years.

The third phase of Mandel's tax program calls for the administration to ask the 1974 General Assembly to improve a 10 percent limit on the amount an assessment can be increased each year, beginning in 1975.

The governor said the roll back would bring a reduction of 10 percent in the assessment levels of properties reassessed during 1973.

On the surface the governor's action does not appear to guarantee lower tax bills for Marylanders, only a change in the method and figures used to compute these bills.

The assessments revision package has obvious political ramifications, according to the state's political leaders. Mandel, facing re-election next year, has moved to revise a property tax system that has been drawing increasing fire from homeowners, but with large assessment increases. In some ways, property taxation has been one of Maryland's most chaotic methods of raising local revenues.

Guns, Other Items Taken From John Nichols Monday

Thieves kicked in the door of the home of John Nichols, Cranesville Road sometime between 9 p.m. and 1:30 a.m. New Years eve, making off with guns, tape recorder, and a bottle of whisky, no doubt to celebrate it.

Approximately 25 guns, used for skeet, trap and target shooting as well as hunting were missing. Mr. Nichols estimated the value of all stolen items at nearly $5,000.

Mr. Nichols, broker at Youghiogheny Mountain Lake has lived there since 1966.

Daylight Time Is Effective Sunday

The new law temporarily placing the United States on Daylight Saving time, begins this Sunday morning at 2 a.m. The switch is being made for the purpose of saving fuel and energy.

Commissioners Discuss Sewage Area Problem

Agreement For Three-Town Area Must Be Reached

The agreement for the sewage disposal problem for Oakland, Mt. Lake Park and Loch Lynn Heights was discussed Monday at a meeting of the Garrett County Commissioners. The board met with members of the Mayor and City Council of Oakland and members of the Sanitary Commission.

Wayne Hamilton, president of the county commissioners, said the ongoing sewage problem in the three areas would have to be resolved by order of the Maryland State Department of Health and Mental Hygiene. In a letter to the county commissioners, Charles Gross, of the State Health department, said treatment of the tri-town area was long overdue and an agreement must be made between Oakland and the Sanitary commisson before funding would be made available.

Estimated cost for the sewage treatment system would run well over the million dollar mark, Hamilton said.

Citing Accident's sewage facility Mr. Hamilton told both groups that the cost may appear to be high but sewage treatment is a must for that part of the county with the highest density of population. Accident's sewer project ran over the million dollar mark as well.

Mr. Hamilton said once the funding is made available construction of the forced main to the treatment plant would be eligible for bidding for the construction.

Oakland's strongest concern was that every user in the Sanitary District No. 1 would pay an equitable user fee regardless of where a user would live within the sanitary district.

In other new year activities the commissioners spoke with Tom Jones, assistant director,

The safe had been opened and the money removed. Papers and other contents were still in the safe, and were damaged by the water.

The safe was pulled up from about 40 feet below the surface, on the east side of Glendale bridge. Members of the local State Police department and the sheriff's office personnel assisted.

The safe had been the third stolen about that time in a series of robberies in the Oakland area. The safe from the Coca-Cola Bottling Plant, Oakland, has also been found.

Reforestation Of Strip Mine Land Can Be Successful

An environmental research program being conducted by the agricultural research service at Beltsville has determined that reforestation is possible for abandoned strip mined lands.

A lengthy article on the subject was received this week.

Strip mine spoils can be reforested by several techniques recently tested by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, working cooperatively with the Maryland State Forest Service.

Establishment of vegetative cover, grasses and legumes, hastening spoil stabilidation so that heavy rainfall and wind cannot cause further erosion, is taking place on an extremely acid spoil near Westernport, on the Moran Coal Company property.

To eliminate toxic conditions the USDA-Maryland team developed a fertility management program, first applying rock phosphate, and dolomitic limestone as an additional neutralizer. The team then planted Kentucky 31 tall fescue, orchardgrass-Ladino clover, orchardgrass-Ladino clover mixture, birdstoot trefoil and crown vetch. They straw mulched the area.

To assure germination on other spots the team plans to use fiber pulp waste from paper mills, straw, sawdust, woodbark and other mulches.

Further experments are to be made to evaluate the potential for converting waste materials into a useful resource.

Congressman Goodloe Byron
Maryland—Sixth District

This regular column serves as another vehicle to keep in touch with all segments of my constituency. It is an open invitation for you to question me on issues, let me assist you with your problems, request information typical of the kind asked of me on or comment on whatever happens to be on your mind. Letters should be sent to me, c o U. S. House of Representatives, Washington, D C. 20515. While space is obviously limited for printing all replies, I shall make every effort to answer each person who contacts me.

The following questions were typical of the kind asked of me in recent weeks;

When will you be visiting our area again?

This question is often asked of me and normally I try to visit the larger population centers of Central and Western Maryland on a continuing monthly basis. During January, for instance, I will be in Hagerstown, Cumberland, Frederick, Westminster, Catonsville, Ellicott City and Columbia. In February, however, I have scheduled an extensive tour of smaller communities in an effort to bring responsive government to the local level. Towns to be visited include Lonaconing, Westernport, Swanton, Oakland, Accident, Friendsville, Sykesville, Gamber, Hampstead, Manchester, Taneytown, Mount Airy, Damascus, Glenwood, Clarksville and Savage. Exact times will be published in my next newsletter, and if you have a problem or an opinion on impending legislation I encourage you to drop by and discuss it with me personally.

I started college in September and as yet have not received benefits which I'm entitled to under the G.I. Bill. Can you assist me in this matter?

Upon receipt of your letter I contacted the Veterans Administration in your behalf. As you are now aware, benefits have been awarded for your schooling and a VA payment check was mailed last week. Individuals having similar difficulty gaining G.I. benefits justly due them should feel free to contact my office in Washington.

Can you help our school group with a tour of the Capitol?

With our district being so close to the Nation's Capitol it is my sincere desire to welcome and encourage you to plan a visit. Clubs, school groups, Scouts and other interested parties need only write my office for assistance.

Is it possible to get a list of the consumer products that are tested by the Federal government?

Yes. A booklet entitled "Brand Names Identical to Products Purchased and Tested for Use by the Federal Government" is available for 35 cents from Consumer Product Information, Washington, D. C. 20407.

My husband passed away about eight months ago and since that time I've tried and been unable to receive my social security widow's pension. Is there anything you can do?

Social Security officials were contacted on your case and as you know a monthly check is now on its way to you. Also, a retroactive check for the past six months will arrive in the mail in the next week or two.

I recently read about some legislation that would allow Park Rangers to make on-the-spot arrests of individuals in our National Parks. What is it all about?

You are probably referring to legislation introduced in Congress which would allow members of the U.S. Park Police and National Park Service Rangers to make arrests without a warrant for any felony or misdemeanor committed in their presence in a National Park. The measure is pending before the Interior and Insular Affairs Committee, but no hearings have been scheduled at this time.

When will people under 65, who are now getting social security disability payments, be eligible for Medicare coverage?

Disabled persons who have been getting social security disability benefits for at least two years have been eligible for Medicare since July.

Where can our school get information and publicity materials on the Presidential Physical Fitness Awards?

Logbooks, qualifying standards and publicity materials may be obtained by writing: Presidential Sports Awards, P.O. Box 129, Radio City Station, New York N. Y. 10019 or President's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports, Washington, D. C. 20202.

What is the Environmental Quality Corps?

A bill was introduced in the House last year to establish an Environmental Quality Corps as an independent agency within the executive branch. Under the proposal, Corps volunteers consisting of 18 to 26-year olds would "provide manpower for projects designed to better the environmental quality for all Americans." The bill, H. R. 11-537, is currently before the Education and Labor Committee.

Last August my doctor said I could not work anymore and would have to sell my business. I applied for disability benefits but was turned down. Can you help?

Upon receipt of your letter my office contacted the Bureau of Disability Insurance. As you are now aware, based on additional evidence, your claim for social security disability benefits has been approved. Citizens experiencing similar difficulty in receiving government benefits justly due from them may feel free to contact my office for assistance.

WASHINGTON REPORT

1973: A Productive Year

The activities of Congress were often overshadowed by news such as the Watergate investigation in 1973, but even so, Congress was getting a lot of work done without much fanfare.

As a matter of fact, the Senate set a record during the past year for the most rollcall votes in a single session.

One of the most significant initiatives taken by the government in 1973 was the enactment of the Emergency Medical Services Act. This new program will assist local communities, regions and states in setting up facilities to provide prompt and proper treatment to persons who have suffered sudden and serious injuries or illness.

Maryland has been a leader in this life-saving effort, and I have been a strong advocate of this program to get emergency medical systems into all parts of our state and to other states, as well.

The Older Americans Act also was signed into law earlier this year. Its purpose is to coordinate federal programs for senior citizens, while also extending and enlarging the scope of federal assistance to the elderly. Congress has also enacted legislation to increase Social Security benefits by a total of 11 per cent in 1971 (7 per cent in April and 4 per cent in July).

We ended our involvement in the Southeast Asian war in 1973, and the year also saw the enactment of a War Powers Act, which may prevent our nation from becoming unwittingly involved in another such conflict.

The War Powers Act will require the President to consult with Congress whenever American troops are introduced into overseas hostilities, and it also sets a limit on how long a President may commit our troops without a declaration of war by Congress.

We are now looking more to our domestic needs, however, and here, too, there has been action by the Congress.

A new Vocational Rehabilitation Act has broadened the federal role in aiding handicapped persons through state programs.

A Manpower Training Act has been passed to improve the basic skills of our labor force.

A Domestic Volunteer Service Act has consolidated a number of volunteer programs into a single, and highly visible, ACTION Agency.

We have augmented the National Foundation on the Arts and Humanities, and broadened the School Lunch and Child Nutrition programs.

We are seeking to provide better health care to all Americans through new concepts such as comprehensive pre-paid group health plans. A bill to assist in the establishment of Health Maintenance Organizations (HMOs) should clear Congress early in 1974.

In another area of health care, a program I originated to encourage more family doctors in physician shortage areas has been funded with $2 million for the coming year.

Among the bills that have already cleared the Senate and are awaiting consideration in the House of Representatives are a pension reform act and the proposed Fire Prevention and Control Act.

Along with this volume of legislation, there have been the widely reported energy bills and the Northeast railroad reorganization bill. Also worth mentioning are the Amtrak Improvement Act, an emergency commuter relief act and a highways act that will allow some highway trust funds to be used for mass transit systems in urban areas.

In all, 1973 has been a productive year for Congress, but items such as budget control, more energy legislation, election reforms and many other issues are still awaiting us in 1974.

Bowling Party To Launch YFC Campus Life Program

The YFC will run a bus from Masontown and Kingwood for this affair. Tickets are available from the YFC office, Par-Matt lanes, Campus Life club advisors or participants.

Bible quizzing will resume for the second half on Sunday, January 6, at 2:30 p.m. at the Crellin Community building.

Mt. Top YFC will hold a rally at Garrett Community college, McHenry, on Saturday, January 26, at 8 o'clock, featuring a gospel film, "So Long Joey," the story of the transformation of the life of Dave Boyer, vocal soloist. There is no admission fee.

Near Normal

second storm with lows of 9 degrees and daytime highs in the teens. The coldest day of the month was 7 degrees on the 12th. The highs were 63 degrees, on each, the 4th and 5th.

Precipitation for the month totaled 4.38 inches, most of which was snow. The heaviest rain day was the 26th with .88 inch, which washed away most of the last snow.

Winds were mostly calm except during the last two snow storms and caused some drifting.

One phenomenon noted much of last summer not normally associated with the Mt. Top, was high humidity.

The past week's weather has been variable with some clear skies last Thursday, Friday, Sunday and yesterday. There was some light rain Thursday night and light rain turning to snow flurries Saturday night. There was much more rain before dawn Monday followed by overcast skies with much fog during the afternoon and through the night.

New Year's Day began overcast and foggy changing to light, fine snow and lasting throughout the day. Yesterday morning was clear with a cloud cover moving in during the mid-afternoon.

The mild 60 degrees of last Thursday gradually dropped the seasonal reading of 39 degrees New Year's Day and near 30 degrees yesterday. Morning lows followed the same trend dropping to 15 degrees yesterday morning. Precipitation amounted to just less than an inch for the week.

Freezing rain which started after dark last evening put a glaze on the Mt. Top making it hazardous under foot and tires with fog adding to the complications this morning.

Commissioners

Garrett County Development corporation, and Marshall Rickert, planning director, with regard to heating oil in light of the energy crisis.

Mr. Hamilton planned to go to Annapolis to review the first draft, land use legislation, with James Land Use Commission.

The Solid Waste Master Plan was adopted as of December 31, for the entire county, Mr. Hamilton concluded.

Dec. 26 Meeting

At the meeting on December 26 the commissioners met with Paul DeWitt, county roads engineer, to discuss insurance coverage requested by the County Roads negotiating team. Full explanation of the new proposed coverage will be made to the roads employes at each garage.

In other action the commissioners met with Dr. William Buser, superintendent of schools and members of the Board of Education to discuss the inner-ageney building review, the Grantsville school, state maintenance guidelines and a preview of next year's budget. Due to increased fuel costs and other inflationary factors, projecting operational and maintenance costs is difficult, it was pointed out.

The commissioners also discussed revisions to be made to the dog law.

In explaining the request to use the Walnut Bottom strip mine for a landfill, it was pointed out the wood fiber waste contained no tanic acid and had a PH of 7 to 9½. The material contains 97 percent wood fiber and 3 percent nutrients and is virtually all organic material.

Energy Crisis

It pointed out that the industry in the county generated over $18 million annually to the total economy, and that it was the largest single industry in the county. It pointed out that tourism and recreation grew at the rate of 10 percent annually and that the industry comprised over 35 percent of the total economy of the county; that the industry regularly employed over 1,500 people directly or indirectly, or some 20 percent of the total labor force employed in the county.

Of the total tax base of over $105 million, over $20 million is attributed to tourism and recreation particularly centered around the Deep Creek Lake area.

Any discrimination against tourism and recreation would have a drastic impact on the tax base and accompanying tax revenues, it was pointed out.

Just what impact the local plea would have at the hearing was not known. It was predicted that Maryland gas tax revenues would drop by $19 million this year, and if gasoline rationing were imposed the figure would be off by $30 million in 1974

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

In response to a letter by Rev. Leake and three articles by Andy Cosby, I am in complete agreement and I hope that The Republican would also take a stand against pornography. There is so much good literature to read and yet our stores allow this perverted immoral literature to be placed where any child can read and purchase. This leads me to believe that the proprietor is merely out to make a dollar at any cost.

Take away the pictures and you wouldn't sell a handful of this garbage a year. Pornography plays on the animal man, pushing the new morality which is the old immorality. If, where you shop they sell this literature, let them know of your displeasure, and unless something is done to remove this literature, you'll be doing your shopping some place else.

If the literature doesn't have the literary, artistic, political or scientific value and appeals only to the prurient (lustful) interest in sex, then it's pornography. We citizens of Garrett County can be examples, not only by cleaning our air but by cleaning the news stands and shops of this pollution. Let us join in a united effort that the voice of the people will be heard.

Sincerely,

Events Above The Mountain Top

Paul S. Frank, Jr.

January 3 - 9

Lunar Phase

The moon is passing through its Full Moon phase on Tuesday. Sunday finds the moon passing between earth and Saturn. The planet will be hidden for a short time by the moon. This is called an occultation.

Comet Kohoutek

Comet Kohoutek climbs slowly higher in the sky as each day passes. Today the comet may be found to the lower right of Venus. By Wednesday the comet has risen above Venus and to the upper right of Jupiter. Look for it in the west after sunset.

Visible Planets

Venus, Mars, Jupiter and Saturn continue to be the planets visible to the unaided eye. Venus is the brightest. It dominates the west sky for about two hours after sunset. Jupiter is near Venus. It is second to Venus in brightness. Both planets are among the stars of Capricornus. Mars is among the stars of Aries. It is in the south sky at sunset. Saturn has the background starfield of Gemini. It may be seen in the east sky at sunset.

Earth Perihelion

Tomorrow the earth is at the point in its orbit which is closest to the sun. The distance separating earth and sun is about 148 million kilometers (92 million miles) at this point.

Daylight Increases

Each day continues to have a little more daylight than the preceding one. Sunday is the day on which it has been decreed that we will count time by the hour before the sun passes. Therefore we move our clocks ahead one hour so that our moon falls one hour before the sun is halfway across the not create more daylight. It simply moves the daylight we have one hour later in the day. Daylight is taken from the morning and placed in the evening.

DIED

SAMUEL P. DAVIS

Samuel P. Davis, 90, route 1, Oakland, died Tuesday, January 1, at the Cuppett-Weeks Nursing home in Oakland. Mr. Davis was a native of Fairchance, Pa.

He was a retired coal miner and a member of Underwood United Brethren in Christ church, Crellin.

Surviving are several nieces and nephews.

The body was taken to the Minnich-Stewart funeral home in Oakland. Funeral services will be conducted from the Underwood United Brethren in Christ church at 2 p.m. on Friday by Rev. Charles Teets and Rev. Paul Poland.

THIRD PRIZE WINNER in this year's home decorating contest was won by Mr. and Mrs. James McHenry, Mt. Lake Park. Mrs. McHenry chose the theme above some years ago. A straw mat forms the top of the topiary tree, adorned with satin apples and holly. As 40 school-age children wait on the McHenry corner for buses on schooldays. Mrs. McHenry said she could never put up "elaborate" decorations, as their porch provides the only shelter for the students in bad weather. Second place winner was Mr. and Mrs. Earl Evans, High Street, but their three elves cannot be pictured, as Mrs. Evans had not been notified that they had won, and she had removed her decorations on Monday! The elves gave a three-dimensional effect to their garage door, and were surrounded by holly.

The body will be taken to the church at 1 p.m.

Route 40 Mishaps Injure Several

Several persons received minor injuries in recent accidents along U. S. Route 40. Some were attributed to blowing snow and icy roads.

Belvin C. Fazenbaker, 61, of Deer Park, driver of the car, and his passenger, Helen L. Enlow, 44. Accident, were slightly injured in a mishap on Route 40 just east of the Shade Hollow road shortly before noon last Wednesday. The driver and two passengers of the other vehicle involved were also slightly injured. They were: Margaret D. Kirkham, 22, RD 1, Mellenry, driver, and passengers Sharon Thomas, 19, Accident, and Dianne McClintock, 19, Addison, Pa. Another passenger, Betty McClintock, was apparently not injured.

Both cars were traveling east on Route 40, Fazenbaker slowed for traffic ahead. Margaret Kirkham, following failed to reduce speed and hit the Fazenbaker car in the rear. Tfc. D. E. Tharp charged Margaret Kirkham with failing to reduce speed to avoid a collision.

Royce Boyce, a passenger in a car driven by David Summerfield, both of Rawlings, was slightly injured in a mishap on route 40 about a mile east of Green Lantern road the afternoon of Dec. 21. Summerfield's car, traveling west, was hit in the rear by an unknown vehicle, which turned around, headed east and was not located. Tfc. Tharp investigated the mishap.

A driver of one of four cars and the passenger of another, were slightly injured in a chain accident on Route 40 at the same location as the above accident but about two hours later. The injured were: Nancy D. Plata, a passenger in the car driven by Frank J. Plata, both of Arlington, Va., and Charles Stevens, RD 2, Friendsville, driver of one of the other cars.

Cars driven by Plata, Stevens, Clay L. Garlitz, RD 1, Lonaconing, and Victor W. Warnick, Grantsville, were all headed west on Route 40. Due to blowing snow and slippery roads, a chain accident occurred. Plata hit Garlitz, Warnick hit Plata, and Stevens hit Warnick. Tfc. Tharp made no charges.

A third accident occurred at the same location as the two previous but about 20 minutes before the latter. This involved three cars but no apparent injuries. An unknown Dodge vehicle with West Virginia tags was followed by a car driven by Glenn O. Bittinger Gdantsville, and another driven by Charles D. Kerr, RD 1, Friendsville, all headed west. Due to blowing snow and icy roads, Bittinger ran into the rear of the unidentified vehicle which left the scene before information could be obtained. Kerr then hit the rear of the Bittinger car. Trooper Tharp also investigated this mishap.

Some Recent Mishaps Involved No Injuries

Several recent accidents around the county involved no apparent personal injuries. Two were blamed on slippedy roads.

Brenda K. Smes, Friendsville, was headed east on the Accident-Bear Creek road near Co. road 341 the afternoon of December 23. Her car began pulling to the right in the slush and she lost control and slid into the guard rail. Cpl H. W. Graham made no charges.

Luther E. McLaughlin, Star Route, Kitzmiller, was driving north on Alderson street at First ave. in Loch Lynn in a pick-up the morning of December 18. Isaac L. Beckman, RD 2 Oakland, was traveling west on First ave. and was unable to stop on the icy road and hit the McLaughlin truck. Tpr. J. E. Foley made no charges.

Gary E. Evans, RD 1, Gormania, was traveling west on U. S. Route 50 east of Table Rock road last Thursday morning and was followed by another vehicle. Santo A. Esposito, Quakertown, Pa., in a truck was following the 2nd vehicle. Evans put on his left turn signal and started to make the turn. Just then, Esposito started to pass both vehicles and struck the left rear of the Evans truck. Tfc. Robert Friend charged Evans with operating an unregistered vehicle.

An early Christmas eve accident occurred on State Route 135 in Mt. Lake Park. Charles Stinson, Mt. Lake Park, in a small truck, started out on Route 135 after stopping at a 'stop' sign and hit a car driven by Claude D. Boyce, Kitzmiller, going east on Route 135. Tfc. Robert Friend charged Stinson with failing to stop at a 'stop' sign.

A Christmas noonday accident on Pleasant Valley road at Shady Dell road involved two cars. Chester E. Miller, RD 2, Oakland, was traveling east on Pleasant Valley road when an oncoming vehicle operated by Kenneth G. Shiffer, Mt. Lake Park was coming down the center of the roadway. This caused Miller to go to the right and hit an embankment and fence. Tfc. G. D. Broadwater made no charges.

IN WITH THE NEW!

This frequently heard expression can be applied to more than the ringing out of 1973 and the welcoming in of 1974. It can in fact be a brief description of many medicines we stock in our pharmacy. For, most of the new drugs your physician is prescribing today were not around a few years ago. And many drugs so popular — just a short while ago are not even being made anymore.

But — we do feel compelled to add that not all the "old" are on the way out. We still get calls to compound many medicines and for drugs that have become old standbys.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

Column For Homemakers

By Mrs. Freda Denison Extension Agent

Salad Artistry

Salads do more than make meals attractive and appealing. They add sparkle and interest but even more important is their nutritional contribution. Valuable minerals and vitamins are found in all major salad-making ingredients.

Variety is the key to successful salads. A salad, like other parts of the meal, requires contrast in color, texture, flavor, and form. Salad ingredients readily achieve flavor contrast through mixtures of sweet and tart fruits or succulent vegetables, with sharp or sweet dressings.

Difference in texture is appealing, too, with the use of crisp salad greens and garnishes of peanuts, croutons, fresh herbs, chopped onion, celery, and green pepper.

Form and shape can easily be varied with slices, balls, chunks, cubes, dices, strips, shreds, fluted edges, halves, and crinkle cuts. Foods can be arranged so that colors complement each other.

Properly coordinated colors, flavors, textures, and forms make salads a delightful creation for everyday meals and company occasions.

Capitol Comment

By Charles McC Mathias

Saving the Family Farm

Many states and localities have established provisions within their property tax systems to permit farm land to be taxed at rates which farmers can afford to pay. Usually this is done by assessing farm land according to its value as farm land rather than its fair market value.

The need for these provisions arises from the fact that land near a metropolitan area may have a high value as possible development sites. Property taxes based on this speculative value would absorb most or all of the income that can be realized by farming this land.

Therefore, in order to permit farmers to continue to farm, and thereby provide open spaces for the metropolitan population, states and localities tend to assess such land for tax purposes on its value as farm land.

Unfortunately, however, the federal government is maintaining a tax policy which runs directly contrary to this general practice, and threatens to thwart the public good toward which the states and localities strive. And in the process, the federal government is helping speculators drive the family farm out of existence.

I refer here to the Internal Revenue Service's interpretation of the requirement on the federal estate tax regulation that the estate tax be imposed on the "market value" of the property held by the decedent at the time of death.

In making this determination, the IRS does not consider the earning capacity of farm land as farm land, but rather relies on its supposed value as speculative property. The measure of this value is the inflated sales prices of "similar" pieces of property.

The effect of this policy is to force many farm families to sell their farms in order to pay the estate tax—regardless of their attachment to the land or to the occupation of farming. And the result of such forced sales is, in the end, a grave and immeasurable cost to the whole community.

That is the reason for legislation that I have introduced in the Senate—legislation to encourage the preservation of open lands, including family farms, in or near urban areas - by considering the property for estate tax purposes in terms of its actual use rather than its market value.

The bill gives an estate's representatives the option of having the decedent's interest in farm land, wood land or open scenic land determined by its fair market value, as at present, or by its value in its undeveloped condition.

In order to qualify for this treatment, the property must have been used as farm land, wood land or open scenic land for at least five years prior to the death of the decedent and must continue to be used that way for five years after the estate tax return is filed.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir:

During this energy crisis I feel that in order to save fuel that could be used for essential needs, things such as snowmobile races should be eliminated, men being sent to the moon, all space ships pertaining to just space travel to different planets; also by canceling the construction of the Freeway. Billions of gallons could be saved for cooking, heating, working people, doctoring, etc.

I know this would limit the pleasures of a small group of people, but should not this group of people be big hearted enough to sacrifice a little pleasure that the entire nation may benefit?

Automobile races should be curtailed also. This would release an untold amount of gasoline for the general public. We are responding with the 50 mile per hour speed limit, so should they not also, considering the shopping, the ill who must be transported to the doctor, hospital; working people, and more must now work due to high cost of living.

Yours truly,
Mrs. Jacob J. Oester,
Accident, Md.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

THE EMPTINESS

Lesson for January 6, 1974

Background Scripture: John 6.25-48.

Some time ago I saw in the display window of a local bakery the most delicious-looking piece of pastry. It was covered with icing, fruit, and several kinds of syrup. Just looking at the pastry made me extremely hungry. The longer I stared at it, the greater grew that great void in my stomach.

Rev. Althouse

I tried resisting the impulse to buy the pastry for two reasons: (1) rich pastry isn't on my diet, and (2) I had already eaten a good desert at my last meal. My stomach said "yes," and my mind said "no."

Insatiable appetites

I walked back and forth before that pastry window several times before, weakening, I entered and bought one. With great anticipation I took my first bite. It was good, but somehow it wasn't nearly as good as I had thought and when I finished I felt somehow a profound sense of disappointment. There was still an emptiness unfilled.

So it is with many of the things with which we attempt to fill that void. The narcotics addict is but one of many who are hungry—desperate to fill the void within. For some it is the bottle, for others it is the addicts' needle but an even larger number of people strive to fill the emptiness with bright and shining "things."

"Not by bread alone . . ."

Yet, Jesus said that "man does not live by bread alone," and it is true: there is an even more vital hunger than for bread or any material food. Man's problem is that he too often tries to fill his deeper, spiritual hunger with a material nourishment.

In John 6 we see Jesus speaking to this directly: Do not concentrate on physical nourishment and satisfaction which lasts only a short time. Seek the spiritual nourishment which only God's Son can give; that "food" lasts for ever. The men had missed the deeper meaning of the feeding of the five thousand. Jesus is capable of filling men's deepest needs.

Jesus had stunned them with his miracle of feeding five thousand people. Even more startling was his claim and promise: "I am the bread of life; he who comes to me shall not hunger . . ." (6:35). Far greater than his power to fill men's stomachs was the ability of Jesus to fill that even greater spiritual emptiness within.

267 Hospital Births

There were 267 births occurring at Garrett County Memorial hospital during 1973, according to the hospital records.

First one to advive on the scene for the new year was a son, born to Mr. ad Mrs. Donald Lee Hinebaugh, of Oakland, at 3:38 a.m. on New Year's Day — success, power, work, speed, sex, etc. Yet the appetites seem insatiable and impossible to satisfy.

Bread is often referred to as "the staff of life" in recognition that it is the universal symbol for sustenance. Whether it be the unleavened, cracker-like wafers of the primitive tribes or the soft white bread found on most American tables, bread is a basic food. It represents man's attempt to provide for himself and his family the food necessary for life.

Science rules today's world. Powerful nations harness technology to probe space and to create awesome weaponry which staggers the imagination.

In this age of missiles and megatons, we, more than ever, need Faith—to ward off thoughts of doom, to give us perspective, to reassure us that our lives can be full and complete even under the shadow of technology.

Faith, above all, means trust, a precious commodity in these uncertain times. And Emerson assures us that: "All I have seen teaches me to trust the Creator for all I have not seen."

Sermonette By Area Ministers

"When God Our Savior Appeared, He Saved Us"

"For we ourselves were once foolish, disobedient, led astray, slaves to various passions and pleasures, passing our days in malice and envy, hated by men and hating one another, but when the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared, he saved us." (Titus 3:3-5) This is the reason God sent his Son to us, to save us from these things to abundant life here and eternal life hereafter.

These words came from Paul's letter to Titus. Paul is giving humble testimony to what God has done in his own life through Christ, and can do also in the life of the basest citizen of Crete who believes, since it was written to Titus who was the apostolic delegate to the churches of Crete.

The Christmas message tells us that Christ brings a better way to live; that we can invest our lives here in building God's kingdom; that our lives can make a difference in the world if we invest them in doing His work.

We no longer have to be foolish or to be missing the point of life or the mark, which is the original meaning of sin. We can deal with life head on or at the point where it matters and makes a difference. We are no longer foolish or without good sense or wisdom as the dictionary defines the word foolish, because we have seen the Light of Life as it shines through Jesus Christ and illumines our own lives.

We are no longer disobedient. This does not mean that we don't make mistakes, or commit errors in judgment, or that we no longer sin, but that we have assumed a deep and all-pervading obedience to the basic will of God as we understand it, and as he reveals it to us.

We are no longer led astray. That doesn't mean that we have all the answers, or all truth, or all knowledge, or that we understand God's ways completely or that we have arrived spiritually, but that we are growing daily in true spiritual understanding of God and his ways and his will for our lives and we know the direction in which we are moving and that is toward God.

We are no longer slaves to various passions and pleasures or habits whatever they may be, but we have the power to be freed from whatever habits and passions that enslave us.

We are no longer passing our days in malice and envy. Certainly God has sent his Son to free us of these life-destroying poisonous attitudes that ruin our lives and the lives of those around us.

We are no longer hating one another. The Christmas story is synonomous with peace and love: peace in men's hearts and love for one another. Jesus came to the world to show us the path to real peace, but men continue to reject His peace plan. But we can live on the higher level of no longer hating one another, because we have learned to love through expriencing His love for us.

William L. Stidger has written, "If we actually wish for peace, we must work for it, dream for it, pray for it; peace in our hearts, peace in our homes, peace in our nation this year, peace in the whole world."

Let me close with this thought. "Beware of what you think, you will come to look like it, beware of what you say, you will come to believe it, beware of what you wish - - if you stick around long enough, you'll get it."

Let us believe that and let us think, say, and wish peace, and good will toward all men. May God's love manifested at Christmastime in the birth of a Son, fill your hearts at this season and throughout the entire year. Amen.

6th Snowmobile Races Re-Set For Feb. 2, 16

January 5, 6 Dates Cancelled Because of Lack of Sufficient Snow

The Maryland State Championship snow mobile races, originally set for last Saturday and Sunday, January 5 and 6, have been rescheduled for two Saturday dates, Saturday, February 2, and Saturday February 16, it was announced by Dale Paugh, member of the Deep Creek Lake Volunteer fire department which is sponsoring the event.

The January dates were cancelled because of the lack of sufficient snow. This is the second time in two years that races have had to be cancelled due to lack of snow.

There will be two full days of racing but on two Saturdays, Mr. Paugh said these were the only dates available for make-ups. Meyersdale has races scheduled for Sunday, February 3, and Sunday, February 17, he said.

Races will include Stock, Super Stock, and modified, for the men; powder puff races for the women, and also races for the juniors. These will take place on both days.

There will be cash prizes plus trophies for the winners. The races are sanctioned under the Pennsylvania State Snowmobile association.

Spectator admission will be $2 for adults with children under 12 years of age being admitted free. Races are to be held at the race track on the fair grounds at McHenry.

Special Clinics Listed

Throughout the month of January the health department will have a nurse available at the Oakland health department 9 to 12 and 1 to 3:30, Monday through Friday, to review immunization records which require certification for the mandatory school immunization law. Any additional immunizations which may be necessary can also be started at this time, Dr. Pope concluded.

Mt. Lake Man Injured When Dragged By Cab

A Mountain Lake Park man was injured by being dragged after alighting from a taxicab late Monday afternoon on Third Street, Oakland.

Lawrence Riley had alighted from the B J taxi in the vicinity of Sharps garage. When the door was closed his overcoat was caught in it. When the taxi started up Mr. Riley was dragged a short distance. The operator of the cab was not aware of the situation until a car following blew its horn attracting her attention.

Cold, Cloudy Weather Hangs Here This Week

Cold and cloudy weather has held sway over the Mt. Top during the past week. There has been much rain and a little snow.

The only clear periods during the week were a few hours Friday and Monday nights when the moon shown clear. The sun's rays poked through the clouds a few times Monday afternoon. Last Thursday's rain dropped almost an inch which at times turned to snow. About a quarter of an inch of snow fell late Sunday More snow began falling late Tuesday but changed to heavy rainfall just before daybreak yesterday. A heavy fog began to settle down yesterday afternoon.

Winds of 20 to 30 miles were noted Monday.

Temperatures dropped below the freezing mark by Saturday morning and remained there until yesterday. Readings averaged nearly three degrees below the normal. The lowest reading was 11 degrees Saturday morning and the highest, 41 degrees, last Thursday and Friday.

Clouds dumped 1.29 inches of rain on the Mt. Top yesterday and last night. Most of the snow has been washed away and the fog lifted.

Legislation On Landfill Disturbs Co. Commissioners

County Commissioners from both Garrett and Allegany counties on Monday gave Rep. Goodloe R. Byron some ideas of legislation they would like to see adopted or stymied in the upcoming session of Congress.

Congressman Byron met with the county commissioners at Oakland Monday morning. The commissioners expressed concern over a land use bill already passed by the U. S. Senate, introduced by Senator Henry M. Jackson, Washington Democrat, the measure passed the Senate by a vote of 82 to 2. It is still before a committee in the house of Representatives. The commissioners told Rep. Byron they opposed the measure because it would require all states to have land use regulations in order to obtain federal planning funds.

Such a measure for state control of land use development was defeated in the 1972 session of the Maryland General Assembly. The Maryland Association of Counties wants to keep control of land use in the hands of the counties.

Commissioners in both counties expressed general support for revenue sharing and the Public Employment program which has enabled the counties to hire unemployed persons for summer employment.

Change Considered In School Time

The Board of Education is meeting in regular session today and one of the questions for discussion is whether or not to change the school time by one half hour later.

Dr William Buser, county superintendent of schools, said the board had received a number of requests to change the time and other requests to keep the time as it is at present, to avoid further confusion.

School boards in Preston county, W. Va., and Allegany county have moved school time one half hour later but there was no indication which way the board would decide.

Immunization Records Needed

All Students, Kindergarten thru Sixth, Must Have Records

The month of January is crucial for all students in kindergarten through sixth grade who have not accredited immunization records, it was announced this week by Dr. William H. Buser, superintendent of schools.

Dr. Buser said all children in those grades must be immunized as required by Section 84 of the Maryland Public School law. According to latest statistics released by the County Health Department, 30 percent of the students attending those grades do not comply minimally with the law.

Dr. William Pope, county health officer, and Dr. Buser set Friday, February 1 as the target date for having all county schools in compliance with the law.

Principals of individual schools in conjunction with the Department fo Pupil Services of the Board of Education are presently contacting parents who have not had their child's immunization record certified. Parents are also being requested to contact the health department in Oakland for certification of the record.

Children needing immunization shots can receive the necessary treatments from their health department. Health department personnel will be available to provide this service at the Oakland Health Center, or at the health centers in Kitzmiller, Grantsville, Friendsville and Bloomington.

Dr. Buser said that failure to comply with the immunization regulation by the February 1 deadline may result in a child being excluded from school.

Exhibit On Tree Identification Is Library Feature

A large exhibit on winter tree identification is the feature at the Ruth Enlow Library this month. The display is part of a project in an enrichment program sponsored by the Garrett County Board of Education involving 22 senior advanced biology students of Northern and Southern High schools. Classes were conducted at Camp Hickory by Charles F. Strauss and Joseph L. Winters, resource teachers.

While in residence at Camp Hickory during the week of Dec. 3, the students studied the macroscopic structures of winter twigs and collected and identified samples of a minimum of 35 common and native trees of Garrett County.

Participating students were: Jeanie Alvarez, Ann Carroll, Kathy Hoye, Robin Rodeheaver, Martha Shaffer, Elizabeth Stalnaker, Pam Trickett, Susie Q. Welch, Craig Bosley, Jim Dean, Mark Marucci, Dave Rohrbaugh, Harry Tuney and Philip Weese all of Southern; Sandy Dice, Carol Glotfelty, Bea Mae Riggs, Bonnie Yommer, Darl Kolb, Lynn Newman, Skip Schwing, and Dave Stantun, all Northern.

Also on display is a selection of recommended books on foods and nutrition based on a list compiled by Chicago Nutrition Association. The list also categorizes books recommended for special dietary purposes and those not recommended and is confined to those which try to interpret principles of nutrition to the general public. Material was analyzed and evaluated for soundness of nutritional content in an effort to protect readers from the potential danger of misleading faddish and unreliable diets.

The list of recommendations, sent to the library of Dr. Dorothy van Zandt, Food and Nutrition Specialist at the University of Maryland, is being held as reference material.

The Saturday movie program at 2 p.m., Jan. 12, will include "Bob a Job," "Georgie to the Rescue," and "When Knights Were Bold."

The bookmobile will be at Bradley Manor from 3:30 to 4:30, Friday Jan. 11, and at the Gorman Fire Hall from 2:15 to 3 p.m., Tuesday, Jan. 15.

Noon Wreck Sends Oakland Woman to Hospital Monday

An Oakland woman was admitted to Garrett County Memorial hospital fullowing a noontime accident Monday at Crook and Third streets in Oakland.

Leslie Leonard (Jean) Glover, Wilson street, was listed in satisfactory condition at the hospital yesterday morning.

Miss Glover had stopped for a stop sign un Crook street and then pulled onto Third Street into the path of a car driven by Sandra Lynn Harvey, RD 1, Swanton.

Anxiety, Confusion Greet Return Of Daylight Time

Most of the anxiety centered around the concern for the safety of school children who are compelled to leave their homes in the darkness and walk varied distances to the county or state highway, there to await the arrival of the school bus.

One citizen followed the school bus in from the Gortner area on Monday morning and was appalled at the dangerous conditions, with pupils darting across the highways.

There were areas in six states and two territories that were not confused by the change - - they didn't change, but remained on standard time.

What has been gained by putting darkness on the morning time table and dropping it in the evening? Take one individual on Monday morning. On Saturday he arose, could see well enough to go to the bathroom to shave and there turned on one light. On Monday he got up at the same time, turned on a light in the bedroom, a light in the hallway, and another in the bathroom. Additional electrical energy was expended. That will go on for at least another month or more.

Where was the reasoning of Congressmen? The dangers and inconveniences for rural and small town America were tripled by such action. We believe the energy saving will be minimal. If and when we ever get back to sane reasoning, how about daylight time from the last Sunday in April to the last Sunday in September - - - and not October? We really can't see any advantage to getting up in the dark.

Two More Pay For Drunk Driving

Two more persons paid for driving while intoxicated during the week ending January 7, in District Court.

Junior Walter Guthrie, of Grantsville, pleaded not guilty before Judge Lewis R. Jones for driving or attempting to drive a motor vehicle while in an intoxicated condition. He was fined $100 and costs of $5. Guthrie also pleaded not guilty of failing to yield the right-of-way but was found guilty and fined $20, including costs.

Roy Edward Sears, Clay, W. Va., pleaded guilty of driving or attempting to drive a motor vehicle while in an intoxicated condition. He was fined $100 and $5 costs. Sears also pleaded guilty of passing in a 'no passing' zone and paid $35, including costs.

Darrell Richard Werdebaugh, RD 1, Oakland, pleaded not guilty of failing to grant the right-of-way. He was found guilty and fined $15 including costs.

Failing to control speed to avoid a collision: Howard W. Haggerty, Jr., Keyser, W. Va., $25, and Eugene Depaolt, Kitzmiller, $15.

Failing to yield the right-of-way: Joseph W. Hinebaugh, of Oakland, $20, and Robert J. Spear, Alexandria, Va., $35.

Speeding greater than reasonable and prudent: Hayward P. Beitzel, Accident, $30.

A counter intelligence against the New Left movement has been revealed by the FBI.

CONTRIBUTES $25 000 TO HOSPITAL—Miss Ethel Hesser, retired school teacher, recently made a contribution of $25 000 to Garrett County Memorial Hospital, it was announced by Merritt Feather, administrator. The money will be used primarily for the education of nurses and will benefit the community greatly, Mr. Feather said.

Miss Hesser lives at 522 E. Alder Street in Oakland and is a retired teacher from the Elementary school system. Her sister and nearest relative, Miss Lillian Hesser, died in the hospital a year ago.

Miss Hesser was graduated from Shepherd College, Shepherdstown, W. Va., in 1937 and entered the county school system in 1917, continuing her teaching until 1958. She is a native of Paw Paw, W. Va., and lived in that community prior to coming to Garrett County.

In the photo are Miss Hesser, Mrs. Mildred Dunbar, superintendent of nurses at the hospital, and Mr. Feather.

Commissioners Get Check For Revenue Sharing

Total For Quarter Ending Dec. 31 Is $151,172.00

Garrett County received federal revenue sharing funds in the amount of $151,172 for the quarter ending December 31, this week, it was announced by the County Commissioners.

At a meeting with Congressman Goodloe Byron on Monday the commissioners told him they would like to see revenue sharing increased as it helped to eliminate red tape involved in applying for federal funds through the various granting agencies.

They pointed out the Rural Development Act would hold rural areas economically but as of now this has not been funded. Until Congress provides funds for rural development, local counties go through federal granting agencies for funds.

In other action this week Dr. William Pope, public health officer, spoke to the commissioners with regard to the Friendsville health clinic, expansion of the health department office space, and next year's budget.

Members of the State Department of Planning spoke to the commissioners, with regard to Land Use Planning in Maryland. They discussed the history of land use management in the United States and Maryland, planning and development responsibilities, goals of the Maryland land use plan, and participation of the Maryland generalized land use plan.

The state department of planning met with the commissioners primarily to inform local officials of the state Planning Department's activities and to determine the plan. Article 88C of the Annotated Code of Maryland requires the development of a state plan.

It was announced that Commissioner Earl E. Opel would be attending the legislative session of the Maryland Association of Counties in Annapolis next week and that Commissioner Wayne Hamilton would attend the school construction program meeting with members of the Board of Education in Baltimore Monday. Purpose of the meeting is to discuss the future school sites and construction program for the county.

Byron touched on several areas including revenue sharing, the rural development act, community action, medical services law enforcement and the energy crunch.

The train fell from fullness in back also outlined with lace and a ruffle falling to a full chapel length.

Her headpiece was a matching lace pearl crown made with miniature roses and satin streamers that held a three tier veiling of imported French illusion.

The maid of honor, flower girl and bridesmaids wore gowns of red velvet, and the junior bridesmaid's gown was green velvet. They featured long puffy sleeves, high rise waistline, and a-line skirts. The neckline and sleeves were highlighted with lace.

Their headpieces were bows in colors matching their gowns and baby's breath surrounding the bows. They carried bouquets of antheriums, French carnations and artificial holly.

Wilson J. Chustz, Jr., served as best man. Ushers were Dwight Sisler, brother of the groom, Eugene Wilt and Rick Spaid, cousins of the bride. Bryan Sisler, nephew of the groom was ring bearer.

Acolytes were Ronnie Spaid and Brian Wilt, cousins of the bride. Miss Cynthia Wilt, cousin of the bride stood at the guest book. Alan and Steven Wilt, cousins of the bride distributed programs.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Spaid wore a gold knit dress and black accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a red knit dress with matching accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of green orchids.

Assisting at the reception in the church social hall were Mrs. Thelma Simpson, Mrs. Carolyn Wilt Mrs. Clara Spaid, and Mrs. Wilda Wilt, all aunts of the bride and Mrs. Linda Wilt.

Recent Accident Injures One Person

Recent accidents around the county resulted in injury to one Frostburg woman but others were relatively minor. Some were blamed on slippery roads.

Lila Marie Folk, 34, Frostburg, was injured when her car went out of control, ran off the road and overturned. The accident occurred 1:20 a.m. December 30, on the Finzel road just north of U. S. Route 40. Tfc. Robert E. Friend investigated. The car was called a total loss.

Glenn L. Green, RD 1, Swanton, was traveling east on the Glendale road near the Zeddock Miller road at noon December 30. Susan Louise Bowman, RD 2, Swanton, was traveling west and due to a patch of ice, her car went out of control, crossed the center of the road and hit the Green car as both were rounding a curve. Tfc. G. D. Broadwater charged Susan Bowman with failing to keep to the right side of the road.

Joseph W. Hinebaugh, Oakland was traveling east on U. S. Route 40 just east of Grantsville shortly before noon December 31. As he made a left turn to enter a private driveway, he failed to grant the right-of-way to a car driven by Roger T. Turtle, Paden City, W. Va. Tpr. Ronald Georg made the charge against Hinebaugh of failing to grant the right-of-way when making a left turn.

A New Year's afternoon accident occurred on Sky Valley road. John M. Mahon was traveling east. Curtis E. Taylor, RD 1, Swanton, in a pick-up traveling south on another road in Sky Valley pulled into the intersection and hit the McMahon car. According to Tpr. J. E. Foley there were no traffic controls and trees obstructed the view of McMahon.

Thomas Kelly Vance, Sr., Mtt. Lake Park, was driving a Jeep west on State Route 135 near the Oakland-Deer Park road the afternoon of December 26. An unidentified vehicle struck the Vance vehicle and then fled the scene. Trooper Foley investigated the mishap.

Daryl S. McKenzie, Grantsville, in a light truck, was driving on Route 40 just east of the Finzel road shortly past midnight December 27. The operator stated he was very drowsy and apparently fell asleep, ran off the left shoulder, struck some guard rails and went over an embankment. Trooper Georg investigated.

James A. Smith Accident, operating a State Highway truck was spreading chemicals and sand going north on U. S. Route 219 about two miles south of Keyser Ridge New Year's afternoon. As Carl D. Skidmore, Accident, headed south, was passing the SHA truck, a stone flew from the truck, breaking the windshield of the Skidmore car. Cpl. H. W. Graham investigated the mishap.

More Figures On Post Office Waste

A weekly stamp newspaper has revealed numerous ways in which the U. S. Postal Service is extravagant beyond reason.

New rates were to have been effective January 5 but were disallowed by the Cost of Living Council.

The article emphasizes why it believes the postal service is not as hard up as it claims. The article pointed out some of Postmaster General Klassen's expenditures. Figures were supplied by the General Accounting office.

It cost taxpayers $18,500 to furnish Klassen's office and an additional $130,600 to furnish the reception area, press conference room, and a room for the board of governors. Klassen has a $1,400 desk, has a telephone table costing $127.50, a sofa at $821.08, convertible couch at $1,043; an; $800 marble countertop lavatory, carpeting in his office costing $11,666, including installation. Four doors, walnut, cost $3,671.

Further breakdown shows draperies in Klassen's office, $5,999.50, pantry costing $5,280, kitchen $45,000; drum table $1,685, sofa $8,528; sideboard $1,325, conference table, $1,777, chandelier $3,718, carpeting $12,000. Mr. Klassen also spent $12,900 for travel outside Washington in 1973.

Looks like there ought to be a drop in the postal rates instead of an increase, if they wanted to be fair to the taxpayers.

Three Are Injured In Weekend Wrecks

Weekend accidents in the central and southern parts of the county sent one person to the hospital while two others were treated and released.

James Ellsworth Brown, 46, Bradley Manor, Oakland, was admitted to Garrett County Memorial Hospital following a one-car accident 2 a.m. Saturday on the Oakland-Rosedale road near the Crellin road. He was released from the hospital Tuesday.

Brown was traveling north when his car went out of control, crossed to the left side of the road and struck a pole. Tfc. G. D. Broadwater charged him with operating an unsafe vehicle.

Bruce Messenger, 17, Oakland, a passenger in the car driven by Leonard A. Walter, Star Route 2, McHenry was treated and released from the hospital. Walter had stopped westbound on Mosser road a short distance from Bumble Bee Road just past midnight Saturday morning. When he attempted to start, his car was hit in the rear by a car driven by David K. Naylor, Fourth Street, Oakland. Tfc. Broadwater charged Naylor with failing to reduce speed to avoid a collision.

Mary Jane Tasker, 36, Star Route, Kitzmiller, was treated and released from the hospital following an accident early Sunday morning on the Kitzmiller road about a half mile south of the Vindex road. She was traveling westbound when she lost control of the car which went off that side of the road and hit an embankment.

In two other accidents over the same period there were no apparent personal injuries.

Townshend Naylor Grant, was eastbound on the Fingerboard road just west of the Herrington Manor road about 4 a.m. Sunday. He failed to negotiate a left turn in the roadway, went off the right side of the road and hit a tree. Tfc. Broadwater charged Grant with operating at a speed greater than reasonable and prudent.

The other minor mishap occurred in Grantsville.

Jim Walter will build a solid, comfortable, custom (not pre-fab or pre-cut) home on your property and offer you money-saving options besides. Your new, permanent home will ALWAYS be completely finished outside from the foundation up to the heavy-duty roofing, including windows, shutters and with two coats of paint on the hardboard "wood-made-better" siding. Inside is where you can save extra money by doing some or all of the work yourself. You have the option to purchase inside materials and installation of . . . ELECTRICAL WIRING AND FIXTURES, PLUMBING, KITCHEN AND BATH FIXTURES AND CABINETS, FLOORING, WALLS, DOORS & TRIM. When Jim Walter installs all interior options, you just paint or paper walls, paint trim, connect to outside utilities and move in. Or, as many do, you may purchase and install optional materials yourself and save even more. Either way the cost can be included in your mortgage.
INSTANT MORTGAGE FINANCING to qualified property owners
Remember, at Jim Walter Homes we have INSTANT MORTGAGE FINANCING available for our customers. Let us give you the full cost and what the mortgage payment will be on your new home. Call, visit or send the coupon to the nearest Jim Walter Homes display park for complete, no-obligation information.

Hot Second Half Wins For Garrett

John Raszka scored 29 points and Steve Van Ausdale 24 in leading Garrett Community College Lakers to an 87-64 Maryland JUCO conference victory over Montgomery-Takoma Park last Saturday night at McHenry.

The Lakers, boosting their record to 7-2, didn't get rolling until the second half after leading by only one point, 38 to 37 at intermission.

It was the first game in almost two weeks for the Lakers and it took a little time for Coach Denny Fearnow's team to get its offensive clicking. Van Ausdale and Raszka controlled the boards and the Lakers began to pull away in the second half.

Van Ausdale, a 6-6 freshman, led the school record with 12 rebounds and Raszka, a 6-4 freshman, hauled down 12. Dan Slifko and Tom Bosley, Garrett guards, took turns directing the attack and finished with ten assists each.

Scoring also for Garrett were Gibson 6, Bosley 1, Slifko 7, Curtis 8, Hall 4, Yoder 2, Davis 2, Budinsky 2, Ravenscroft 2. The Lakers hit 37 of 75 shots from the floor for 49 percent, and shot 13 of 20 free throws.

State Planning Group Sets Public Meeting Date

Representatives of the Maryland Department of State Planning will conduct a public information meeting, Thursday, January 17, at 8 p. m. in the auditorium of Allegany Community College, Cumberland.

The meeting, one of a series throughout the state, is designed to inform citizens of this county, Allegany and Washington counties, of the current status of the state land use plan being prepared.

During the past two decades, Maryland has had a population increase of 67 percent, up to 3.9 million in 1970. The land use plan is being prepared in response to problems instigated by growth. Traditional means of controlling land use, most often at the local level through zoning and taxation, have been unable to solve the complex statewide problems.

The Land Use plan, scheduled for completion in December, 1974, will present coordinated strategies to guide development throughout Maryland.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir:

This is the first day of school since we went back on daylight saving time. This morning my children left for school long before daylight. They have to walk to the main highway because we live about a quarter of a mile off the highway.

I have stood behind President Nixon in his decisions, but I don't see any advantages to daylight saving time. We are burning all the lights in the barns, porch and pole lights. More lights are on longer in our homes, the schools will be burning lights, more parents using automobiles to transport children to school or to buses. But most of all, our children are standing out along the highways in complete darkness. I would hope the Board of Education has taken into consideration the dangers our children face along the highways before daylight. This is not a temporary problem. It will be for the next two years. I would hope other concerned parents will voice their feelings.

Mrs. Charles Mason

Dear Sir:

I don't think it is right for children to have to get up and meet their school buses way before daylight. You are not saving fuel and power in this fashion because homes that are heated with oil have to be on 24 hours a day anyhow. The electricity that is supposed to be saved is used in the morning instead of evening.

Being a school bus driver, how would you like to go out and put chains on the bus along the road before daylight, leaving children standing along the road in the cold waiting for their bus. I am only one but I am sure there are many others in Garrett County and other states.

We all know we can get the children in school more safely by daylight than by nighttime and we all want safety for our children. Seeing children coming to buses by flashlight or in the darkness is not right.

Clyde V. Harvey

Britain went on a three-day work week January 7 to conserve fuel.

DO YOU HAVE ENOUGH ENERGY?

Although the world is experiencing an energy crisis and it has imposed difficulties in the way most of us lead our everyday lives, there are still a few areas where energy should be plentiful. Do you wake up each morning with that personal "get up and go," "I'm ready to face the day?" Or, do you feel tired out before you start?

Sometimes, a lack of energy can possibly be due to certain deficiencies in your system. Your physician can usually determine what it is and recommend a vitamin preparation or tonic to help you overcome it. We always have on hand a very large supply of these products.

Now we are four. Our family has assumed a new dimension. Molly has a brother, and we have a son.

There is new richness and happiness in our lives, but there is also new responsibility. Sure, we'll need to keep that "roof over the head," but there's much more to being a parent than that. Sometimes, when you look at the headlines in the paper, you get scared. As these kids grow up, can you face "the new moralities," the endless changes?

No — not alone. But you have the strongest ally in history to help you: the Church. In case you haven't noticed, the Church has been keeping pace with change.

Resolutions . . .

Walter Scott, on the cover of last week's "Parade" magazine section of the Baltimore News-Post, had the following resolutions, that are most appropriate for people today:

"No one will ever get out of this world alive. Resolve therefore in this year to maintain a sense of values.

"Take care of yourself. Good health is everyone's major source of wealth. Without it, happiness is almost impossible.

"Resolve to be cheerful and helpful. People will repay you in kind. Avoid angry, abrasive persons. They are generally vengeful. Avoid zealots. They are generally humorless.

"Resolve to listen more and to talk less. No one ever learns anything by talking. Be chary of giving advice. Wise men don't need it, and fools won't heed it.

"Resolve to be tender with the young, compassionate with the aged, sympathetic with the striving and tolerant of the weak and the wrong. Sometime in life you will have been all of these.

"Do not equate money with success. There are many successful money makers who are miserable failures as human beings. What counts most about success is how a man achieves it.

"Resolve to love this year someone you didn't love last year. Love is the most enriching ingredient of life."

Future Autumn Glory Festival Now In Doubt

Local Lions Club Decides It Will Not Continue To Sponsor Event

That the Oakland- Mt. Lake Park Lions club would not continue to sponsor the Autumn Glory Festival in Oakland, was decided at a meeting of the Board of Directors of the club at a meeting on January 7 according to Joseph H. Welch, president. The future of the festival is in doubt at present.

The uncertainties created by the energy crisis, and the difficulty in making any long range plans for entertainment for the affair, were cited as some of the reasons for giving up the sponsorship which the club had underwritten for the past two years.

Notice of their decision was transmitted to the Deep Creek Lake-Garrett County Promotion council, which had sponsored the event for the previous four years, at a meeting of the council's board of directors one day last week.

The Autumn Glory festival, held early in October each year has attracted some 40,000 people to the area each year for the celebration and has created interest in the high schools where a queen, princesses and escort were named each year to participate in the program. Dances, shows and carnival attractions also brought many persons to the area.

The festival through past years has operated with a surplus, the 1972 festival having cleared $3,894.22, operating on a budget of over $36,000. The club has in its treasury at present some $7,000, to be earmarked for some civic activity.

Community leaders have been quick to admit that Lions club members put forth a gigantic effort over the past two years but a cooperating effort is needed by other civic organizations of the area, to keep the project active.

The Promotion council is to make a definite decision in the near future as to additional festivals.

Student Exchange Club Plans Trip To Quebec, Canada

The Student Exchange club at Southern High school is planning a cultural exchange to Canada this spring, Mrs. Janice Schiff, club advisor, announced plans for the trip this week. Twenty-five members of the club have been chosen and are completing applications.

The Experiment in International Living of Canada in Ontario, is sponsoring the exchange.

Students and chaperones will leave Oakland March 21 with travel accommodations by Willett's chartered bus. Overnight stop will be made in Albany, N Y. Students will be staying in various homes in Arthabaska and Nicolet suburbs of Quebec city, with French or English speaking families who have volunteered to have foreign guests. They will take part in the family's daily life.

Students will visit Canadian schools and generally observe Canadian life for one week. They will spend one night in Montreal before leaving. An overnight stop in Trenton, N J., will be made.

The cost of the trip is approximately $1,700. The club has raised some money but is in need of additional funds. The members held a dance in December and are planning a bazaar soon. The cost of the trip for each student will be lowered as funds are raised by the club. The club would be happy to accept contributions from merchants or private citizens to keep the cost per student at a minimum. Checks and cash donations may be sent to Student Exchange club, Southern High school Oakland.

Power Knocked Out By Pick-up Near Gortner Sunday

A pick-up truck crashed into a pole and knocked out electric power in the Gortner area for several hours Sunday morning.

James Robert Savage, RD 1, Oakland was northbound on U. S. Route 219 just past midnight Sunday morning. About a half mile south of the Mason school road Savage ran off the road and crashed into an electric power pole causing power lines to fail.

The Oakland Volunteer Fire Department responded to a call to the scene with a truck and 20 men but there was apparently no fire.

Savage was apparently not injured.

Tfc L. Rosage charged Savage with failing to keep in the proper lane of traffic.

It is said that railroads can outperform trucking in fuel consumption.

Schools Meeting Half Hour Later

The opening and closing of schools was made one-half hour later than usual effective Monday, in a decision made at a regular meeting of the Board of Education last Thursday.

The decision was made to help provide safer conditions for children walking to school and buses and the waiting for buses.

Since the nationwide shift to daylight saving time in an effort to conserve energy, most residents in dominantly rural areas have been forced to walk to buses a full hour before the break of dawn.

If the new schedule operates satisfactorily the school system announced it would return to regular hours on Monday, March 4.

It was understood the change had been recommended by the Board of County Commissioners.

Fire Damages Conveyor System At Vepco Plant

The main method of transporting coal at Vepco's Mt. Storm W. Va., power plant was cut off early Monday by a fire which destroyed the facility's conveyor system.

A company spokesman said he had no idea when the conveyor would be fully repaired. He said the power supply to Virginia customers would be affected.

The spokesman said the fire started at the tipple and spread to a tunnel, stopping before it reached the main building. He added that 50 feet or more of the conveyor collapsed, and he speculated that at least 500 feet of it was affected by the blaze.

He said the company would have to rely on other utilities to help out until the conveyor system was repaired.

The blaze was discovered between 7 and 8 a.m. and was under control by 9:15. Fire companies from as far away as Keyser and Moorefield were called to the scene in addition to area rescue squads. There were no injuries.

It was estimated Tuesday that the damage would amount to more than a million dollars. The plant will be out of operation for a month or more according to Harold Turner, plant superintendent.

Steel girders must be obtained for rebuilding the burned section of the conveyor. The conveyor transported 15,000 tons of coal daily from the stock pile to the coal bunkers of the three units.

Mandel Budget To Aid Improvements In This County

Gov. Marvin Mandel presented to the General Assembly on Wednesday a $2.77 billion budget for the next year, proposing to increase state spending about $251 million above the present year. Mandel promised the extra funds will come from normal revenue growth and not from new taxes.

The capital improvements section of the budget totals $81,653,800 and of that $11,015,200, or slightly more than 13 percent, will be pumped into Allegany and Garrett Counties.

Some of the capital improvement projects in this area are:

Deep Creek Lake State Park, $80,000 to supplement project entitled "development of additional camping facilities to include two wash houses, roads and 70 campsites."

Mt. Nebo Service Center, $25,000 for planning a shop complex to include shop building, office space, vehicle storage building, service yard, security sensing, utilities and an administrative office.

Potomac State Forest, $15,000 for renovation of existing superintendent's office.

Savage River - New Germany service center $339,000 for development of stage two of the service area to include a residence, service complex to include an agricultural and storage building a dry goods storage buisding, vehicle storage buildings, an office, the paving of existing gravel roads and service yards, and construction of additional roads and parking.

The capital budget is the smallest since 1971 and about $21 million less than a year ago.

New Bill Would Curb Jacklighting

A bill to curb "jacklighting" for game by motor vehicle was introduced in the general assembly by Delegate DeCorsey Bolden. Known as House Bill 134 it would add the headlamps of motor vehicles to the list of artificial lights forbidden in the use of jacklighting for deer at night.

According to Del. Bolden, to shine headlights onto fields, into farm yards, etc., is growing in occurrence in this county in these days of high meat prices, causing a growing concern among farmers and cattle growers.

Presently, it is not against the law to pull up to field and shine car lamps onto it, Bolden pointed out, even though the sole intent is to jacklight. Wildlife officers cannot stop or arrest a person until the jacklighter has actualy shot a deer.

The bill would give offiecrs power to arrest when they are positive jacklighting is in progress he said.

What is needed to enforce the increasing incidence of game law violations in this county is a larger wildlife officer force or at least a concerted raid such as those used to curb drug distribution.

He noted that this county was served by only two wildlife officers, despite the fact that it is the state's largest county with 21,000 square miles over 70 percent of which is forest.

The bill would exclude from violations any property owner chucking his fields or cattle, utility emergency crews, ambulance crews, etc.

Fire Destroys Fike Home In Avilton

The home of Mr and Mrs. Harold Fike, Avilton, was completely destroyed by fire early Wednesday afternoon. The couple saved only a televison set, some clothes and a cedar chest.

Two policemen driving in the area noticed the smoke and attempted to enter the house, but a dog on the porch refused to allow them near the door.

They returned to their car and blew the siren until they attracted the attention of Mrs. Fike, who was in the basement washing at the time and knew nothing of the fire.

The policemen also radioed the Cumberland barracks and the barracks notified Grantsville Volunteer Fire company, which responded with 15 men and 3 pieces of equipment.

The flames had gained too much headway by the time firemen arrived, and the men concentrated on saving some nearby outbuildings and a barn.

Eastern Garrett County Volunteer firemen also were called and responded with nine men and two pieces of equipment.

The family is presently staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wilhelm, Route 2, Frostburg. They have one son Harold Fike, Jr., 14, still at home, and four married daughters.

Cause of the fire was not definitely ascertained, although it was thought perhaps an overheated flue might have caused the disaster, assisted by high winds.

Mr. Fike, an employee of the Garrett County Roads Department, was supervising brush cutting on Negro Mt. and was summoned home by a call on a two-way radio in his truck. He did not know the reason for the call, however, until he arrived at the scene to find his home and possessions destroyed.

State Loans For Treatment Plants Given

Accident and Friendsville Receive Checks Monday Evening

The first "cash in hand" for the construction of the water and waste treatment plants in Accident and Friendsville were presented to officials of those towns Monday night.

William Moylan, Maryland Department of Health and Mental Hygiene, presented a check for $149,100 to Mayor John J. Brenneman, Accident, as a loan from the state to help cover the local costs of the $1,603,000 plant. The presentation was made at 7:30 in the town offices at the Accident fire hall.

Additional grants appropriated for the facility include $91,250 from the Environmental Protection agency; $334,000 from the Farmers Home administration; $471,600 from the Appalachian Regional Commission; and $427,250 from the state. Remainder of the $275,900 local share will be financed by a Farmers Home Administration loan. Details of that loan are still under discussion.

The loan from the state will have an interest rate of 1.5% percent to be repaid from income from the system, such as monthly fees for use of the facilities.

Construction of the plant, at the extreme southern limits of Accident, on Little Bear creek, will begin April 1. Already the contractors, Walter N. Yoder and Sons, Inc., Cumberland, and R. J. Schneider Construction Inc., Pittsburgh, have been awarded contracts.

The facility will provide clean, safe water for the town residents who are presently using private wells for water and septic tanks for sewerage disposal. It has been estimated that at least half of the wells in the town are contaminated. Some sewage overflow is presently going into a creek at the edge of Accident.

In addition to eliminating these problems the facility will provide fire protection, and may encourage potential industrial development at the Accident industrial site.

The system will be designed to serve the 124 service connections needed now, as well as the three subdivisions in various stages of completion nearby, and the Professional building which currently houses one practicing dentist and has prospects of adding a doctor in the near future.

Another facet of Accident's growth as a community is the planned construction of a branch of the Ruth Enlow Library, already approved by the Board of County Commissioners. Mon

Congressman Goodloe Byron
Maryland—Sixth District

This regular column serves as a other vehicle to keep in touch with all segments of my constituency. It is an open invitation for you to question me on issues, let me assist you with some problems request information typical of the kind asked of me tion or comment on whatever happens to be on your mind. Letters should be sent to me, c o U. S. House of Representatives, Washington, D. C. 20515. While space is obviously limited for printing all replies, I shall make every effort to answer each person who contacts me.

The following questions were typical of the kind asked of me in recent weeks;

Last year you offered constituents copies of the Consumer Product Information Guide. Do you have any extras?

My office has received a limited number of specially updated Consumer Guides which will be made available to citizens on a first come, first-served basis. The Guide contains an index of selected federal publications on how to buy, use and take care of consumer products, and includes an order blank and ordering instructions. Those interested in receiving the booklet should write me, c o U. S. House of Representatives, Washington, D. C. 20515.

I read with interest your proposal to establish nation-wide physical fitness facilities for adults. By what standard would these facilities be built?

A non-profit Athletic Foundation would oversee all such questions and recommendations. It would, for instance, encourage such projects as the construction of athletic facilities built in accordance with Olympic standards.

I read recently that a retired person can now earn $2,100 a year and still receive full social security payments. Can you tell me if this amount will be increased?

Yes, as future earnings levels rise, the amount you can earn and still receive social security benefits will also rise. Under the new law, the first such automatic increase will occur in 1975.

Does the President's Council on Physical Fitness have any exercise booklets available for high school students?

Yes, just write to the President's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports, Washington, D. C. 20202. Among the many pamphlets available is the well-known Swedish Fitness Book which includes information on the Swedish training track and the human body and how it works. The booklet also discusses proper diet, motives for regular exercise and training advice and is especially recommended to persons working with young men and women at the high school level.

Would you please explain your pension exemption bill?

Briefly, this legislation would exclude from federal income tax up to $5,000 of retirement income. The exclusion covers any amount received as an annuity pension or other retirement benefit during a taxable year up to this maximum amount. I believe this House bill is necessary for retired citizens because living on a fixed income they are hit hard by many inflationary pressures such as food prices and property taxes. Congress must continually search for ways to make certain that America's elderly live their years in security and dignity and I think this measure is a step in that direction.

cy for construction of the building is certain, and the commissioners will provide operating funds. Plans for the library are now being drawn.

Attending Monday night's meeting also were Orlando Hetrick, Dale Rodeheaver, James Smith and Harry Vitez, city council members; Mrs. Lenice Vitez, town clerk; Jack Turney, town attorney; Mrs. Carol E. Miller, project treasurer; Rev. William E. Carlson, chairman, Accident Planning Commission and project coordinator; Ralph Marquiss, Charles G. Prior to the presentation, Charles Clark, R K and K construction engineer, held a pre-construction conference with representatives from the construction firm at 2:30.

...More on Friendsville later....

Over $199,000 to Friendsville

Mr. Moylan then traveled to Friendsville to present a check for $199,952.00 as a loan from the state to help cover Friendsville's local share of the costs of its $2 million water and sewage treatment plant.

That presentation was made at 8:30 p.m. in the town hall to Mayor Karol Rush.

Friendsville's plant will be located in the town park, in the northwest corner along the Youghiogheny River.

The water plant will draw water from the river and treat it to make it fit for human consumption. Downstream, treated water from the sewage plant will return to the river. Approximately 181 service connections are needed.

Friendsville's planning committee has been working on this project for eight years, and was also instrumental in aiding the planning which brought the Freeway to that town.

Town council members present besides Mayor Rush included Ross Selby, Ervin Lowdermilk, Ralph Murphy, Charley Miller and James Spear, as well as town clerk Eugene Coddington.

Representatives from Rummel, Klepper and Kahl were also present.

The town of Friendsville is expected to come up with $417,000 less this $199,900 just loaned to the corporation by the state.

At a pre-consruction meeting held Monday at 10 a.m with the contracting companies, it was learned that Nardei Contracting Company intends to begin the pipework in the next few days.

Other contractors, including Walter N. Yoder and Sons, H. J. Schneider, and Preload Construction, which will build the water tower, hope to begin hauling in materials very soon. Bids on the facilities were opened last August.

Retail Sales Up Again In 1973

Total Maryland retail sales and use tax collections mounted to still another high during the past year climbing from $292,990,134 in 1972 to $350,915,336 for the 13 months ending July 11, 1973.

This is an increase of 21.14 percent for the 13-month period. There were 625,087 returns filed for thirteen months of fiscal 1973 compared with 533,701 returns in 1972.

All the above figures, and those on Garrett County which follow, are from the state's 26th annual report of the retail sales tax division for fiscal 1973.

Admissions and amusements tax receipts from this county totaled $17,022.92. Net receipts to the General fund totaled $1,260,339 after refunds of $2,015 were subtracted from the $1,262,354 gross receipts from retail sales and use taxes and license fees.

Total tax receipts, before addition of license fees, was $1,262,247, which provided .36 percent of the state's total collection. There were 5,260 returns filed, with $239 average tax per return. Baltimore City provided 23.12 percent of the total state collection.

Total receipts for the 13 months of fiscal 1973 were up 23.30 percent from 1972, when tax collections were $937,818.

A breakdown of classes of county business and amounts collected from each showed: $270,042, food and beverage; $21,581, apparel; $166,799, general merchandise; $16,562, automotive; $74,934, furniture and appliances; $268,309, building and industrial supplies; $87,415, utilities and transportation; $76,325, hardware, machinery and equipment; $132,907, miscellaneous.

August was the best month for retail sales and use collections, when $136,813 was paid by the county. A total of 53.40 percent of the year's collections was made between July 1972 and December of that year. June was the best month in 1973, when $120,904 was collected.

Figures for other months' collections listed $91,272, July; $106,025, September; $101,354, October; $99,533 November; $81,943, December; $104,242, January; $72,437, February; $66,589, March; $87,109, April; $87,103, May.

WASHINGTON REPORT

As Congress Adjourns

The final week of the 1973 congressional session has brought several important measures to the point of final passage.

The Senate and House of Representatives, acting nearly six months after the start of the fiscal year, have at last finished with the annual appropriations bills for the different government agencies.

These budget bills are almost always late, and I look forward to the opportunity we will have next year to bring about some important and long-overdue reforms in controlling and federal budget.

On the positive side, however, is the success this year in passing a Health, Education and Welfare appropriations bill.

The HEW budget is one of the most complex and controversial areas of federal spending, and for the past three years, we have been getting by on a continuing resolution because of disagreements between Congress and the Administration over some of these programs.

This procedure was counterproductive in several respects, and I think that the ability to come to terms on a new HEW budget was one of the most important, but largely unnoticed, accomplishments of 1973.

Another domestic issue being much more publicized is our energy crisis. More than a year has gone by since I first began reporting on our impending energy problems, and a lot of unexpected things have happened during the past 12 months.

These unforseen events have commanded immediate attention in Congress, and they have prompted actions that sound like a throwback to a generation ago.

The Emergency Energy Act, reported out of conference and passed as the 1973 session drew to a close, will give the President broad powers to deal with our fuel shortages and energy allocation problems.

The President already has the authority to allocate fuels, but this bill goes a very important step further. It enables the President also to implement various fuel conservation measures, including gasoline rationing, if he feels they are necessary.

However, this legislation also includes an equally important safety feature: a veto power that will be retained by the Congress.

The veto will enable Congress to act as a guardian of the public interest, to make sure that well-intentioned policies do not cause unforseen consequences.

Bringing local situations and local needs to the attention of energy planners will be of the utmost importance in the weeks ahead.

In view of this, I have joined with Senator Mathias in scheduling a special fact-finding hearing in Baltimore on Dec. 27. We will be hearing from persons from all walks of life in Maryland, and I guarantee that what is heard will be repeated to the policymakers in Washington.

The booklet describes the kinds of care and services found in good nursing homes and has an item-by-item checklist for use in judging and selecting these facilities. The booklet can be ordered from Consumer Product Information, Public Documents Distribution Center, Pueblo, Colorado 81009.

What are the current legal penalties for heroin "pushers"?

For unlawful distribution of heroin, and for possession with intent to distribute if a first offense, the Federal penalties are imprisonment up to 15 years and/or a $25,000 maximum fine. An adult giving heroin to a minor is subject to imprisonment for up to 30 years for a first offense and 45 years for subsequent offenses and/or a fine twice that otherwise authorized.

I recently received in the mail a bill for joining a club I never heard of. I later found out that it wasn't an invoice but a deceptive gimmick to get a contribution out of me. Can't something be done about this kind of thing?

Several months ago the Postal Service ordered that all such mail must state on the envelope - - "This is not a Bill". On the bill itself the following words must appear - "This is a solicitation; You are under no obligation to pay unless you accept this offer."

Chamber Choir Concert Scheduled

The concert will include Renaissance through Pop literature but will feature spirituals - - the music for which the choir is famous.

The concert is open to the public, admission is free.

SEXING UP THE BOOB TUBE

An article in a pornographic magazine boasts of sex perversion (ie. fully nude Sodomy) now being shown on cable T.V. Then it complains (with its reprobate readers) that such "succulent" programs can't be brought into your living room.

The people of Oakland want smut off their newstands. Civic organizations and concerned citizens hack church congregations all over the area in the fight to clean them up.

Why should the majority have to suffer for the "right" of individual garbage collectors to "feed their heads?" Is the "right" of local smut peddlers to make a buck worth the corruption of one child's natural affection?

A recent Supreme Court ruling gives the people of the local community the power to "make and enforce laws' against obscenity. (Readers Digest, January 4, 1974, Green Light to Combat Smut.) A Citizens Committee, representing a wide range of our local population will meet next week to decide which publications will be determined obscene.

Proposals to pass ordinances prohibiting obscenity have been presented to both the County Commissioners and the Town Council. But without strong public support, they cannot act.

You can help support them by circulating a petition in your church, civic organization or among your friends.

This regular column serves as another vehicle to keep in touch with all segments of my constituency. It is an open invitation for you to question me on issues, let me assist you with your problems, request information typical of the kind asked of me tion or comment on whatever happens to be on your mind. Letters should be sent to me, c o U. S. House of Representatives, Washington, D. C. 20515. While space is obviously limited for printing all replies, I shall make every effort to answer each person who contacts me.

The following questions were typical of the kind asked of me in recent weeks.

I enrolled in Medicare a while back and would like to know if there is a deadline to sign up for medical insurance?

Eligible persons 65 or over can enroll in the medical insurance enrollment period the first part of each year. Remember though, that higher premiums result with each year of delay.

What Federal help is available to a community that wants to establish a small public park?

There are two Department of Housing and Urban Development programs designed to assist State and local communities in acquiring land for urban parks or creating parks from land they already possess. Through the Open Space Land program, HLD grants can help communities acquire, preserve and develop open space land for permanent public benefit and use. Grants to assist in public ownership are available through the Urban Beautification and Improvement Program.

Do you need tickets to observe the House and Senate when they are in session?

Yes. Special passes for both the House and Senate Galleries are required and may be picked up at my office when you visit the Capitol.

My husband and I are thinking about placing my mother in a nursing home and wonder if you might suggest a good one?

Basic information for the consumer in search of a nursing home is now available in "Nursing Home Care" published by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW).

According to the U. S. Geological Survey there are no less than 46 billion barrels of oil and 228 trillion cubic feet of natural gas lying under the Atlantic continental shelf, from Cape Hatteras to Canada. It is only 30-100 miles offshore and no more than 600 feet below the ocean surface. This compares with 36.3 billion barrels of proven oil reserves in the whole U. S.

And that is only a part of the total. The USGS estimates that under all our continental shelves, including the Atlantic, Gulf of Mexico, the Pacific, and the Gulf of Alaska, there are 180 billion barrels of oil and 900 trillion cubic feet of gas. Much of it lies under relatively shallow water and close to the consuming public. It offers the brightest prospect of solving the U. S. energy needs over the next five to ten years.

Yet this vast reserve is almost untapped. Only 3% of U. S. offshore acreage has been leased so far (mainly in the Gulf of Mexico) and not a single well has yet been drilled between Nova Scotia and Florida.

The reasons are predominantly environmental. Drilling off the northeast coast, could, according to its opponents, endanger U. S. commercial fishing in the area if there were to be massive oil spills or leakage. Politicians responsible for protecting beaches from oil pollution also threaten to file suit to block offshore drilling.

Environmental considerations should not be ignored. Every technological means available should be explored to provide greater safety against accidents. But some risk may still have to be assumed on the ecological front as a lesser evil than the kind of continued dependence on foreign oil that has brought us to the present unhappy situation. We believe that the risks involved in development of our offshire energy resources are worth taking. - -U. S. Press Association.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Sir

Persuading the owners of an open two story house to scale the walls and climb in through the windows instead of simply entering the front door and walking up the stairs, would not seem very smart to anybody except a top level bureaucrat. Yet all of the tremendous scheming by our government as to how to get people to use less gasoline is on the same level of intelligence.

Just let gasoline find its price in the competitive market place, and everybody will use less of it. What's more, gasoline will then automatically be used when it is most needed. And the suppliers will start finding ways to provide more gasoline at those higher prices, if the government will only let them. And the prices will start coming down again faster than Mr. Nixon's credibility.

Of course that would not serve the real purpose for which the shortage has been so deliberately, laboriously and dishonestly contrived. It would only be in the best interests of the American people. But I hope that is what everybody is interested in most.

God Is Head of Our Nation

Dear Sir

"In God We Trust" is the motto on our coins. He has not made the nation in this corrupt form as we see it today. Where's our once God fearing, loving President and Congressmen?

Our government has lost its head by trying to get every almighty dollar by taxing everything from meat to hay. In watching so as not to lose one cent they become wise and foolish, turning our country into an uncivilized nation: uprooting trees, building more roads to use more fuel, setting the clocks an hour ahead to use more electricity, raising prices on gasoline making it more of a problem and worry for people who work, shop, and need medical assistance; raising food costs, letting land be idle from which more food could be raised, prices lowered for all at home and abroad.

The "city slickers" don't care because they aren't the ones who are being shoved around, out earlier to get the barn work done. They don't realize that if the farmers would go on strike, the "city slickers", as well as some of the rest could feel the hunger pangs, it wouldn't be long, when the store shelves got bare, heads would soon start spinning when they saw the farmer wasn't there.

Our country has used every ounce of strength to serve other countries when in need, with love and mercy but from whence cometh our help? What countries are willing to yield help to us with such love, mercy and faith?

Let's call a halt to corruption and try to bring back a more and better civilized nation. Down with clocks one hour ahead. People were endeavoring to bring this on us for quite a long time and have used this moment of confusion to trap us in this corrupt schedule. Unless we stand our ground we will be kicked around like slaves on this last time forever. Out with buildings for overpopulated animals, destroy them, save the fuel, food and time that could be used elsewhere.

Let's ask our Government, who put us in this mess, to move full force ahead and develop our resources. Use wisely what we have. If our Government don't bring back the beauty of our nation, I say, we need a whole new Government.

Let us hear from folks in favor or against. I can stand criticism as well as praise. I am not an elementary or high school graduate but believe me, I can see their mistakes, as well as my own.

Mrs. Jacob Oester

THE LINGERING COLD
IS BAD NEWS
How does your cold usually start out — cough, sore throat, sniffle? For each of us it is most often the same symptom for each cold. And usually your cold will run its course in about the same way every time. If it's not really a severe one you might even get rid of it without seeing your physician.
The cold you want to be extra careful with is the one that does not follow your usual pattern. Either it starts off differently or it does not respond to your efforts to treat it. Don't let this kind hang on, see your physician before something serious develops.

LITTLE BOY
Somehow men never quite seem able to get over being little boys. They can handle responsibility, but sometimes their spirits sink.
Cares can overtake a man. That's when he reverts into an unhappy, discouraged little boy. At times like these, his wife must strive to help, to understand.
A wise wife knows that the Church offers an answer to their problems. At church hope and faith are common, and friends abound.
There is something in regularly going to church that gives a person perspective, strength and faith.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

THE VIEW FROM YOUR KNEES

Lesson for January 20, 1974

Background Scripture: John 13:1-20; 31-35.
Devotional Reading: 1 John 3:11-18.

Many years ago I read a story attributed to Edgar DeWitt Jones. A great scholar visiting Copenhagen, Denmark, visited the cathedral to see the famous statue of Christ by the renowned Danish sculptor, Thorwaldson. As have many of us, the scholar has seen a number of photographs of this famous statue, identified by the outstretched hands of Christ by the Master's side and the slightly bowed head, as well as the scripture that often serves as its caption: "Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden . . ."

Rev. Althouse

"You must kneel down . . ."

The scholar stood in the silence of the cathedral and examined the statute in detail. A small boy standing nearby noted that the scholar seemed dissatisfied with what he saw. Summoning his courage, the boy approached the scholar and said: "You must go close to it, sir. You must kneel down and look up into his face." The surprised academic did as the child suggested and, kneeling before the statue, he saw for the first time the beauty and inspiration of the sculptured face of Jesus.

Remembering this story, several years ago when I was in Copenhagen I was anxious to see the statue for myself. Whether or not the story was true, I found that the boy's advice was sound: it is only in kneeling before the statue that one can find the inspiration that Thorwaldson intended.

This story might very well serve as a parable, for we cannot truly see and appreciate Jesus Christ until in humility and commitment we have knelt before him. We gain a different perspective of the Christ from our knees.

An example

Nor is this less true of our fellow men. When we "look down" on someone, we cannot help but get a distorted view. Yet, if we approach this same person with a Christlike humility, we get a different—and much truer—perspective altogether.

This is what Jesus was teaching his disciples during his last hours with them. In a sense, it was a farewell dinner and Jesus had the opportunity to make a "farewell sermon." But instead of preaching, Jesus gave them an example: assuming the role of a humble servant, he knelt and washed their dusty feet.

Actually, this was something that they should have done for each other. In all probability, however, they had failed to do so, each feeling this task beneath him. What a shock, then, for the Master to begin to perform the task they were too proud to attempt. As always, Jesus was teaching them, not only with words, but also acts.

"For I have given you an example, that you should do as I have done to you" (13:15). So Jesus challenges us to humble ourselves and from our knees catch a different view of both life and our brother.

Sermonette By Area Ministers

"Looking at the Energy Crisis"

This winter, we Americans have been gradually getting used to words like "shortage" "crisis" "power failure" and "energy needs." Some very basic changes in our thinking about life's needs and goals are in process right now because of the energy crisis. We are having a social experience which, like the Depression earlier in our century, will surely mould values and priorities for years to come.

As a pastor, I am quite interested in what people are feeling and saying about the spiritual ramifications of our present-day headlines and cutbacks and hardships. Some see a return to a more informal, basic lifestyle that is more in touch with family and neighbors. Some look for less materialism and more attention to what life should be all about. There are those who predict that churchgoing will be more in vogue in these days as "weekending it" is reduced. There is probably some good perception in these insights.

I have a thought or two about this matter which I haven't heard discussed, and I'd like to share them with you here. I would sincerely hope that the coming to the knowledge of the limitations of the earth's resources might be accompanied by the insight for many that there are spiritual limitations in life which we should begin to recognize. Some examples: (1) a personal "energy crisis" is often caused by overdoing it; this is worsened by poor judgement about how we should spend ourselves — maybe a tune-up with some new parts would provide much-needed personal renewal; (2) an inner "power shortage" can exist and be a step toward personal growth if we admit to those who love us — God, family, and friends — that we're not as invincible and self-satisfied as we've tried too hard to pretend to others; (3) the "myth of self-sufficiency" should be challenged in our thinking so that we might be more open to the rich resources for life of the Source of life; scripture witnesses time and again that God finds humble persons to be more ready to know and love His will; and finally, (4) that mankind might through the crisis have eyes to see that the only commodity in life that is really unlimited is the love of God, found in Christ Jesus; and that we be embraced in this love and, no matter what the shortages we face in this nation, have an "abundant life." May the bounty of God's goodness and love be sufficient for the needs of us all!

Capitol Comment

By Charles McC Mathias

Fast Action on Energy

The hearings that Senator Beall and I held in Baltimore to assess the impact of the energy crisis in Maryland already have brought positive action to alleviate two of our State's problems.

As a result of the hearings, we brought to the attention of federal energy officials the particular fuel needs of Maryland's watermen and the special problems of inner-city distributors in Baltimore.

I have been assured by Deputy Energy Director John C. Sawhill that special provisions will be made for watermen whose livelihoods depend on having enough fuel for their boats. Under previous rules, watermen would not be entitled to any more fuel than owners of pleasure craft on the Chesapeake Bay.

The result of these special provisions is to forestall a problem that would affect not only watermen but also the shoreside industry dependent on seafood, from packing houses to restaurants. All are important parts of our State's economy.

The problem of the inner-city fuel oil distributors in Baltimore, who account for up to 25 per cent of the oil distributed to city residents, is that they have small fleets and do not keep the complete records of past use required by present regulations to qualify for future allocations.

I have been told that these small, independent dealers will be supplied.

It is encouraging to know that we can obtain prompt federal action in cases that obviously demand it. The hearings in Baltimore provided me with valuable information from a cross-section of Maryland's population about the impact of the energy shortage on our State and its citizens. The positive actions that already have resulted are proof of the value of this information.

The diverse nature of problems and opinions presented at the hearings confirmed my belief that it is essential that all governmental action during this energy emergency be completely open for public comment and scrutiny and that decisions be reached in a process that is equitable and understandable.

I am pleased that detailed amendments that I wrote on this point were adopted in each of the major energy bills that has passed the Senate so far.

Maryland's efforts in deal with the energy crisis may be serving as a model for other states. Federal officials have been visiting the offices of Richard Batterton, Maryland's energy chief, and the State Department of Motor Vehicles, which has one of the country's most modern records systems, to investigate the problems that face various alternative systems of allocating fuel.

What they are learning will mean more effective decisions at the national level, to the benefit not only of Maryland, but other states as well.

Two Due Refunds

Two persons in this county can claim 1972 Maryland income tax refunds if they will call the office of the state comptroller and report their new addresses

Some 1,489 state income tax refund checks didn't get to Maryland taxpayers because the citizens had moved and left no forwarding addresses, according to Louis L. Goldstein, state comptroller. Seven refunds were due taxpayers in Allegany county, two in this county, and four in nearby areas of W. Va.

These were listed:

Emma R. Krause, Accident.

FROM SENATOR J. GLENN BEALL JR.

Priority Issues for 1974

When the 93rd Congress reconvenes on January 21, there will be a full agenda of major legislation awaiting our attention. Of immediate concern, of course, will be completing action on the emergency energy bill that became stalemated in the final days of the 1973 session.

The start of 1974 also means that another year has passed without Congress resolving the issue of budget control.

The President's budget requests will be presented in a few weeks, and most of the appropriations bills will probably still be in committee when the new fiscal year begins on July 1.

Reforming the way that Congress handles the budget is a top priority issue, and last January I introduced legislation to bring about some long overdue changes in the present system.

Along with a number of others, my bill was considered by a special joint committee which drafted a comprehensive budget reform measure. It ought to be among the first major issues to be decided this year.

An election reform bill, providing at least some form of public campaign financing, also will be considered early in the 1974 session.

The Senate Ethics committee, on which I have served, spent the final days of the 1973 session completing work on the Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

This bill is the basic foundation for our federal school aid programs. It now includes the Reading Excellence Act, which I proposed last year to help elementary schoolchildren to get a good start in learning to read.

Insurance and income protection will be the subject of several bills that may see action in 1974.

The Senate has already passed a pension reform bill, and the House was considering it at the end of last year. This measure will enable workers to accumulate pension credits as they work, with full vesting rights coming in 15 years.

The Commerce Committee has approved a no-fault auto insurance bill. It is now before the Judiciary Committee, and it could be reported to the full Senate by the spring.

A far-reaching national health insurance bill also stands a good chance of enactment this year. The senior members of the Senate Finance Committee have introduced one such piece of legislation, and the Administration also is drafting a bill which would be compatible in many respects.

In a related area, I would also hope that the House will take up my proposal to establish a new National Institute of Health Care Delivery.

Inflation has been one of our most persistent national problems in recent years, and the rising cost of health care has been of particular concern to me. Improving our nation's health care delivery system could cut costs while also improving the quality of health care in many instances, and I believe that my proposal would be a major step in this direction.

Byron Supporting Campaign Reform

Under the bill the Speaker of the House, President pro tempore of the Senate and the President would each appoint two Commission members with no more than three members being appointed from the same political party.

The Commission would have the power to require all candidates to submit reports and answers to questions they may ask including the power to subpoena testimony of witnesses and all documentary evidence relating to an investigation before them.

Steve Van Ausdale Sparkles In Garrett Victory

Steve Van Ausdale scored a season high of 30 points and hauled down 15 rebounds in leading the Garrett Lakers of McHenry to an 80-67 victory over Howard Community college Saturday night in a Maryland JUCO conference contest at Columbia.

Van Ausdale, a 6-6 freshman, hit on 15 of 21 shots from the floor and dominated the boards as the Lakers got their eighth win in 11 games. Dan Slifko, 6-3 freshman guard came off the bench when captain Tom Bosley got in foul trouble and got 10 assists. Hall and Raszka were also in double figures with 12 each. Gibson had 7, Bosley 8, Slifko 8, and Curtis 3 for the winners.

Howard had four players in double figures led by Wilson with 21, Gibson 18, Lang 13, and Kolarek 10.

The Lakers hit on 38 to 70 shots from the floor for 54.2 percent, but made only 4 of 10 foul shots.

One Is Guilty Of Assault, Another One Of Burglary

One person was found guilty of assault, one pleaded guilty of burglary two were sentenced, and another received a reversal sentence by Chief Judge Stuart F. Hamill, Jr., in Circuit Court last week.

Joseph Ray Kisselovich, Oakland, at a trial last Thursday, pleaded not guilty of assault on Joseph V. Kisselovich, in Oakland, December 17. Judge Hamill found him guilty. A presentence investigation was ordered and Kisselovich is being held in the Garrett County jail without bail pending the outcome of the investigation.

Dale Allen Sines, Keyser W. Va., pleaded guilty of breaking and entering the premises of Harland Upole, Sept. 13, in Circuit Court last Friday. He was sentenced to the Commissioner of Correction for eight years. The sentence was suspended under the following conditions: refrain from any infractions of the law, placed under the supervision of the Maryland Department of Parole and Probation for an undetermined period and to abide by the rules and regulations drawn up by the Parole Officer and make full restitution of $307.55 to Harland Upole through the Parole Department. Charges of larceny and receiving stolen goods were dismissed.

Ronnie Michael Welch, Oakland, and Connie Debra Yates, Elkton, had been charged with breaking and entering, grand larceny and receiving stolen goods.

At a trial December 12, Welch pleaded guilty of breaking and entering and grand larceny but the count of receiving stolen goods was dismissed. A pre-sentence investigation was ordered. As the result, Welch was sentenced to the Commissioner of Correction for six years each, on the two counts, which are to run concurrently. The sentences are to begin as of November 20.

Connie Yates made no contest of charges of breaking and entering and grand larceny at the trial December 12. As a result of a pre-sentence investigation last Friday, she was placed on probation before verdict for two years under the Md. Department of Parole and Probation.

Ronnie Welch and Connie Yates were also charged with burglary. At a trial December 10, Welch pleaded guilty of the charge. As a result of the presentence investigation he received a six-year sentence to run concurrently with his other sentences. Miss Yates made no contest of the burglary charge at the trial. She was placed on probation before verdict to the department of Parole and Probation for two years.

Ronnie Welch and Connie Yates had each been charged with conspiracy but the charge was dismissed.

George David Welling, Jr., appealed a decision of guilty at District Court last July. At a trial Friday in Circuit Court he was found not guilty. The charge was a motor vehicle violation of failing to grant the right-of-way.

The Sanner Brothers Coal Company, Rockwood, Pennsylvania, has applied for a State of Maryland NPDES Permit to discharge wastewaters into the waters of the State.

The applicant is engaged in the strip mining of coal. The discharges described in the application are effluent from sediment ponds collecting mine runoff. The discharges are to Shade Run, northwest of Grantsville, Maryland. The receiving waters are classified for water contact recreation, for fish (natural trout waters), other aquatic life and wildlife.

Application Nos.: (1) MDP-73-371; (2) MDP-73-368; (3) MDP-73-427.

G & S Coal Company, Kitzmiller, Maryland, has applied for three State of Maryland NPDES permits to discharge wastewaters into the waters of the State.

The discharge in application (1) is to Folly Run. The discharge in application (2) is to Laurel Run. The discharges in application (3) are to Elklick Run and Jennings Run. All these streams are southwest of Bloomington, Maryland. The receiving waters are classified for water contact recreation, for fish (natural trout waters), other aquatic life and wildlife.

On the basis of preliminary review and application of lawful standards and regulations, the Maryland Water Resources Administration proposes to issue permits to the above specified industries, to discharge, subject to certain effluent limitations and special conditions. These proposed determinations are tentative.

Date: Wednesday, February 20, 1974.

Time: 9:30 a.m.

Place: Westernport City Council meeting room, City Hall, Westernport, Maryland.

Persons wishing to comment on the proposed determinations are invited to submit a statement to the Director, Water Resources Administration, no later than five days preceding the public hearing, or to be present or represented at the public hearing, or both. All comments and suggestions will be considered in the formulations of final determinations regarding the application. Guidance Services At Southern High School Explained

How guidance services work with pupil personnel services at Southern High school, was explained in an article sent in this week by school officials.

The personnel office is one of the school's communication media with community service and parents. It is a referral service for home and hospital teaching, attendance and truancy problems, special education services, special testing and student welfare.

Home and hospital teaching require a medical or psychological report attached to the referral to pupil services. A home teaching referral is submitted when a student is unable to attend regular classes for four weeks or more. A home teacher is assigned two hours a week per course.

Major truancy and attendance problems are referred by the schools and are usually followed up with home visits. Conferences with officials are held. Students referred by the school for special education are tested by personnel for proper placement. The pupil personnel office refers school referrals to proper agencies for testing in areas of speech, hearing, psychological, physical, aptitudes or achievement. Referrals to pupil personnel are made when the school becomes concerned about the general welfare of a student.

Parents may seek aid of pupil personnel workers by calling the Board of Education office. Students may refer themselves via the guidance office or by calling the Board office.

Pay Hikes Helping Raise State Budget

Marvin Mandel will propose a $2.7 billion state budget this month which the governor calls "the tightest since the depression."

The document to be presented to the General Assembly calls for a 10 percent increase in state spending, about $200 million over the current budget.

By comparision Mandel's proposed spending is roughly 100 times greater than the one proposed by Gov. Albert C. Ritchie in 1931.

Mandel says there will be no tax hikes this year for Marylanders. The extra money needed to balance the books will come from a 10 percent increase in state revenues, coupled with belt tightening among state department heads.

Mass transportation, state employe pay hikes and increased welfare payments are among the previously planned programs expected to account for most of the additional $200 million. Among increases are 6.8 percent for state's 60,000 employes, a 13 percent hike in payments to welfare recipients.

Eight Are Killed On State Highways

Eight persons lost their lives on Maryland highways last week according to the weekly news release compiled by 1st Sergeant James Harvey of the Maryland State Police. Of those killed, three were drivers, four were passengers and one was a pedestrian. At least three of those deaths could possibly have been prevented had seat belts been in use.

Alcohol was a known contributing factor in two of the deaths. Speed was a contributing factor in five and "driver error" in seven.

Persons killed through January 11 totaled 17 compared to 32 for the same period last year.

Comet Disappears

As Comet Kohoutek swung around the sun its tail grew larger as expected. However it did not grow as large as was predicted. Astronomers are meeting this week to discuss reasons why the comet did not develop as other comets have done. Evidently the store of knowledge about comets is incomplete.

Comet Kohoutek behaved differently from other observed comets. A possible cause of its behavior is that instead of vaporizing as most comets do it congealed due to the sun's heat and radiation. Therefore this comet may not be made of the exact materials other observed comets contain.

Skylab III will provide the information about this comet. If it had not been for the coincidence of its flight at the time of the comet's passage very little would be known about Comet Kohoutek. One item already discovered indicates that comets rotate. At least Comet Kohoutek does.

The comet is continuing its journey through the solar system and is expected to return in about 75,000 years. It is a very faint object now and is growing fainter.

Lunar Phase

The New Moon occurs Wednesday. Monday the moon is 406,390 kilometers (252,570 miles) from earth. This apogee is its greatest distance from earth this year.

Visible Planets

Mars, Jupiter and Saturn are easily visible. Jupiter sets as evening twilight ends. Mars is in Aries high overhead. Saturn is among the stars of Gemini and is in the east sky at sunset. Venus is leaving the evening sky as it passes between the earth and sun on Wednesday. It will be only 40 million kilometers (25 million miles) from earth. This is the closest passage since November, 1962.

YFC Activities For Month Are Listed

The weekly Campus Life activity for all four clubs at Southern, Union, Kingwood, and Valley high schools will be Monday, January 21, for an area-wide roller skating party at the Tri-R Roller rink at 7:15 p.m.

Mt. Top YFC's month rally will feature the film story of Dave Boyer, former television and nightclub entertainer turned Christian.

The film, entitled "So Long, Joey,' will be presented by YFC Saturday, January 26, at 8 p.m. at Garrett Community College, Mellenry. There is no admission charge, but a free-will offering will be taken.

With a new wave of interest in histories of Garrett County families several volumes have been added to the genealogy collection at the Ruth Enlow Library in Oakland.

Most recently added is the 83 page "William T. Stanton Family Ancestors Descendants and Rtlated Families of Grantsville, Garrett County, Maryland," by T. Ray Stanton and Guy S. Stantou, Sr., with a cover illustration by Aza Stanton. The library copy is in the non-circulating collection at the Grantsville branch, and a copy belonging to the Garrett County Historical Society is in the main branch.

A third revision of "Adam Shaffer, Pioneer, and His Descendants," collected, arranged and printed by Mr. and Mrs. Lee B. Shaffer, Red House, was donated by the authors. The 147 page book contains several sketches and photographs including a picture of the first house built in nearby Gormania, W. Va.

The 110 page "Genealogy of the Harvey Family of Garrett County, Maryland," was contributed by the author, Marshall G. Brown, of Severna Park. Mr. Brown is one of the founders of the Garrett County Historical Society and was formerly a teacher in the Oakland High school.

Another genealogy researched, printed and contributed by the author is "The Paugh Family - Genus Pavit," by George R. Paugh. This paperbound book contains 100 pages.

Several copies of "The Wilson Family of Western Maryland and West Virginia and Associated Families, Ashby, Cresap, Harvey, and Moon," by Merritt Wilson, Jr., were donated to the collection. The book contains 560 pages and is illustrated with maps and photographs.

Among the older books in the collection are those concerning the Sines, Hoye, Friend and Browning families, and many related local familes are mentioned. Additional family references can be found in the non-circulating Historical Society collection in the library.

The family histories are full of exciting accounts of daily life in the frontier and settlement days of the rounty. Women who feel housework is a burden will be edified to read in "My Pioneer Grandmother," by Isaac W. Thompson, that a day of work for such women as Katie Thompson included butchering the mutton single handed and braiding fishing lines from the long hair of horses' tails.

Those interested in learning more about sources of family history may be interested in the series of two workshops on genealogical research which the local chapter of the Daughters of the Ameriran Revolution will present at the main branch of the library in February. Detailed announcement of these meetings will be made in the near future.

The Saturday film feature at 2 p.m., Jan. 19, will be the children's comedy, "The Salvage Gang."

The bookmobile schedule for the following week is as follows: Fri., Jan. 18, 25, Bradley Manor, 3:30 - 4:30; Saturday, Jan. 19, Hoyes, 11:30 - 11:50; Cove, 12:45-1:30; Accident, 1:45 - 2:30; McHenry, 2:45 - 3:15; Tuesday Jan. 22, Deer Park, 3:15 - 4:10; Paughville, 4:15 - 4:45.

Refreshing . . .

Reflections on past activities are always interesting, and now appears to be an excellent time to reflect on the activities of our county officers since they took office after the 1970 election.

In the case of the county commissioners, prior to their take over, for a few years there had been county road trouble, contention and bickering, very little cooperation with other agencies. It wasn't a pretty picture.

The present picture, generally, has been most refreshing. The three commissioners have seemed to work together, they work in harmony, they have been fiscally responsible, have been open with the citizens, have tackled their problems with earnestness and zest, and for the most part have come up with satistying results.

Being a county commissioner is, most of the time, a thankless job. But we feel this is a proper time to state publicly that they have done a good job, in our opinion. Their attention to problems has been good for all of us.

While passing out compliments to elected officials, we could give our thanks also to our State's Attorney, Fred A. Thayer, for his thoroughness and frankness in conducting the official duties of his office. We believe his actions have been noteworthy.

Power Plant On Partial Basis

The Mt. Storm Power station will be generating electricity within a tew days on a partial basis.

A fire in the twin conveyor system on the 14th destroyed a 20-foot section of the coal supply system. Use of two large boom cranes will move the coal from the stockpile to the bunkers to put the plant in operation on a temporary basis.

A hole in the wall of the building adjacent to the conveyor, which fell against the structure, and also onto the administration building, 120 feet below, have been repaired.

Officials of Vepco at Richmond said conferences were being held with steel fabricating firms and construction companies on rebuilding the coal conveyor system.

The power station burns normally 15,000 tons of coal each day. The company is continuing to stockpile coal in the yard at the plant. Coal is shipped 18 miles via a spur line of the Western Maryland Railway from deep mines in the Bayard area and additional tonnage is supplied by truck from strip mining operations in the area.

Council For Senior Citizens Meals Program Meets

A Project Council for the Senior Citizens Hot Meals program held its first meeting on January 18, at the Community Action Conference room. Mrs. Vivian Tasker, Director of the Hot Meals program, stated that the Project Council will oversee the Meals programs, and make major decisions in its operation.

Hot Meals for Senior Citizens are currently being served at centers in Jennings, Crellin, and Kitzmiller. Over 200 elderly persons receive hot meals three times a week through this program.

The Project Council is made up of persons from the areas where the meals are being served, private citizens and members of the County's Commission on Aging. The new members are: Anna Matthews, Ellen Zimmerman, Mildred Peterson, Mary Shank, Melissa Brady, Beulah Milevac, Frieda Hendword, Nora Beitzel, Mabel Miller, Don Bender, Robert Ford, Olen Yoder, Chris Stegmaier, William Stemple, and Jim Matthews.

ASCS Office To Administer RECP

Garrett County ASCS Office will be responsible for administering the new 1974 Rural Environmental Conservation Program. The new program, which replaces and modifies the old REAP, has several new aspects of interest to Garrett county residents.

According to Mrs. Darlene Reams, Acting ASCS County Executive Director, the new cost sharing phase of the program could be very beneficial to Garrett county farmers. It provides for a minimum of 50% and maximum of 75% return to the user for all expenses he incurs while establishing conservation or forestry practices on his land, including labor costs. Also under the 1974 program, an applicant can either elect to apply for a single one-year program of conservation improvement or select a 3 to 10-year continuing program. The extended period of time now allowed will be most beneficial to those wishing rather extensive conservation improvements on their land, but preferring to spread them out over a period of years.

All applications must be made directly to the ASCS County office. Complete information and details on the specific programs will be available in the near future.

Mrs. Reams also said she does have the basic information on the program that has been authorized by the Secretary of Agriculture for cost sharing. Fourteen separate practices have been announced, plus two which deal with county projects affecting conservation peculiar to a particular county. This year's program places added emphasis on forestry practices.

Miner Killed At Bayard

A twenty-five year old Corinth, W. Va., coal miner was killed early yesterday morning in an accident at North Branch Coal company at Bayard, W. Va.

Lawrence Pritt, Jr., was pronounced dead on arrival at Garrett County Memorial hospital, Oakland, following the 1 a.m. accident. An autopsy was performed.

It was reported the young coal miner was electrocuted. However, details of the fatal accident were not available.

He had been employed with Island Creek since October, 1969, and was working underground as a mechanic. At the time of his death he was splicing a continuous mining machine.

A native of Vindex, he was a son of Lawrence and Pearl McCrobie Pritt, Terra Alta, W. Va. He was a member of Corinth United Methodist church and of the United Mine Workers, district 31.

Besides his parents he is survived by his widow, Virginia Lewis Pritt; a son, Jeffrey Mark Pritt, at home; four sisters, Gloria and Debbie Pritt, Terra Alta; Mrs. Sue Duncan, Romney, W. Va.; Mrs. Martha Stemple, Aurora, W. Va.; two brothers, John Pritt, Terra Alta; and Charles Pritt, Corinth.

81 Percent Of Residents Favor Transit System

Don Bender, President of the Commission on Aging, announced the completion of a transportation survey conducted in Garrett County. The survey consisted of questionnaires mailed to all residents of the county, and was designed to poll their feeling towards a mass transit system for the county.

Results of the survey showed that of 1,419 cards returned, 1,152 were in favor of the system while 267 were opposed. The eighty-one percent favorable return reflects both existing transportation needs and the increases in gasoline costs and the threat of possible gas rationing.

The bus system which the Commission on Aging hopes to start would cover both the Northern and Southern sections of the county. Buses would haul all those wishing to ride and would especially benefit the elderly and those without cars, who have difficulty in finding ways of getting to medical facilities and other essential services.

The Commission on Aging has been working for some time on the development of a transit system for the county. Recently the State Department of Transportation designated Garrett County as the site of the only pilot rural transportation program in the state, and will provide 95% of the cost of buses for a system.

Mr. Bender stated, "If initial operating costs can be obtained, the proposed system may soon be a reality. Application to the ARC Health Planning Council for these costs has been made and is presently being considered."

Mechanical Break Causes Injury

Mechanical failure of an auto resulted in slight injury to one person last week, south of Oakland.

Wickley Clifford Myers, of Aurora, W. Va., was slightly injured in a one-vehicle mishap on U. S. Route 219 just north of the Ben DeWitt road the evening of Jan. 15. Apparently part of the steering mechanism broke, throwing the pick-up out of control. The truck then went right, hit an embankment, recrossed the road and hit an embankment on the left side. Tfc. G. D. Broadwater investigated the mishap.

A recent mishap in Mt. Lake Park was blamed on icy roads. Judith Ann Wilt, Dennett road, Oakland, traveling east on Wheeling Avenue, skidded on the icy pavement and hit the Assembly Proposal Would Increase Sheriffs' Salaries

A bill introduced in the General Assembly by Del. William R. Cox, Jr. Harford County, proposes to increase the salaries of all sheriffs around to the state to no less than the salary paid his county's clerk of court.

In Garrett County, the clerk is paid $15,000 and the sheriff is currently receiving $7,000, plus $1,200 yearly for housing subsistence.

It was not ascertained how Garrett County's representative will vote on the bill but members of the Maryland State Sheriff's Association has the backing of over sheriffs in Maryland, as might be expected.

However, there has been some concern on the matter of legislating the salary on the state level, since the matter is essentially a county concern of each county and its commissioners.

Trio Aims Bills For State Land Management

Would Protect Natural Resources And Promote State Land Leasing

Three Republican members of the House of Delegates have filed a package of bills aimed at improving the management of state owned lands, and encouraging the retention of private lands.

Co-sponsoring the measures are Delegates DeCorsey E. Bolden Oakland, C. A. Porter Hopkins, Baltimore county, and William A. Linton, also Baltimore county.

Bolden said he hoped the land management package would be another step toward protection of the state's fast dwindling natural resources, while at the same time forcing the state in to a sound multiple use program.

One of the bills would place woodlands, wildlife refuges, and lands set aside for recreational purposes in the same category as agricultural farm land insofar as tax assessments are concerned.

"This means," Bolden said "that no land qualifying under the woodland category may be developed for residential purposes for a three-year period. If the land is withdrawn for residential development in that three years the owner would be penalized an amount equal to two times the difference between the tax rates."

Another measure would require the state to pay various counties for property set aside by them under Program Open Space by an amount of money equal to taxes they could have collected had the land remained in private ownership.

Two other bills would permit the state and the counties within their own jurisdiction to lease any state owned land to private industry or corporations for development as a public park or recreational area. This would relieve the taxpayers of additional expenses incurred in development of park and recreational facilities, while speeding up the slow progress of many projects around the state.

Both Hopkins and Linton are long term members of the Baltimore county Board of Recreation and Parks. That department won two awards in recent years for being number one in the nation for their outstanding park and recreation programs. Del. Bolden said in this area 40 percent of the land is already state owned and that sentimeot against further state acquisition is strong.

Citizen Group Seeks Ban On Obscene Literature

A citizens' committee, made up of some twenty local persons, has declared it felt that certain publications on local newsstands violate the moral standard of the community. The committee met Tuesday night in the community room of the First National Bank in Oakland and determined to take some decisive action.

In the opinion of the committee, 21 newsstand publications meet all four of the tests for obscenity as defined by a recent Supreme Court ruling.

The committee planned separate courses of action to remove obscenity form newsstands. Proposals were made that the town council of Oakland and the County Commissioners pass ordinances prohibiling obscenity, and the groundwork was laid for prosecution of those who sell offensive publications on newsstands.

Andy Cosby, of Oakland, in charge of Tuesday's meeting said there would be another meeting for interested citizens on Monday, January 28, at 7:30 at the First National Bank community room.

Maryland—Sixth District

This regular column serves as another vehicle to keep in touch with all segments of my constituency. It is an open invitation for you to question me on issues, let me assist you with your problems request information typical of the kind asked of me in recent weeks; happens to be on your mind. Letters should be sent to me, c o U. S. House of Representatives, Washington, D. C. 20515. While space is obviously limited for printing all replies, I shall make every effort to answer each person who contacts me.

The following questions were

Does the President's Council on Physical Fitness have any training films available for use in high school physical education classes?

Yes. The President's Council on Physical Fitness & Sports provides free-loan motivational and training films to high schools enrolled in their National Varsity Club program. Also sent to Member schools on a regular schedule are coaches' newsletters, student handbooks, athletic planning guides and other supplemental publications. For information on how to enroll your school in the program write to: Mr. David Lupton, National Varsity Club, Rumson New Jersey, 07760.

I heard that the government was going to require mail-order companies to deliver their goods within a certain time limit or be forced to automatically return the sender's money. Any truth to that?

The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) has conducted hearings on a proposal that would require mail-order merchandise to be delivered within 21 days or you get your money back. However a final ruling on this proposed regulation has not yet been issued.

It is the view of many committees that any Member who insists on a hearing on any bill should have it. But there may be several bills almost identical or similar in substance. In such cases, hearings frequently are on a group of related measures, or a hearing held on one bill serves for all. It's not always possible for a Member to have a hearing on his bill before a committee because of the pressure of business.

I recently had to stop working because of severe chest pains and shortness of breath. I applied for Social Security disability benefits but was denied for no apparent reason. Can you do anything?

Upon receipt of your letter my office contacted the Social Security Administration on your behalf. As you know, based on the additional medical evidence you have provided, your benefits have now been approved. Citizens experiencing similar difficulty in obtaining government benefits justly due them should feel free to contact my office in Washington for assistance.

A Disgrace - - -

An editorial in the January 28 issue of U.S. News and World Report has brought to light a disgraceful situation. Not many people seem to be aware of the degrading episode.

As explained in the editorial, the Bicentennial Center for the District of Columbia was dedicated on January 14 by the Mayor of Washington. A representative of the White House was present along with other dignitaries.

Looking down on the occasion was a new mural, done for the Bicentennial office by an artist, H. H. Booker, II, and among the personages depicted were Karl Marx, father of Communism, Friedrich Engels, his associate, Joseph Stalin of the Soviet Union, Mao Tse-tung of the Chinese Communists. For extra measure the muralist included a caricature of President Nixon, wearing a mustache and clad in the costume of a movie gangster. He sketched the President's daughter, Tricia Nixon Cox, with an Afro hairdo. He included a portrait of Angela Davis.

This was certainly an insult to the intelligence of the American people, and whoever allowed such a mural to be placed should be reprimanded for their thoughtless, possibly deliberate attempt to belittle this nation.

As suggested by the editorial, any number of portraits of dedicated Americans could have been used. A Bicentennial Commission member, when asked about the mural, replied that "those people are a valid part of the American scene." He seemed to consider the whole affair as a very clever joke.

In the words of the editorial, "It is a coarse insult to the very word, a desecration of everything truly American from 1776 to today. It is done in the poorest taste."

The American people should demand that the mural be removed immediately.

Scuttling The Free Press

The lead article of the January 1974 Reader's Digest deals with a matter of bread-and-butter concern to every newspaper and magazine publisher in the nation and their readers. Last September, the U. S. Postal Service announced its intention to more than double in three years second-class postal rates applying to both magazines and newspapers. Many people believe the increase will go higher - - perhaps to 300 percent or more.

This could mean the end of the line for thousands of magazines and hometown newspapers whose role in educating and informing the American people is more crucial to the maintenance of liberty than ever before in the history of our nation. As an educational service, Congress has, since 1782, maintained special low rates for magazines and newspapers which permitted them to be mailed at less than cost and thus be available to the vast majority of our people. In 1973, this support totaled $190 million, less than $1 per capita. But now, under the Postal Reorganization Act of 1970, the Postal Service is required to charge rates that will, in its opinion, make nearly all classes of mail pay their own way by 1976. It is obvious that the Congress did not foresee in 1970 that this would mean that second-class rates would be tripled in a five-year period. The nation's magazines and newspapers cannot absorb these increases. If they pass them on, the very people who most need continuing education will be deprived of it.

To ease the immediate financial jolt, the Digest article recommends that legislation be passed phasing in the payment by magazines and newspapers of their full postal cost over a period of eight years instead of three. Bills to accomplish this have been introduced in both houses of Congress by Senator Gale McGee (Wyo.) and Representative James Hanley (N. Y.). For the longer run, Congress should review its basic decision to make the nation's newspapers and periodicals pay full mailing costs. It is difficult to see how anyone can stand by a decision almost certain to kill off a major segment of the free press in America. Write your Congressmen - - let them know what you think. -- Industrial News Review.

Haig And History

General Alexander Haig, top presidential assistant in the somewhat battered White House fortress on Pennsylvania Avenue, was recently asked what he sought to accomplish in his present job as President Nixon's right hand man.

His answer was significant. To contribute to national sanity. To restore a sense of confidence in the office of the Presidency. To show that the Presidency is an institution which should not be lightly tampered with, that it is fundamental to the American system."

These aims, as is the philosophy behind them, are sound. In the abuse and vilification hurled daily at President Nixon, the instant suspicion of everything said by any of President Nixon's aides or secretaries, the image is slowly being shaped—in the minds of some at least—that the Presidency is purely a political office, that neither the President nor the office are entitled to any degree of respect.

This is partly because the American republican system of government entrusts to one and the same man the responsibilities of two jobs, head of state and head of government. Most democratic nations have both a President and a Prime Minister. The head of state, who can also be a king or queen in parliamentary democracies, isn't traditionally vilified to the same degree as politicians.

There have been other Presidents in the American past who found themselves savagely condemned. None, yet, has been hounded out of office over domestic scandals. In that process, if it comes about, the nation must inevitably suffer heavily both internally and externally. Haig, a student of history (and the shocking fact is that today only twenty percent of American college students study U.S. history), would save the nation from that pitfall and allow the electoral process to speak for the nation next year and in 1976, and properly so.

President And TV

The Washington Post bemoans the fact (as it seeks to force the President out of office with its editorials) that the President can appear on national television to report to the American people practically as often as he likes, while those who oppose him can't.

The Post sees in this situation a danger in that the President gains an exposure advantage over those with different views.

One wonders, in analyzing this rather amusing complaint, whether the Post recognizes the fact that the President is the elected representative of the American people. As their elected leader, he should be able to use television (utilized almost exclusively by the big corporations and networks to express their views) to explain his leadership, views and decisions.

Every American President has the right, and the duty, to report to the American people. Few objections have been raised against that right in the past. In fact, the traditional complaint of the news media has been that Presidents didn't explain their conduct to the people often enough.

The President has a mandate from the voters to report to the nation. His opponents do not have that mandate; they have the opportunity to win it in the next election. Thus the advantage evens out over the long term. In addition, since no President can serve more than two terms, or eight years, the present "danger" would appear to be more that the President will succeed in holding onto his office than anything else.

Area Scouts

pecially pleased that new units were organized where none had existed before in Red House, Crellin and Bayard.

Reflecting on the year's progress, Mr. Fischetti said that the School Night for Scouting held in October in most area schools showed that many area parents and boys have a real interest in the Scouting program. With this initial interest it was not difficult to sign up a high percentage of those who turned out. The District's success would not have been possible, however, without cooperation and hard work of the adult leaders on the unit and district level, he said.

The reward and satisfaction to all who worked for Scouting this year was the knowledge that more boys would have the opportunity to know of and benefit from the scouting experience, he concluded.

Atomic Energy Now

On August 6, 1945, a lone American airplane dropped a single atomic bomb on Hiroshima, Japan. The scorched wasteland it created was the world's introduction to the atomic age.

That act, and a like one three days later at Nagasaki, were credited with shortening the war in the Pacific. However, they also have been credited with prejudicing public opinion against the use of nuclear fission for the production of energy for peaceful purposes.

Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg, former chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, used to illustrate the problem by quoting from a "typical" letter to the AEC from a fifth grade school teacher who wrote: "I am teaching my class all about nuclear energy. Please send me a picture of an atomic bomb -- and some mushroom clouds if you have them."

Although little understood by the public at large, the United States has in fact made huge strides since the "mushroom clouds" of Hiroshima and Nagasaki in harnessing the atom for peaceful domestic purposes. Today there are 38 operable nuclear reactors in the U. S., churning out nearly 5 percent of the country's energy production.

The AEC estimates that by the year 2000 there could be about 1,000 such power plants accounting for 60 percent of the U. S. energy output. Whether it will happen, however, will depend importantly on how well the public is able to separate the fact from the fiction that unfortunately too often is characteristic of arguments put forward by environmentalists and other groups.

These groups usually attack the proliferation of nuclear reactors on two grounds: (1) they are a menace to the environment, and (2) they are unsafe.

Neither charge is frivolous. However, on the first count, proponents of atomic energy argue that, kilowatt for kilowatt, the generation of electricity by the commercial nuclear power stations has had considerably less impact on the environment than fossil fuel methods of power generation. The second count remains unprovable, since there never has been an accident at a nuclear reactor remotely like those conjured up in the minds of alarmists.

In a recent speech New Mexico Sen. Pete V. Domenici stated that "we need nuclear power, and all the other sources we can develop, as fast as we can develop them . . . if we are concerned about the potential hazards of nuclear power, we should embark on a kind of research that will increase their safety and reduce further the chances of 'an unlikely accident.' We cannot let potential danger stop development of nuclear power plants. Instead we must solve the danger problem, as intelligent men will always try to do."

With the U. S. — and much of the Western world — firmly in the jaws of an energy shortage, it is difficult to argue with Sen. Domenici. - - U. S. Press Assoc.

Former Pastor Honored Sunday

Establishment of a living memorial fund in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Ernest Fox, in conjunction with the building fund program for St. Mark's Lutheran church, Oakland, was announced Sunday during a program honoring the former pastor and his wife, following the regular worship services on Sunday morning.

A certificate signifying his appointment as pastor emeritus of the congregation, was presented by Courtney Tusing, church council president. Pastor Fox was elected to that position by the congregation at a meeting on November 18, following a recommendation by the church council.

An overflow congregation attended the worship service at which Pastor Fox was speaker and Dr. William Hankey, president of Western Pennsylvania-West Virginia synod of Pittsburgh, was liturgist. Pastor Fox had served the congregation for twelve years prior to retirement and now resides at Swallow Falls.

This is Richard's life in intimate detail from his birth to his short troubled reign, to his death on Bosworth Field at thirty-three. A model of research and scholarship, the book carries one along with its fine reporter's sense of where and when, and who and why. As a bonus, the appendix carries a long essay covering the author's conjecture of murder of the boy princes in the Tower.

To the senior approaching Shakespeare's Richard III, there is no finer reference.

Local Bills Slow To Appear In This General Assembly

Cumberland Evening Times staff writer L. Eugene Goodrich noted in an article in Wednesday's edition that local bills from Western Maryland are just trickling into the Central Assembly's 1974 session.

Probable cause, he feels, is election year "soft shoeing" with all 7 men of the Western Maryland delegation hesitant to introduce legislation which might be construed as controversial, and hurt their chances of re-election.

Part of the fault of the problem lies at the door of Gov. Marvin Mandel's redistricting plan which will pit incumbent against incumbent throughout Allegany and Garrett counties.

Of the seven-man delegation, only Delegate DeCorsey Bolden has introduced a bill into the Assembly. Only State Sen. Edward J. Mason of Allegany county has announced intention of filing legislation.

The redistricting plan will force the two Senators Edward J. Mason (R-Allegany, Washington) and William A. Wilson (R-Allegany, Garrett) to run against each other in western Allegany and all of Garrett. Only Wilson has filed so far.

Mr. Bolden, presently Garrett County's only elected delegate, is the only one of the three Delegates to have already announced his candidacy for the seat. Melvin Sloan and Delegation chirman David J. Williams are also incumbents.

According to Mr. Goodrich, others filing for the House seat race may be William W. Grant, Oakland attorney, and Earl Opel, Garrett County Commissioner.

Two Juvenile Cases Heard

Two juvenile cases were heard in Circuit Court Monday by Chief Judge Stuart F. Hamill Jr., sitting as juvenile judge.

A hymn sing will be held Saturday evening, January 26, at 7:30 o'clock, at the Sand Flat Assembly of God church. Local talent is welcome.

Woman Wins Own Case In Dist. Court

Mrs. Karen Offutt had made a lease to rent an apartment on South Second Street, Oakland, and those signing the lease to take the apartment made a deposit of $50.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Glotfelty of Crellin then decided they did not want the apartment for reasons not made clear at the time the lease was signed. The name noted on the lease was shown as Cecil, not Carlton, Glotfelty.

The Glotfelty's requested the return of the deposit which apparently was not granted. The Glotfeltys were represented by Ralph Burnett, local attorney.

Judge Lewis R. Jones ruled in favor of Mrs. Offutt by deciding the deposit be won as damage.

It was reported 71 Gift certificates had been purchased for World Community Day material aid project, for a total of $213. Of the 71, 46 were for blankets, 1 for sewing machine and fabrics, and 24 for emergencies.

Greatness

"Christianity builds up a person if they have been low; it doesn't tear them down." My friend had just had the unhappiest upset of her life, the downfall of a child. We were discussing the opinions that would be held by the community, and a telephone speech that some neighbor had used about taking her back. "Why, yes," the mother replied, "she will be here so that I can see how we can restore her in feeling." Until then I had considered this friend one of sensibility, but I now accept her as a person of greatness.

Sages long ago realized that wisdom exists in very plain areas of life; soft utterances by the kitchen stove can be as lofty in aim as speeches before Parliament. In such humble places there are often expressions of compassion, encouragement, or simply no righteous indignation after a mistake has been confessed. It is in the background of humility that greatness shines forth.

People say, "It must be great to be so esteemed," or self-confident, or something else, but actually these qualities are only a culmination in character building. Dr. Yukasaki, the retired president of the California college where violence ran rampant in 1968, tells that he was not a warrior, that he merely unfastened a loudspeaker wire on a sound truck and made his voice heard to eliminate noise and restore order on campus. Certainly he had no such intent initially, but his experiences made him fearless when about to gain his purpose.

People in association with nature are often dropping pieces of discernment in ordinary speech. The writer spoke with Jonas Sines, formerly of Swanton, at the Bucklngham State Nursery at Harmans. He is about to retire, but he expressed his simple pride: "Wherever I go in Maryland, I can see the trees by the roadsides and know that I had a part in growing them." Not a declamation, but a great thought.

Soon we realize that we all cannot be Gandhis or Churchills; instead we may be like Prometheus, bound to the rock of ordinary circumstances. But greatness of soul is within reach, regardless of station; an individual response is the contribution we make to the lives of those who live with us. For example, one man who played Santa this year had been great enought to learn the deaf alphabet so that he could "hear" deaf children speaking to him!. I would paraphrase Thackeray to say, "How very great the small may be."

Finally, we see greatness in those who endure in spite of overwhelming sadness. Lincoln's anguish with a war-torn country was a heavy load, but the sharpness and criticism of his wife was surely a daily anguish. So it is with others who endure exigencies because of the adverse personalities who must not be discarded from their lives.

King David and Michelangelo were great, but what about some of your neighbors?

—Tamarack

. . . Get them away from religion, make them superficial. Get control of all means of publicity. Get people's minds off their government by focusing their attention on athletics, sexy books and other trivialities."

The above was secured by George A. Braotigam, Fla. State's Attorney, from a member of the Communist Party, who acknowledged that it is still part of the program for subverting our government.

Why do the nationwide media sensationalize such superficialities as drug freaks at peace demonstrations, apostate clergymen, and "The Battle of the Sexes?"

Is it possible that the mass media are "wagging" the society instead of the other way around?

Are we naive enough to accept the "New Morality" as anything more than the old immorality? What can we do? See news article in this issue.

Consider Moving Extension Office

At the regular meeting of the Garrett County Commissioners on Monday members discussed moving the Cooperative Extension Service office with James Mellenry county agriculture agent.

The office is now located in the basement of the postoffice in Oakland, and the rent is being increased. The commissioners agreed to contact Congressman Goodloe Byron to see if the General Service administration would continue providing the space.

Commissioners also discussed the proposed communications system concerning emergency medical services aspect of the system with Robert Kopsack, from the Health Planning Council of Appalachia Maryland, and George Comp. civil defense director.

Merle A. Garletts, Friendsville, and George Brady, Kitzmiller, have been re-appointed to the Garrett County Planning Commission for terms of five years.

In other meetings, Chairman Wayne Hamilton attended the School Board's meeting on vocational education last week, which was to explain a new program to provide for vocational education facilities and programs in the county.

Mr. Hamilton also attended the James Commission Land Use meeting in Annapolis last Saturday, which was the last in a series, running since last June. As an outgrowth of the James Commission Land Use, legislation will be introduced at the general assembly.

Commissioners discussed the proposed wood fiber waste disposal near the Mt. Zion road but no decision was made pending further discussion with residents of that area.

Listen, Americans!

By DR. GEORGE S. BENSON
President—National Education Program
Searcy, Arkansas

A strategic instrument in Communism's world-wide drive to banish God and destroy the fundamental ethics of the Judaic and Christian religions has from the beginning been the commune. Communists find it necessary of course to destroy all things Godly in order to build the new Godless world. Lenin said: "The revolutionary despises all doctrines the object is perpetually the same: the surest and quickest way of destroying the whole order." This is the mission of the Communist-conceived commune, to destroy the "Old Order."

In Western society the home, the church and the school form the cradle for our fundamental ethics; and the most vital of these institutions, in formulating the behavior of our society, is the home with its traditional family unit. Unless traditional values of religion are taught in the home, offsprings shun the church. And without the foundation stones of family-taught ethics, the school betrays its mission of teaching truth.

Thus through the commune, the Communists break up the family, they obliterate family ties; children become wards of the State. Godly ethics are banished. Lenin said: "The revolutionary despises and hates the existing social morality in all its manifestations. For him, morality is everything which contributes to the triumph of the revolution. Immoral and criminal is anything which stands in its way." The commune is an instrument used by international Communism to accomplish the breakdown of mankind in the image of God.

Throughout the revolutionary chaos created by the Communist-led youth uprisings on college campuses and in the streets of America, the commune "life style" has been put forward as an ultimate expression of rebellion. Because the commune's permissiveness makes it possible for weaklings to rationalize immorality and wallow in animalism, if they wish, the organization of such "group marriages" has spread. It is estimated that there are, today several thousand communes in America, populated by more than 200,000 people, most of them ranging in age from 15 to 30. It is impossible to estimate the number of these communes influenced by Communist guidance. Not all are. Some assert Christian guidance.

I've been in communes and on Communist collective farms where the communal "life style" is, by traditional Western standards, immoral. I've seen scores of communes in loft buildings along Telegraph Avenue adjacent the University of California at Berkeley. And I can never forget the narrative report given by Coach Haskell Bowen of San Jose's Campbell-Union High School, who visited a Haight-Asbury commune: "There were four girls and five males two mattresses on the floor, three sleeping bags. Two of the men were smoking marijuana and one of the girls was 'stoned' on LSD. The girls were entirely free in giving their bodies to one or another of the men."

This may be an extreme expression of communalism as practiced today in several thousand rural and urban "group" communities.

One of the most obvious dangers to our society of those thousands of communes which are proudly revolutionary and dedicated to the destruction of "the old order" (which some, admittedly, are not) is pointed out by Mr. Velie: "While relatively small in number, this group of communards' nevertheless exerts a considerable influence. For one thing, visits to communes have become a major extracurricular activity for vacationing students, who pour through them yearly to observe the 'acting out' of a way of life which denies the values that hold our society together."

Eight Are Killed On State Highways

Eight persons lost their lives on Maryland Highways last week, according to the weekly news release compiled by 1st Sergeant James Harvey, Maryland State Police. Of those killed, five were drivers, 1 was a passenger, and 2 were pedestrians. At least one of those deaths could possibly have been prevented had seat belts been in use.

Alcohol was not a known factor in any of the deaths last week. Speed was a contributing factor in six and "driver error" in six.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir:

In reading the letters to the editor in last week's Republican by Mrs. Jacob Oester and Mr. Jim Riggleman, I was made to remember that on June 17, 1970, the President of the United States declared in a nationwide broadcast that he would "never institute Wage and Price Controls because: 'That would lead to Rationing, Black Marketing, Total Federal Bureaucratic Domination. . . .', etc." This same president did exactly what he said he would not do and today we have what he said Wage and Price control would bring. I believe someone or more than one knows where they are taking us. What is wrong with the Free Enterprize System that our Constitution guarantees us?

It is my recollection that the Constitution provided specific powers for the federal government, and quite positively reserved all other to the states or the people.

Can you tell me, and your other readers, just when and where did anything in the Constitution give the federal government any authority to decree the speed at which trucks may be driven (or any other vehicles, from tricycles to mule trains) on the roads of Maryland or in the streets of Oakland; where our thermostats should be set or a thousand and one other unconstitutional decrees?

Or has Mr. Nixon allowed some parts of the Constitution to be erased, along with some parts of his tapes?

Sincerely,
Rev. W. H. Leake
Deer Park

P. S. I grew up on the Farm and have the deepest respect for the American Farmer, but let us remember one strategy of the Communist Conspiracy is to "divide and conquer." So please, we are all Americans, united we stand and divided we fall.

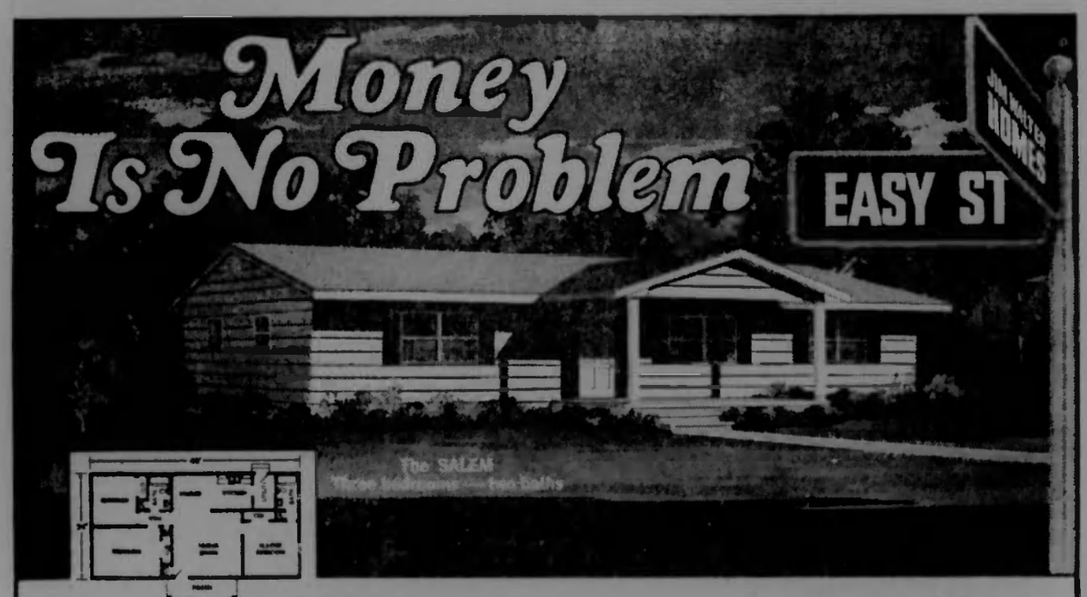
Money Is No Problem



You Can Build Your New, Permanent Home Now!

There's no such thing as "right money" at Jim Walter Homes. We're selling, building and financing as many homes as ever . . . maybe even more. But money and financing are not the only reasons that Jim Walter sells and builds so many homes—almost 200,000 homes since 1946—there are even more significant reasons.

● OVER 20 MODELS ● BUILT ON YOUR PROPERTY

Jim Walter will build a solid, comfortable, custom (not pre-fab or pre-cut) home on your property and offer you money-saving options besides. Your new, permanent home will ALWAYS be completely finished outside from the foundation up to the heavy-duty roofing, including windows, shutters and with two coats of paint on the hardboard "wood-made-better" siding. Inside is where you can save extra money by doing some or all of the work yourself. You have the option to purchase inside materials and installation of . . . ELECTRICAL WIRING AND FIXTURES, PLUMBING, KITCHEN AND BATH FIXTURES AND CABINETS, FLOORING, WALLS, DOORS & TRIM. When Jim Walter installs all interior options, you just paint or paper walls, paint trim, connect to outside utilities and move in. Or, as many do, you may purchase and install optional materials yourself and save even more. Either way the cost can be included in your mortgage.

INSTANT MORTGAGE FINANCING to qualified property owners

Remember, at Jim Walter Homes we have INSTANT MORTGAGE FINANCING available for our customers. Let us give you the full cost and what the mortgage payment will be on your new home. Call, visit or send the coupon to the nearest Jim Walter Homes display park for complete, no-obligation information.

Savage-Rounds Wed October 27

United Methodist Church, in McHenry, was the scene of the exchange of wedding vows between Judy Ann Rounds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Rounds, Grantsville, and Lanny R. Savage, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Savage, McHenry, on Saturday, October 27, at 2 p.m.

Rev. Earl Yoder officiated at the double-ring ceremony with Mrs. Betty DeWitt, cousin of the groom, organist.

Vocalist was Ezra Yoder, of Grantsville.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a gown of duchess satin and Chantilly lace, fashioned with an empire bodice, high neckline, full bishop sleeves and slim silhouette skirt. A matching lace headdress held the cathedral-length mantilla train. She carried a dozen white sweetheart roses surrounded by yellow daisies.

Mrs. Lonetta Warnick, sister of the bride Grantsville, was matron of honor. Mrs. Delores McKenzie, Frostburg, was her sister's bridesmaid. Renee Wasnick, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

Earl Savage, McHenry, was his son's best man. Ushers were Neil Henline, Rockville, Dale Wagner, Oakland, brothers-in-law of the groom, and William Edwards brother-in-law of the bride, Grantsville. Ring bearer was Ronald Kamp, Grantsville.

The bride's mother was attired in a floor-length navy blue knit with matching accessories. The groom's mother wore a floor-length light blue knit with matching accessories. Both wore corsages of white carnations trimmed with blue ribbons.

A reception followed in the McHenry firehall. Assisting were Cheryl Rounds, sister-in-law of the bride, Edith Rounds and Leona Broadwater, aunts of the bride, and Connie Kamp. Lakers Nose Out Beaver 78 to 74

Garrett Community college Lakers, proving it can win the close ones, defeated Beaver County Community college, of Pittsburgh, 78 to 74 last Saturday night at McHenry. The Lakers used foul shots to post their 10th win in 13 games.

The Lakers made 16 of 32 free throws but Beaver shot only four of ten at the charity stripe. Making the one and one foul shots down the stretch proved the difference for the Lakers. Tom Bosley made two free throws with only 24 seconds left to give Garrett the final four-point lead.

Bosley who finished with 13 points, hit seven of ten foul shots. Steve Van Ausdale was leading scorer for Garrett with 22 points and also set a school record with 19 rebounds. John Raszka had 20 points. Dave Curtis got 14, hitting on long shots from the corner when the Lakers used their four-corner offense.

The Lakers never could build more than an eight point bulge. Beaver came into the game boasting the highest scoring offense in the region, but was held to 33 points in the first half as Garrett took a 39-33 lead into the locker room.

Beaver finished the game with four players in double figures. Collins had 18, Ricker 15, Shoemaker 14 and Anthony 13. The Lakers hit 31 of 70 shots from the field and hauled down 49 rebounds. Also scoring for the Lakers were Gibson with 2, Hall 2, and Shifko 5.

SAFETY CONTAINERS CAN WEAR OUT

This new year we are most hopeful that deaths due to accidental taking of medicines by small children will be drastically reduced. The one major reason for this hope is the increasingly widespread use of the new safety containers for most medicines.

But, along with this major development in pharmaceutical packaging comes a new danger. A false sense of security that the safety cap will automatically stop accidents. But after prolonged use the closure mechanism on the safety tops can wear out. Be aware of this and do not reuse these containers.

Sure, these are the questions a door raises.

Jesus once said, "I am the door." His teachings have opened for millions a more meaningful, purposeful and satisfying life.

Yet people still get hung up on the questions of a locked door and what's behind it. The atheist says there's nothing beyond the door. The agnostic says we'll never know because it's locked. And the spiritually-hesitant just say, 'I wish I knew...."

Sheer logic says try the knob. Common sense says grasp it firmly and turn. Those who have say it's amazing what rewards we discover with one twist of human initiative:

It's like going to church next Sunday when you haven't been there in years.

THE SOURCE

Lesson for January 27, 1974

Background Scripture: John 14:1-7, 15:1-5
Devotional Reading: John 14:1-14.

A British clergyman, J. B. Phillips, gained much acclaim and renown for his New Testament in Modern English. Encouraged by public response to his writing, J. B. Phillips began to write a succession of books that were best-sellers in the religious field.

Rev. Althouse

Along with this sudden rise in fame there came an ever-growing list of invitations to lecture and broadcast, not only in England, but abroad as well. He was constantly interviewed by the press and there was a steady stream of people coming to him for one thing or another.

Cut-off from our source

There was, however, a terrible price to be paid for this success: there was being built an image of J. B. Phillips that was not really J. B. Phillips at all. People no longer regarded him as an ordinary human being. "Everything I wrote or said," he reveals, "had to be better than the last." The public image of J. B. Phillips "grew and grew until it was so unlike me that I could no longer live with it."

Realizing this, he found that his flow of creativity had been cut off. Writing, once a pleasure, now became an almost impossible drudgery. A painter by hobby, he also discovered that he was losing his acute sense of color, taking hours to mix shades that he had before done in seconds.

Then he made an important discovery that has been made by so many successful men who have suffered creative decay: somewhere in the process of becoming successful he had cut himself off from the source of his creativity and success. He had failed to remember the admonition of Jesus: "Apart from me, you can do nothing" (15:5).

"If you abide in me ..."

It is in close, day by day fellowship with Christ that we find the resources for daily living. Unfortunately, however, we frequently find ourselves "too busy" for that fellowship and we begin to grow further and further away from that empowering relationship. Until at last, overextended in every direction, we find nothing upon which to draw, only emptiness where once Christ lived.

A young man was enamored of Abraham Lincoln. He bought every book on Lincoln that he could fund, made a collection of his speeches, and committed to memory many of the great man's utterences. One day someone said to him, "Do you know what you remind me very much of Abraham Lincoln." The man replied, "That is understandable, for I have lived with him many years."

So, as we live closely with the Master, we will become more like him. "I am the vine," said Jesus, "you are the branches. He who abides in me, and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit . . ." (15:5).

If our lives are to be fruitful, we must continue to live closely to him who is our source. The branches need that living vine.

Capitol Comment

By Charles McC Mathias

Some Goals for the New Year

As Congress begins its 1974 session, there are several issues of concern to Marylanders that have my attention in the Senate.

One of our principal concerns, of course, is the energy crisis. With Senator Beall, I held a day of hearings in Baltimore during the last week of 1973. The hearings provided me with valuable information from a broad cross-section of Maryland's population about the impact of the energy shortage on our State and its citizens. It is information that will be of much use to me as I consider carefully actions the federal government may undertake in 1974 to come to grips with the crisis that confronts us.

One thing that is clear is that the energy shortage and its effects will be with us for some time. It is a situation that will call for adjustments by all of us in our daily living patterns. With cooperation, patience and good humor, we will see it through.

An important concern that continues from 1973 is the need to restore confidence in some of our governmental and political processes. I plan to pursue legislation to satisfy this need in five areas:

- To give statutory character to the Federal Bureau of Investigation so that it is more insulated from political pressure but also is more responsive to oversight and direction from both the Executive Branch and the Congress.
- To insure that Federal agencies make information they gather available to the Congress as a matter of legal right so that the Congress can better carry out its responsibilities of making the law and sharing in the setting of national goals.
- To reform electoral and campaign procedures by requiring full disclosure of all contributions and a limit on contributions to campaigns and providing for an equitable system of public financing of all elections.
- To strengthen the guarantees of the First, Fourth, Fifth and Ninth Amendments to the Constitution.
- To establish a pilot program for a new basic unit of government that Thomas Jefferson once proposed and called "Little Republics."

There is a growing desire among people throughout the country to be involved in government, and yet it is distressingly true that the ability of the people to participate in their own government has been lessened.

One of our goals for 1974 must be to give citizens in local constituencies the ability to involve themselves in government and have a meaningful voice in matters that affect their everyday lives.

Enzymes

Correct usage of detergent or soap and bleach are critical in achieving good laundering results. There are other laundry aids that can help. One category includes enzyme products which are available as pre-soaks and enzyme detergents. Their function is to break down certain soils and stains into simpler forms so that they can be more easily removed by other detergent ingredients and the washing action.

The pre-soak products are used in soaking prior to washing. The length of soaking time depends on the nature or amount of soil and the water temperature. The minimum time generally recommended is ½ hour but an hour or two, even overnight, may be required for some heavy stains. Package directions should be followed for best results. Pre-soak products may be used with a detergent in the wash cycle but should not be used as a substitute.

Enzyme products may be used with all washable fabrics and are particularly effective in removing stains such as blood, eggs, milk, baby formula, baby foods, gravy, chocolate, some vegetables and fruits and many other food stains. They help to remove ground-in dirt and body soil from sheets, collars and cuffs. Enzymes also aid in restoring whiteness to fabrics that have yellowed or turned dingy.

It should be noted that there are some stains that may not be removed by enzyme products. They include rust ink or graphite; fat-based stains like cooking oils, salad dressings, motor grease or lubricating oils; highly-pigmented stains such as mustard or dyes that have blend from one garment to another.

When an enzyme detergent and chlorine bleach are used in the wash cycle, the bleach should be added during the last half. This method is suggested since chlorine bleach will deactivate enzymes when used simultaneously. The delayed time permits each ingredient to perform its specialized function satisfactorily and in sequence.

Mineral Surface Mine Bill Backed

Legislation to regulate the surface mining of minerals and establish reclamation programs for such operations won support last Friday from state officials and industry representatives.

The bill which would not apply to strip coal mining, would require mineral miners to obtain state licenses after first presenting details of how they would reclaim the land.

The legislation, prepared by the Maryland Geological Survey, would require operators to pay $30 an acre fee which would be combined with matching state money to help reclaim the mined land.

As drafted the proposed regulations would take effect for new mining operations in July 1975, and for existing operations after January, 1977.

Some Local Land May Qualify For Wildlands

The Department of Natural Resources today reported that 44,776 acres of state land might qualify for inclusion in the state wildlands preservation system.

Natural Resources Secretary James B. Coulter submitted a report to Governor Marvin Mandel stating DNR had, as requirtd by law, reviewed all roadless areas of 500 contiguous acres or more under the department's jurisdiction.

In total Mr. Coulter said, 162 areas comprising 239,862 acres were reviewed and 38 areas consisting of 44,776 acres met a number of evaluation criteria and will be subjected to extensive field examination to determine if they should be part of the State Wildlands Preservation System.

Already, Maryland has one component of the Wildlands System, the 2,000-acre Big Savage Wildland in this county.

Joint Support . . .

The community is faced with a rather serious problem as the result of the announcement by the Oakland-Mt. Lake Park Lions Club that it would no longer continue to sponsor the Autumn Glory Festival which has now been in existence for six years.

There is no doubt it was a tremendous responsibility for one service club to assume. The club did it for two years and operated with a profit, but the pressure on a few individuals was too heavy. In any organization there are workers and drones and there was no exception here. But the club had other civic projects, the annual Hallowe'en celebration, annual fruit cake sale, food booth at home football games of Southern High School, and many others. The volunteer efforts of the club members was especially heavy during Autumn Glory Festival time, and hours were long.

There is no doubt that the Festival attracted many thousands of persons to the area which was a financial benefit to hundreds. It helped to make a more attractive community. It definitely was an asset.

What can be done? The Promotion Council should again accept the sponsorship. But it should enlist the help of local service clubs and organizations. The Rotary, the Lions Club, the Fire Department, the Business and Professional Women, the Optimists, Jaycees, League of Women Voters, and other groups could be called upon to promote one facet: the pageant, the parade, the carnival, the food, the entertainment, the dance, the kick-off dinner, and other activities. In this way the work load would be distributed equally among all groups, and expenses and profit could be pooled so that no one organization would lose from any one project.

Plans should be started soon, particularly the naming of the queen, her princesses and escorts from the two high schools, and other details.

The community as a whole should support this occasion and not let it fall by the wayside. It has a valuable place in the overall picture of Oakland and Garrett County.

Forest Tracts Being Eyed As Wildland Areas

Some 27,465 Acres In Western Maryland Being Studied

Sixty-one percent of all 'potential wildlands" presently being studied in Maryland for possible future protection lie in the Western Maryland counties of Allegany and Garrett, the Department of Natural Resources announced.

A total of 27,465 acres of forestland in the two Western Maryland counties will be undergoing extensive study over the next several years to determine if the land, lying in 22 tracts, is already primitive enough to be worth saving for future generations.

State-wide a total of 41,776 acres have been set aside in 38 tracts for study for possible inclusion in the recently created State Wildland Preservation System. Other possible wildlands exist in Frederick, Howard, Baltimore, Caroline, Worcester, Somerset and St. Mary's counties.

The idea behind the wildlands as outlined by DNR is to preserve some tracts of land in the state as they might have existed at the time of the American Indian over two centuries ago. Such areas must comprise at least 500 contiguous wilderness acres, unbroken by power lines, recent logging operations, roads of any sort, buildings, man-made clearings, game-food or wildlife management plots, strip mines or gravel pits, or any other traces of man for the last quarter century.

The only existing wildland to date is the 2,000 acre Big Savage Wildland above the Savage River reservoir which was created last year by the General Assembly.

Areas selected will be subjected to public hearings and study by the General Assembly. Copies of the first phase report, including maps, are available for perusal at the Western Region Service Center of DNR Highland Estates, Naves Crossroads, Cumberland.

Areas in Garrett County under study include:

Potomac State Forest -- 575 acres, west slope of Backbone Mt., in Maple Lick Run drainage area, and 500 acres east of Lost Land Run.

Savage River state forest, 14 parcels: 1550 acres in two parcels, Ridge Road., 500 acres on Little Savage Mt., west slope Wolf Swamp area; 1,200 acres in Poplar Lick Run drainage area; 700 acres in Black Lick Run drainage area; 850 acres in Blue Lick Run drainage area; 950 acres on Savage Mt. summit, south of St. John's Rock; 2,000 acres in two parcels, comprising most of area between Moore's Run drainage area, Dry Run on south; 1,200 acres between Pine Swamp on east and Savage River on west.

Ordinance Urged On Newsstand Obscenity

Some twenty-four additional residents of the county declared at a meeting Monday night that in their opinion, certain newsstand publications violated the moral standard of the community. These were in addition to the twenty from last week's meeting, making a total of 44.

Concerned citizens attended Monday's meeting from Accident, Friendsville, Mellenry, Crellin, Rosedale, in addition to those from the Oakland area. Anderson Cosby, in charge, said a West Virginian declared many people who travel from Aurora to shop in Oakland are "very much concerned about the condition of the newsstands."

Cosby said in the opinion of the citizens' committee, several newsstand publications meet all four of the tests for obscenity as defined by a recent Supreme Court ruling.

The committee proposed that a town and county ordinance prohibiting obscenity be adopted and enforced.

Is Listed In "Who's Who" In State Of Ohio

Lyle Harsh, of Rootstown, O., a graduate of Aurora High school, was informed recently he had been nominated and selected to appear in the 1974 edition of "Who's Who in Ohio," a compilation of biographical information on outstanding citizens of the state.

A person must have distinguished himself in business, government, or civic awareness within his own community, to be considered. Mr. Harsh, has been a teacher of mathematics in Rootstown High school for several years, is treasurer of the city council of that town, and is active in the Methodist church there. He is married to a West Virginia girl and they have one son and two daughters.

A graduate of Aurora High chool, he also received a degree from Alderson - Broaddus college, Philippi, W. Va. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Harsh, Stemple Ridge, Aurora.

Mr. Harsh is one of approximately six thousand persons among ten million residents of Ohio, who are listed in the edition for 1974.

C & P Computer Sytems At Thayerville

Workmen have reached the halfway point with the installation of the new, modern, computerized telephone switching system for the Thayerville exchange. Pictured above are Frank Eberly, local C & P Telephone Company manager, and Jim Manuel, supervisor of the installation, as they view the Control Console. Workers continue to connect the two-million wires necessary to the installation.

Installation of the computerized telephone switching system at the Thayerville exchange is approximately half completed, according to Frank Eberly, manager of C & P Telephone Co. in this county.

This million dollar system, when completed and ready for use in early June, will provide customers in the 387 dialing area with several additional features not available with existing equipment.

An extension of this system is projected for full county coverage in the not-too-distant future.

Thayerville was chosen as the site for the new equipment since forecasts show it will be one of the major growth centers in western Maryland during the next ten years.

A C&P building on Pud Miller Road houses the equipment. Installation by workmen from Western Electric was begun in early November, and completion date is set for April 1. Sixty days will then be allowed for trials and testing before the new features can be put into effect.

This is the first system of its size to be installed outside of metropolitan areas in the state. Cumberland is scheduled to get a similar switching system later this year.

New Features

New features of the system include call forwarding, call waiting and three-way calling, all of which will be accomplished automatically.

In call forwarding, if a customer wishes to spend the evening at a friend's house but is expecting a call, he dials a special code and the number of the friend's telephone, then hangs up. The call will then be automatically forwarded to the friend's home.

In call waiting, if a customer is speaking on the phone and someone is trying to call him, a light tone will sound in his ear to let him know of the incoming call.

In three-way calling, a customer may, after hearing the tone, depress his telephone button, which will allow the other caller to join in the conversation.

Teachers Vote To Ratify New 2-Year Contract

GCTA Accepts Contract Unanimously Last Thursday

The three hundred members of the Garrett County Teachers Association voted unanimously to ratify a new two-year contract last Thursday evening.

Teachers' salaries and the insurance program are two items improved by the new contract. Starting teachers' salaries will go to $7,500 from $7,000.

Total estimated cost of the entire package is $180,000 to $200,000 above the last contract. This amount covers implementation of all benefits and increases for all certificated employes.

The agreement was reached this year in an amiable and orderly manner, according to Dr. William Buser, superintendent of schools, following eight table sessions and numerous bargaining conferences.

Agreement was reached about a month or six weeks ahead of the usual time, due in part to the smooth agreement and in part to an early start in negotiation sessions, he said.

On Tuesday afternoon at 4 p.m., members of the Board of Education and GCTA negotiators met at the Board offices to officially sign the agreement. Present were Dr. Buser, Wm. Goldsborough, president of the local school board; Lewis Domenick, negotiator for the board; Eugene Flinn, GCTA vice president, and Darrell Malone GCTA president.

GCTA representatives not present were Jim Zimmerman, Melvin Sexton, Doyle Dabney and Joanne Rebele. School Board members not present were Mrs. Fred Thayer, Robert Diehl and Herbert Harmon.

Commissioners Endorse Solid Waste Plan

Also Endorse Ideas Of Several Sheep Ranchers On Sheep Killing Dogs

The Solid Waste Master plan for the county was reviewed by the County Commissioners during their regular meeting Monday. Endorsing the concept of solid waste management, the Commissioners reviewed the capital and operating costs for implementation of the plan. Total estimated cost for the project was placed at $441,950, with funds to come from the Appalachian Regional Commission, Maryland Abandoned Mine Program, and local sources.

The commissioners are in the process of applying for federal funds and approval takes about six months, it was pointed out.

In other activity this week the commissioners met with a group of sheep ranchers, Lee Shillingburg, John Evans, Dale Evans, Ricky Keith Bramble, and Wayne Martin, to discuss the dog law in regard to sheep kills.

The commissioners endorsed their ideas in that dog owner should be responsible if his dog kills a sheep, and that people should be fined for abandoning stray dogs, dropping them along highways, etc. Amendments to the present dog law will be presented in Annapolis this session, the commissioners said, and Delegate DeCorsey Bolden will be contacted by the group to endorse such amendments.

The commissioners announced that at present $2,150,000 of local funds were in Savings certificates. They pointed out this was not a surplus but was budgeted money. They said many taxpayers had taken advantage of the discount period by paying their taxes early and that the additional revenue obtained from sound savings accounts in addition to cash flow management as opposed to quarterly payments to various county agencies, produced more local funds for the benefit of all.

Preliminary budgets for the Department of Social Services and the Board of Election Supervisors were submitted to the commissioners for review, marking the opening of the budget period.

It was revealed that Commissioner Earl Opel had attended the legislative session of the Maryland Association of Counties in Annapolis this week, and that Commissioner Wayne Hamilton had attended the Board of Public Works Interagency Committee to discuss funding of preventive maintenance for school buildings.

Earhart Named Outstanding Young Man In Jaycees

A Bridgewater certified public accountant was named the Bridgewater - Dayton Jaycees' "Outstanding Young Man" of 1973.

Cited for his civic activities was William Earhart, 29, certified public accountant and a Bridgewater town councilman.

Mr. Earhart has been a member of the Bridgewater-Dayton Jaycees since 1969. He was president of the group in 1972-73 and is chairman of the board this year. He was treasurer in 1970-72.

The Bridgewater man won the Jaycee "key man" award in 1972 and was a finalist for the outstanding Jaycee president in the state in 1973.

He headed civic projects last year that included raising funds for epileptics and organizing Bridgewater church representatives to deal with low income housing problems in that community.

Mr. Earhart was appointed to the Bridgewater Town Council in 1972 to complete a two-year term. He is chairman of the town's budget and finance committee and serves on the public service committee.

Mr. Earhart has been an accountant with Keeler, Phibbs and company since 1968. He became a certified public accountant in 1971 and became a partner in the firm this past December.

Mr. Earhart, a former resident of Oakland, is a son of Rev. and Mrs. J. Stanley Earhart, Grantham, Pa. The Rev. J. Stanley Earhart was a pastor of the Oak Park Church of the Brethren from 1961 to 1964.

The Jaycee graduated from Southern High school in 1962 and Bridgewater College in 1966. He is married to the former Janet Schlossnagle and they have a four-year old daughter.

Gets Committee Appointment

George M. Browning, president of the Board of Supervisors of Election for this county, was recently appointed chairman of the Resolutions committee of the Maryland Association of Election officials by John W. Schafer, president.

The Maryland Association of Election Officials is a group working for successful conduct of elections.

Mrs. Linda A. Sharp, Talbot county, and John C. Eisele, of Montgomery county, were appointed members. Mr. Browning said he would hold a meeting of the committee in Annapolis in February.

Attend Meeting

Mrs. Dorothy Straub, state education A. R chairman; Mrs. Janice Hutchinson, Garrett Branch president; and Mrs. Jean Grose, branch fellowship chairman, attended a Maryland State Board meeting of American Association of University Women in Washington, D. C., last Saturday, January 26.

Mrs. Straub presented a report on education and the three attended workshops on publicity, legislation and fellowships. "Believing a student should have the freedom of studying selective subjects of their choice, they are requesting the Board of Education to institute a course of study for the purpose of teaching the Bible as literature, since the book contains some of the oldest poetry, best ethics known to man. We believe this study is essential to all students."

Group Wants Bible Taught In Schools

Petitions were being circulated this week by a group of citizens interested in having the Holy Bible taught as literature in the two high schools of the county, Northern and Southern High Schools.

The petitions, when full of names of citizens of the community, are to be presented to Dr. William Buser, county superintendent of Schools, and members of the Board of Education.

R. A. Fisk, Accident, is one of those working to secure names on the petitions. Members of the Young Americans for Freedom, a conservative youth group, also are endeavoring to get signatures.

An advertisement in today's issue says, "Believing a student should have the freedom of studying selective subjects of their choice, they are requesting the Board of Education to institute a course of study for the purpose of teaching the Bible as literature, since the book contains some of the oldest poetry, best ethics known to man. We believe this study is essential to all students."

Results Given Of Miner's Death

Investigation results into the death of the 25-year-old Corinth, W. Va., coal miner were presented by the safety division of the International United Mine Workers union, region 1, of Fairmont.

Donald Poland of the union's division staff, said Lawrence Pritt, Jr., who was pronounced dead on arrival at Garrett Co Memorial hospital, and Carroll Deem, a fellow worker, had stayed at the North Branch Coal company, Bayard, between shifts to replace temporary splices in a talling cable to a continuous mining machine with permanent splices.

Mr. Poland said the two merely tripped the circuit breaker, feeding the tailing cable. Unaware that they were working on the cable, another worker who did routine maintenance on the continuous machine fed by this particular cable made checks of the machine.

After inspecting the machine the maintenance man tripped the circuit breaker, which put electricity back in the cable and electrocuted Mr. Pritt, Mr. Poland said.

Mr. Poland added the two were working around the corner and the maintenance man, who could not see them, was unaware of their presence between shifts.

Services for Mr. Pritt were conducted Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Corinth United Methodist church with Rev. Vernon Ruppenthal and Rev. W. C. Dunson officiating. Interment was in Terra Alta cemetery.

On Honor Roll

Five Garrett County residents were listed in the first semester honor students who were named by the College of Arts and Sciences at West Virginia university, Morgantown.

Students must achieve at least a 3.3 grade point average in a system or 4.0 being perfect, to be named to the dean's list.

Deer Park, Donald E. Wilt.

Mt. Lake Park, Donald W. Sincell and Donna S. Stark.

Oakland, Rudophy A. Cvetnick, and Linda M. Glotfelty.

Mathias Will Open Bid For Re-election

U. S. Senator Charles McC. Mathias, Jr., will formally begin his campaign for relection at a rally in his hometown of Frederick on Saturday, February 2, set for 11 a.m., at the Francis Scott Key hotel.

Mathias, a Republican, represented the Western Maryland district for eight years in the House of Representatives before he was elected to the Senate in 1968.

Mathias announced last December 21 that he would impose strict limitations on his campaign financing, including a limit of $100 per contribution, and full reporting of all contributions and expenditures.

2 Achieve Dean's List Last Term

Mrs. Donna (Sparks) Callis, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Johnson of Mt. Lake Park, was among the students who achieved the Dean's list at West Virginia University for the fall semester with a 3.6 average.

Donald (Rick) DeWitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley DeWitt, Crellin, again made the Dean's list at Garrett Community College for the fall semester with a 4.0 average. Mr. DeWitt, who will graduate this spring, has made the Dean's list each semester since he enrolled.

Two Out On Bond On Drug Charge

Two Pennsylvania men have been released on charges of possession of marijuana. Reduced bond was set last week by Judge Lewis R. Jones in District Court.

Craig Freeman Smith and James Grant Smith, both of Carmichaels, Pa., have been charged with possession of marijuana on January 19 at Grantsville. A bag of marijuana was found in their car and bond was set at $5,000 each. At a hearing January 21 Judge Jones reduced the bond to $2,500 each and they were released on payment of bond.

A trial has been set for February 11.

Del Boring Tire Company Moving To Third Street

Del Boring Tire Company, with home bases in Johnstown, Pa., is setting up a store in Oakland in the former C&P Telephone building on Third street, across from Gordon Douglass Beat Company.

Del Boring, which has been in business for 28 years and has two stores and a retread plant in Johnstown, located a store in the Oakland area last August, in Industrial Park, south of town.

However, zoning in that area does not allow retail businesses, so the store is moving to Third Street. Opening day is set for Friday, February 1, with a grand opening planned for April 1.

Another reason for the move to Oakland is for needed expansion, according to manager Larrie Weaver, who hopes to expand the store from its present five employes to 15 by the end of this summer.

The store will be a one-hundred percent Goodyear distribution center, and will offer a full automotive care center, including front end alignments and tune-ups, and truck service, including servicing of tractor-trailers and Fleetsides.

Available will be Goodyear tires for passenger vehicles, trucks, off-the-road equipment, motorcycles and bicycles.

Mr. Weaver is from Johnstown, Pa., and is residing in Oakland at 13 N Eleventh st. A graduate of Robert Morris college, Pittsburgh, he is planning to marry a Johnstown girl, Barbara Hetrick, in April.

Present employes include Fred Whitmer, of Oakland, assistant manger and salesman; Paula Railey, secretary; Roger Baker, and Russell Sines.

An Oakland man has been released on bond pending trial on a charge of larceny. A reduced bond was set Tuesday in District Court by Judge Lewis R. Jones.

A $5,000 bond was set Monday but was reduced at a hearing Tuesday to $2,500.

The case is to be transferred to Circuit Court. No trial date has been set.

That game has been rescheduled for Friday, February 8.

Bolden Cites Poaching Here

Garrett County has a deer poaching ring that is killing animals in large nmbers, then selling the meat on the black market, a House committee in Annapolis was told yesterday.

Del. DeCarsey Bolden, said his county has been having trouble with poachers but nothing can be done because there are only three wildlife officers to patrol the county night and day.

Bolden said he was requested to take action by landowners and farmers who have been plagued with the spotlighting problem. To get around the law against spotlighting with a loaded weapon in his possession, several spotlight but only one has a gun to slay the deer. Bolden also said the poachers were using sophisticated steps to take deer, including a two-way radio system to alert ring members when enforcement officers approach.

Charles V. Garner, Department of Natural Resources, inland investigation division, testified how the poachers work. He said one car will come into an area, leave its headlights shining into a field or wooded area. If, after a period of time, no law enforcement officer shows up, then more cars follow. After that comes the person with the gun.

All the while, lookouts are posted.

The Bolden measure is HB 134, and it calls for a $500 fine for anyone in violation. The bill exempts farmers and landowners who use artificial lights at night to check on livestock or poultry. Bolden said most important was the fact that the law would give the enforcement officer authority to make an arrest for spotlighting, even if a person does not have a weapon in his possession.

Three Are Fined For Shoplifting

Three persons paid fines in District Court this week for shoplifting. Two were found guilty and a third made no contest before Judge Lewis R. Jones.

Charles Falkenstein, RD 1, Terra Alta, W. Va., and Leon Sisler, Friendsville, had been charged with shoplifting at Browning's Foodland on December 13.

At a trial Tuesday, both pleaded not guilty but were found guilty and fined $50 each and $10 costs. Both also received a 30-day suspended jail sentence. They were placed on probation for six months and during that time are to stay out of Foodland.

A third person, David Curtis, RD 1, Accident, made no contest at a trial Tuesday of shoplifting January 10, also at Foodland. Curtis was also fined $50 and $10 costs and a 30-day jail sentence was suspended. He was placed on probation as were the two above.

Charter of Oakland Scout Troop 31 Is Being Renewed For Fiftieth Year

Members of BPO Elks No. 2481, in Oakland, met Monday night to prepare the application for renewal of the charter for Oakland Troop No. 31, Boy Scouts of America, in order to keep the organization active for its fiftieth year of existence.

The troop was organized in September, 1924, and the charter was received early in 1925. The troop must be re-registered each year to remain active, and troop 31, originally Oakland Troop No. 1, has remained registered each year since 1924. It is the oldest troop in Potomac Council.

Jake Powles was named as scoutmaster, with Delmas Sliger, assistant. John Walters was named an institutional representative.

Aiding in the registration process were Alex McPheeters, regional executive assigned to this area, Stanley Callis, district chairman of organization and extension and Chester Mosser, district commissioner.

Mr. Walters said that invitations had been issued to prospective scouts and they are to meet with Elks leaders next Monday evening at 7:30 in the scout hall, over the city hall, to complete arrangements for registration.

Named on the troop committee are Joe Mechem, Luther Parrack, Jr., and Joseph Winters, Elks members, plus George Hanst, who has been a troop committee member since 1934; also Bernard Gonder, Jr., Eagle scout of 1926, and David Gonder, Eagle scout of 1958.

The lowest reading was Saturday morning with 27 degrees, which contrasted with Sunday morning's low of 51 degrees.

Resolution Would Reject Legislative Pay Raise

A State Senator from Allegany county joined with half a dozen other senate members Monday night to sponsor a resolution which would turn down the $1,500 pay raise recommended for legislators.

Sen. Edward J. Mason, Republican, said he would join efforts to stop the salary increase after having had an opportunity to study the recommendation in detail.

The Compensation committee made its recommendation last week. Mason said an increase in in per diem expenses and travel allowance would do individual legislators more good than the $1,500 raise.

Five Named To Advisory For Older Americans

Five presons from Garrett County have been named to serve on the recently organized Advisory Council for the Older Americans Program, according to Edward I. Heath, executive director of the Tri-County Council for Western Maryland.

Garrett County's five are Donald Bender and Robert Ford, both representatives from the Commission on Aging; Mildred Peterson, volunteer worker with the Garrett County Meals for the Elderly program; Vivian Tasker, director of the Meals for Elderly program; and William Stemple, representative from Concerted Services Agency, Oakland.

The Advisory Program for the Older Americans Program, for which the Tri-County Council is serving as regional coordinating and fiscal agency, came about when Western Maryland was awarded $117,000 in federal funds under the recently amended Older Americans Act.

Each of the counties involved will operate its own program through a local agency. In Allegany and Garrett counties, the respective Community Action Committees will administer the programs.

M.O.S. Purchases 110 Acres Here

The Maryland Ornithological Society has agreed to purchase 110 acres of mountain woodland and meadow adjoining the Carey Run Sanctuary in Garrett County to be added to its statewide network of perpetual wildlife sanctuaries.

The new acreage will be incorporated as a part of the present sanctuary and will make Carey Run, with 162 acres, the second largest non-governmental wildlife refuge in the state.

The purchase brings to nearly 2,000 acres the total land in Maryland set aside by the organization as permanent refuge for wild birds and animals.

An additional 16,000 acres of individually owned land are enrolled in a private sanctuary program administered by MOS.

The new acquisition provides nesting habitat for many birds seldom seen elsewhere in the state, and will enable MOS to preserve as wild natural acreage an area which is beginning to feel the pressures of real estate development.

The Garrett County purchase is the second during the past year for MOS, a private, nonprofit organization with more than 2,000 members in 13 chapters throughout the state.

The new acreage in Garrett County will provide needed space for the extensive program of nature studies and other youth activities.

Two Interns Join Tri-County Council

Two Frostburg State students have joined the staff of the Tri-County Council for Western Maryland under the college's public affairs internship program.

Council Chairman, County Commissioner Wayne B. Hamilton, Oakland, said Joel Shoap and Wade A. Berry, both seniors, would be working this semester under the guidance of executive director, Edward I. Heath. Berry is a native of Washington. Shoap is a native of District Heights

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir:

Upon notification of my 1974 tax assessment, an increase of 125%, I wrote letters of complaint to assessors, commissioners, elected officials concerning excessive taxes and expenditures. One complaint was concerning the free bus pilot system, for which public funds have now been applied by the commissioners. Mr. Don Bender, president, Commission on Aging, was appointed by our county commissioners and is paid by the Department of Transportation, and Garrett county, from various tax monies.

January 21 Republican states that 1,152 poll cards were in favor of this bus system, 267 against. I have talked with people concerning this poll (all of whom were dissatisfied) told me they voted against it, and knew of no one who voted in favor. Strange, indeed, that all these people were in that 19% of unfavorable votes. Besides, 1,419 is not a fair poll for Garrett county. There are probably this many households in Oakland and Mt. Lake Park alone.

The item mentioned a transportation need. Almost every household has at least one car—most have more. Doctors' offices are filled with people. Should persons pay for transportation out of their social security or relief money, that also is being provided free by the taxpayers.

I vote to unload this bus expenditure. How about you?

Dear Sir:

I would like to express my opinion concerning the present situation our truckers are facing.

How many American people take time to realize how our truckers must feel. Who stops to realize the truckers are the one who keep America moving?

How else would we adequately receive our produce, supplies and other items of necessity?

It is hard to believe that we have people in America low enough to throw rocks through a truckers' windshield, or worse yet, shoot him! Such violent people should thank God we have citizens left like our truckers who will stand up for what they believe in.

I, for one, support the truckers totally in any measure they may take. After all they pay for the use of the roads we do. If these truckers feel they must protest these fuel prices who has the right to try to stop them? If their money that has to pay these ridiculous prices. So do I, and I support the hard-working trucker. Let's support him.

Sincerely
Deanna Bowen

Disabled and elderly people need more than Medicare.

They need our Blue Cross and Blue Shield Medicare Supplemental Program. It covers most of Medicare's deductible and co-insurance requirements...and at a very reasonable cost. (We used to call this program Blue Cross and Blue Shield 65. But the name was changed last year when we included coverage for those disabled who now are eligible for Medicare.)

And the benefits under our Medicare Supplemental Program have been expanded to fully cover the 16.7 per cent increase in Medicare Part A deductible and co-insurance amounts as of the first of this year. But the cost of Medicare Supplemental remains the same. Just $11 a month per person.

So, if you're eligible for Medicare because you're over 65, or under 65 and disabled, then you're eligible for Medicare Supplemental. And enrollment is open from now until March 31. No health statements or physical examinations are required. Just that you are eligible for Medicare. For more information, write Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Maryland, 700 East Joppa Road, Towson, Maryland 21204.

Your health is what we're all about.

Women's League Discusses Boys' Forestry Camps

The Boys' Forestry Camp program was the main topic discussed at the January 28 unit meetings of the League of Women Voters of Garrett County. THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

THE COUNSELOR

Lesson for February 3, 1971

Background Scripture: John 15:18 through 16:15
Devotional Reading: John 16:16-24.

"Live," said someone, "as if Jesus were your constant companion!"

Understandably, most of us would find it easier to live as good Christians if Jesus lived in our neighborhood or our homes. We would doubtless all be more careful in keeping his teachings and following his example. Most of us do better in almost anything when we are under scrutiny of some kind.

Rev. Althouse

Not only would the daily presence of Jesus give more incentive, but we would also probably make more use of his help in meeting our daily situations. We would be able to turn to him for advice and counseling. All of us probably have a number of important questions we would want to ask him.

"I will not leave you desolate"

We can imagine then how the disciples must have felt as they began to realize that Jesus was going to be leaving them soon. That day by day contact, its many opportunities for learning and counseling—all these would, it seemed, be lost in that event. How could they possibly learn to do without this man who had become seemingly essential to their lives?

Yet, he promised: "I will not leave you desolate . . ."(14:18). To take his place, God would send "another Counselor . . ." (14:16). Although Jesus was to be taken physically from them, God was going to provide another source of counsel and inspiration: "But the counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you" (14:26).

Obviously, the "new" Counselor God was sending would be different from Jesus in that he would be Spirit instead of physical. Given their choice, the disciples probably never would have been willing to give up Jesus in the flesh. That's human nature. Yet, this spiritual Counselor from God would have advantages over the fleshly Jesus. He would not have the limitations of a physical body which can only be in one place at a time and is limited. Furthermore, this Counselor was to "be with you forever" (14:16).

"And I in you"

The Counselor God was sending in place of the fleshly Jesus was to be within his disciples: " . . . for he dwells with you, and will be in you" (14:17). They will not have to search for this new Counselor, for he will be as close as their own hearts. "If a man loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him" (14:23).

We need not, then, hypothetically imagine what life would be like if Jesus were present, for, as John's Gospel makes it clear, he is present, very present in our lives if we will acknowledge him. Jesus does not have to "come back" in the flesh, for the Counselor within can do all and more for those who will acknowledge him.

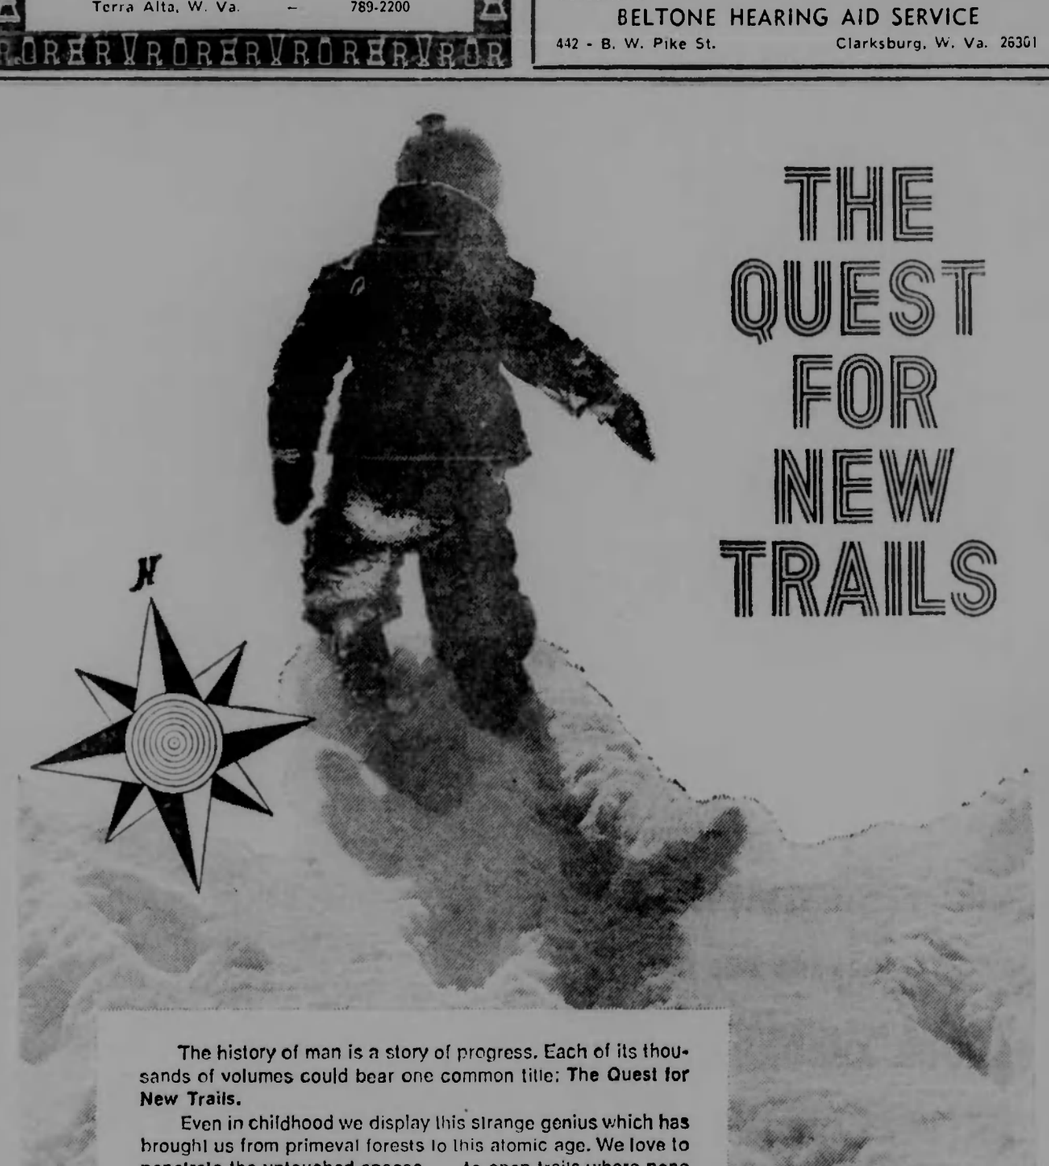
THE QUEST FOR NEW TRAILS



The history of man is a story of progress. Each of its thousands of volumes could bear one common title: The Quest for New Trails.

Even in childhood we display this strange genius which has brought us from primeval forests to this atomic age. We love to penetrate the untouched spaces . . . to open trails where none have ever been.

But this quest could destroy us more rapidly than it has profiled us. History recounts the fall of many a civilization too busy with its search for new trails to understand its deeper needs.

Or, bluntly, the future of this young Arctic explorer and of his world depends on the Church. The truths of God are unchanging—and ever more essential—as we seek new trails into the Unknown.

Promotion Council Seeks Advice On Autumn Glory

The Deep Creek Lake-Garrett County Promotion Council has sent out a number of letters asking advice on whether or not to continue the Autumn Glory Festival. A few weeks ago the Oakland-Mt. Lake Park Lions club indicated it would not sponsor the event next year.

At a trial January 21, White was found guilty and a pre-sentence investigation was ordered. White was also charged with assault on Martha Maysell with a gun. This charge was dismissed at a trial Monday as he had already been convicted on the same facts as in the above case.

Robert Crosco and Larry Alan Crosco, both of Hutton, had been charged with assault and battery on Boyd Johnson in Rosedale, December 29. At a trial January 21, the cases were dismissed as witnesses said the defendants were not guilty.

New Beef Program Explained At Rotary

Mr. Nolder explained details of the "Flav-R-Beef" program recently introduced in the area. It involves the concentrated feeding of Holstein bull calves, not ordinarily raised for beef, until they obtain a suitable weight and quality for market.

Nolder pointed out that cool summers and plentiful supply of good water help make this county an ideal development area for the program. He said that eight units of sixty animals each have already been started in the county.

Dr. William Buser, county superintendent of schools, will be the speaker at this evening's meeting.

THE REPUBLICAN

VOLUME 97 | OAKLAND, GARRETT COUNTY, MD. FEBRUARY 7, 1974 | PER COPY 15c | NUMBER 50

Public is the Butt . . .

The general public seems to be the butt of every strike and the trouble that Garrett County was in over the past several days was certainly no exception. As a result of the striking independent truck drivers, people here have no gasoline, until Tuesday had no bread and milk, and very little supplies of fresh groceries.

Schools are closed, activities were curtailed, people are unable to get to their jobs, and the economy was being wrecked. The independent truckers must bear the responsibility for the difficulties we were facing and still are facing. We admit that truckers ought to be able to pass on the increase in the price of fuel to the customer and make a decent living, but they have no right to wreck the economy of the county in doing so. Neither is there excuse for violence and certainly no reason for interrupting the normal flow of business to the area.

There is a weakness in our society when a small group of persons can cause damage to our community and very little is done about it.

While the truckers maintained they were allowing bread and milk through the blockade, yet they instilled fear in drivers that precipitated some violence on the part of numerous individuals. This spin-off of violence and hardship must be laid directly on the shoulders of independent truckers who participated in the tie-up.

Certainly there is a lack of effectiveness of government when a minority group can cause such an uproar, regardless of the validity of the complaint. Apparently the present trouble is now over as some kind of agreement was reached by truckers and the federal government early today. But this type of activity will go on and on unless a new type of settlement is discovered, and effective steps taken.

INFLUENCE OF PICKETS such as these who were staked out along the berm of Route 135 at 495 has been severely felt in Garrett County since last Friday. Schools have been closed all week, gas stations have run dry, food stocks are not abundant. Independent truckers at this spot insisted that all they did was ask truckers not to drive until demands for lower fuel prices were met in Washington. Incidents of violence have occurred in the county, but strikers disclaimed any responsibility for them. Maryland State Police had to escort truckers who did not wish to abide by the independents' requests. Governor Mandel has ordered the use of National Guard vehicles to bring fuel to Garrett County.

Independent Trucker Strike Causing Critical Shortages

Steps Taken Yesterday To Provide National Guard Trucks To Transport Gasoline To Area

Striking independent truckers of the county, halting most of the truck traffic, have caused critical shortages in bread, milk, other food, heating oil and gasoline, and created other problems such as the closing of schools, keeping workers from getting to their jobs and other inconvenience. Conditions are termed critical.

The difficulties as of this morning had not yet been completely ironed out, although steps were taken yesterday by the State to provide National Guard trucks to carry gasoline and food to the area and a tentative agreement with the truckers was reached about 5:30 a.m. today.

Gasoline stations have been unable to furnish any fuel for automobiles, trucks and school buses since Tuesday, some stations keeping only enough fuel to provide ambulances and fire trucks in cases of emergency.

Schools Closed

School was called off Monday on a day to day basis and schools remained closed Tuesday and Wednesday when the situation did not improve. Dr. William Buser, county superintendent of schools announced on Wednesday there would be no school until further notice. He said it was impossible for the buses to run when the drivers were not able to obtain fuel. Garrett Community College has also been closed until further notice.

Independent truckers had been picketing on highways 135, 495, 40, 50 and 219, for several days and were asking all trucks

Plans Complete For Heart Assoc. Kick-off Dinner

There are 120 reservations for the event which will include representatives of various organizations, professional and business persons. The dinner will be held at the American Legion [illegible] will be Dr. G[illegible]

[illegible] dinner to take advantage of the screening which will be done by members of the Northern Garrett County Rescue squad. Small tables will be at one end of the dining room for the screening.

Dr. Glick will be introduced by Mrs. Ora Mae Lewis, director of the Western Maryland Heart association. John Wolf, Heart fund director for Southern Garrett county, will introduce Mrs. Lewis. Rotary club program chairman for February is George H. Hanst. Bill Riley, vice-president of Rotary, will be in charge.

Mr. Wolf indicated Heart Sunday would be conducted on Sunday, February 24, and that C. L. Briner would be in charge of a radio telethon, scheduled to be held at Southern High school. Members of the Interact club of the high school will conduct a house to house canvass in Oakland in addition to a number of volunteers. There will also be collections at other towns in the county.

Gasoline Headed For This County

Convoys of gasoline shipments were due to arrive in Western Maryland today, to be used for emergency purposes.

This information came from Governor Marvin Mandel and his aides who were in Allegany county yesterday afternoon. The governor pursuaded three major gasoline distributors to ship gasoline into Allegany and Garrett counties under State Police guard.

Wayne Hamilton, president of the county commissioners, said this morning that a tanker was expected to leave the Baltimore area this morning with several thousand gallons of gas, to be allocated to three gas stations. This was for emergency purposes only.

Gov. Prepares To Use Guard, Police, If Need

Guard Trucks Would Haul Gasoline To Area Stations

Gov. Marvin Mandel made preparations to use National Guard trucks if necessary to bring food and fuel into Garrett and Allegany counties.

Wayne Hamilton, president of the Garrett County Commissioners, on Wednesday, accepted the governor's invitation, because conditions in Garrett county could become very critical within days.

The governor's press secretary Frank A. DeFilippo, said the vehicles could pick up supplies in Pennsylvania and deliver them to this area. He also said State Police would provide escorts if needed.

Trucks would be driven by National Guardsmen but that no units would be called into active duty.

U.S. Senator J. Glenn Beall, Jr., was told that the state government was "handling the situation" in both Allegany and Garrett counties. Delegate DeCorsey Bolden, yesterday said he had been in contact with the governor's office and that he was assured that help would be provided in any real emergency. A representative of the governor's office has been in meetings in Washington.

Senator Beall said he was told that if necessary gasoline would be trucked into Allegany and Garrett counties by National Guard tank trucks.

A state senate resolution, introduced by Senator Edward J. Mason urging Gov. Mandel to use all of his emergency powers to alleviate the food and fuel shortages in Western Maryland was adopted in Annapolis.

The resolution also noted that as a result of the independent truckers' strike a number of schools and industries were forced to close.

Many owners of tank trucks refuse to haul gas because they fear violence from other drivers who feel they have a just cause for not hauling the fuel. There is gasoline available in both Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

Rev. Larkin Will Go To Cumberland

Rev. Regis F. Larkin, pastor of St. Peter the Apostle church, Oakland, since 1968, will assume the pastorate of St. Patrick's Catholic church in Cumberland. His new duties will become effective on March 6. He replaces Msgr. John U. Lyness, who became pastor of Immaculate Conception church in Towson on Wednesday.

Father Larkin is a native of McKeesport, Pa., but his father, the late Frank J. Larkin [illegible] from Mt. Savage. His mother, Mrs. Sarah McNeil Larkin, still resides in McKeesport.

He attended St. Peter's School and St. Peters High School in McKeesport and was graduated from Duquesne university, Pittsburgh, with a bachelor of arts degree in education. Later he enrolled at St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, and was graduated from St. Mary's School of Theology, Baltimore. He was ordained in Baltimore on St. Patrick's Day, 1945.

His first assignment was as associate pastor at St. Michael's, Frostburg. In 1962 he was appointed area director for the Catholic Youth organization for Western Maryland. He was reassigned as an associate at St. Ursula's church, Parkville for one year prior to his Oakland appointment.

Beer Tax Money Totals $5,125.66 For 2nd Quarter

Checks totaling $925,060.40 were mailed by State Comptroller Louis L. Goldstein to Baltimore City and the 23 counties as their share of the beer tax revenue collected during October, November and December. The largest share amounting to $237,087.58, went to Baltimore City.

Total distribution for the first six months of the fiscal year amounts to $1,997,196.01. The distribution is based on four and one-half cents per gallon of beer delivered to retail dealers in the respective subdivisions.

Figures showed that Garrett County received $5,125.66 for the second quarter and $10,198.35 for the half year.

Bolden Assured By State Roads Group On Street Tunnel

Delegate DeCorsey E. Bolden has announced that his request for a tunnel or walkway at High Street in Oakland has been accepted by the State Highway Administration when the new proposed Oakland by-pass is constructed.

In a letter dated January 25th to Delegate Bolden State Highway Administrator Bernard M. Evans said, "We agree that there is a necessity for some type of accommodation to insure a safe pedestrian crossing." Evans also said that under the proposal "High Street will be severed and no vehicular traffic will be allowed to cross the proposed highway. Provision for safe pedestrian movement is proposed."

Delegate Bolden initiated the request in early January 1974. He noted that the request was promoted by "a potentially dangerous situation to the students of Southern High School when the by-pass is constructed."

Further Details On Agreement Of Teachers Listed

Further details of the teacher agreement between teachers and the Board of Education which was signed last week were released Tuesday by the office of the board.

The agreement for the first time covers a two-year period but will permit reopening salaries, insurance and four major issues during negotiation sessions for 1975-76. The agreement covers all aspects of compensation and working conditions of teachers, according to Dr. William Buser, county superintendent of schools.

Under the agreement, noted last week the salary schedule for the standard professional teachers would begin at $7,500 the first year and move to $10,930 in the fourteenth year of successful teaching experience. With two longevity steps teachers with standard professional certification could make a maximum of $11,190 per year. The new salary schedule would also provide improved incentive salary pay beyond the master's degree for teachers. The insurance package would provide disability income in the amount of $350 per month per teacher. It also would improve the term life insurance in the amount of $8,000 for each teacher.

Funding for the agreement will be included in the School Board's request to the County Commissioners, Dr. Buser pointed out.

Lakers Take 15th Over "Pot" State

Shooting 54 percent from the floor, and using some slow-down tactics, Garrett Community College Lakers downed visiting Potomac State 55 to 53 Monday night at Mellenix.

The close decision lifted the Lakers to a 15-5 record on the year, while limiting Potomac State to its lowest offensive effort of the year. The Catamounts are now 6-8.

The battle was close throughout with Garrett on top at the half 27 to 21. The final outcome of the contest ended on a mid-court shot in the final three seconds that failed.

Both ttams were tied in the field goal department with 23 baskets each. The Lakers had 9 of 15 foul shots with Potomac State getting 7 of 9.

High scorer was Tom Dixon of State with 16. Three Lakers had 14 points each. Steve Van Ausdale, John Raszka and Tom Bosley. The two former also grabbed 11 and eight rebounds. Bosley hit tive free throws on one and one situations during the final moments to keep the Lakers in front.

Dan Slifko had only one point in the game but his tally came when the Lakers were leading 54-53 with only seconds remaining.

A contributing factor in the win was the defensive effort by Raszka and Oren Yoder that held Don Finley to eight points.

Study Of Coal Industry Asked

Delegate Lester B. Reed, of Allegany county, terming the Western Maryland coal industry "sick," authorized a House resolution calling for a study of the situation between now and March 1. The resolution is being co-sponsored by the three other Allegany county delegates and Del. DeCorsey Bolden, of this county.

Mr. Reed was told the Department of Natural Resources could complete a report in a month and come up with some recommendations on what the state might be able to do to shore up Western Maryland's coal output.

If recommendations are feasible, legislation would follow to have the state act.

The Reed solution asks the General Assembly to have the DNR report "on possibilities and the best procedures for reopening the coal fields of Western Maryland as a vital contribution to the current energy crisis."

The diminishing use of coal in recent years and the exhaustion of the more valuable seams of coal in Garrett and Allegany counties led to reduced mining operations, but it was stated that great quantities of coal remain in Western Maryland, one estimate being as much as one billion tons of coal.

Hallyhocks By The Door

The bravest of flowers pokes its pale green leaves along a remote fence, where dead leaves maintain its invitation for lite and let it await spring. By an old roadway in Petersburg, the wine flowers on their peduncles added to the picturesque side path in a country town.

The hollyhock's endurance on old farm sites probably is caused by its prolific way of developing new lateral shoots when make new growth. A plant may also be begun from a single eye of a woody shoot or by cuttings from old growth. As long as there are long summer days with moderate sun and some rich sandy loam for its roots, the hollyhock thrusts many bunches of single flowers on its stalks by abandoned fence rows. Growers advise frequent watering against mites, but the aged plants seem to withstand onslaughts of insects or human neglect, often being short and ineffective one year, only to emerge with great vitality in the next season.

Hollyhocks are ancient flowers, natives of China, which were supposedly called "holy mallow" by the Crusaders and brought back to Europe by them, traveling on to America with the Pilgrims. They grace many old-fashioned plots, and personally, if I built a farmhouse, there would be, not lilacs, but hollyhocks, by the door.

Back to nature.

You needn't go far.

In fact, no matter where you build it, a Lindal weekend-and-vacation retreat will bring nature back to you.

Through the natural warmth and clean scent of mellow, kiln-dried cedar: the spaciousness of cathedral ceilings and soaring window walls.

All made extra-snug and durable by steel-reinforced beams and double-thick interlocking walls, floor and roof decking.

True, our precut houses (delivered right to their building sites), can also save you money. But money is only part of the beauty of a Lindal cedar home.

For details, prices and 82 flexible floor plans, send $1 for our 44-page Planbook.

Bakery Head Cites Dangers To Bread Drivers

Despite Pennsylvania national guard and state police patrols, highways are still not safe for most truckers, an official of the Strochman Brothers Baking company stated. "The highways are not safe for our drivers and most of them are scared to death when they're on the road," said Charles A. Gattrey, company's chief counsel.

He said they had been shot at, run off the road, dragged from their trucks, bricks thrown through their windows and their tires and air hoses slashed. The company employs 2,000 persons, 1,600 of them in Pennsylvania.

The Strochman bread truck came through with bread to Oakland on Tuesday and again on Wednesday.

Truckers Strike

of snow fell. Fortunately, there was little wind and there was only slight drifting. County commissioners, members of the General Assembly, the Governor's office and the Congress of the United States began to concern themselves, and held various meetings in an effort to solve the problem. Delegate DeCorsey Bolden talked with the truckers on Sunday but arrived at no solution. Wayne Hamilton, president of the County Commissioners, said the truckers lacked organization, having no apparent head, and there was no one in authority to discuss the situation.

Governor Marvin Mandel's office offered to help in any way possible and on Wednesday offered the National Guard tanker trucks for use anywhere needed. Meetings were held in Washington to offer a solution to the truckers but the offer was rejected.

The truckers were protesting high fuel prices and not being able to pass on costs to customers. The strike was putting real clamps on the economy throughout the east and mid-west. Scores of plants already had shut down because their production and distribution facilities were serviced by trucks, throwing thousands out of work.

Negotiators for striking independent truck drivers rejected President Nixon's decision to freeze fuel prices as inadequate and recommended the truckers continue their shutdown.

Hamilton Speaks

Mr. Hamilton Wednesday said he had requested the State police, National Guard and the Emergency Energy Policy office to combine manpower and transportation resources to be ready to transport food and fuel supplies to Garrett and Allegany counties if the trucker strike continued to deprive citizens in these areas of their vital needs.

He said the National Guard would make available trucks and tankers to haul supplies into these counties and the state police would provide protection for truck convoys if this became necessary.

He said much food and fuel is supplied by firms in Pennsylvania. "If the public's well being is endangered by food and fuel shortages I will make arrangements with the Pennsylvania authorities for the guard and state police to legally enter that jurisdiction during this emergency," he continued.

He said also, that at this time we are attempting to assess conditions in Western Maryland to determine the severity of food and fuel shortages. Until we have an accurate reading of conditions I want to urge everyone to remain calm. Please do not panic or resort to hoarding."

Dr. Buser in noting that the situation "has not improved at all" pointed out that the shutdown of schools involved nearly 6,000 students. He added that the heating situation for the county's 17 schools was in "fair shape at this time, at least for one month.

Oil companies were feeling it was not safe to send their drivers out, consequently no gasoline was getting into the area as of yesterday afternoon.

Bread, milk and food trucks were held up until Tuesday, but at that time there were deliveries of bread and milk.

There has been little vandalism in this county, although there was some violence in West Virginia and Pennsylvania areas. An Oakland repair truck was stoned at Kitzmiller one day this week. Some headlights and window glass had been broken on a truck in the Accident area.

January Follows Last Year With Light Snowfall

January followed last year's trend as far as snow is concerned, falling short of the normal by 13.7 inches. The above average precipitation fell mostly as rain with temperatures averaging almost 7 degrees above the normal. February started with a cooler trend this week accompanied by 5 inches of snow.

January was a wet month with 6.45 inches, 2.07 inches above the normal. The wettest four days, the 8th through the 11th, dropped 2.69 inches of rain with the 10th the wettest, 1.55 inches. Snowfall amounted to one and a half inches with a trace on three other days.

Highs during January averaged 45 degrees, six degrees above the normal, with the highest being 61 degrees on the 27th. Lows averaged 27.1 degrees or 7.7 degrees above the normal. The coldest reading was four degrees on the 13th, no sub-zero readings, which is unusual in the area.

Temperatures dropped gradually during the past week to 5 degree readings Tuesday and yesterday. It remained below freezing from Monday until about noon yesterday. Snowfall Monday and Monday night amounted to 5 inches. Skies were clear Tuesday following the snowstorm. Winds were light to moderate Monday and Tuesday. Other than Tuesday, skies have been mostly cloudy all week.

Light rain along with rising temperatures during the night took away most of the snow. There was a light breeze this morning.

Older Americans Eye Distribution Of $102,000 Fund

Eleven of the 15 members of the new advisory council for the Older Americans program attended the group's first meeting last Thursday afternoon in Cumberland and decided how to divide $102,000 in federal funds under the recently amended Older Americans Act.

The Council is serving as regional coordinating and fiscal agency, but each county will operate its own program through a local agency.

Total grant for the three counties was $117,000 but about $15,000 will be earmarked for administration. Edward I. Heath, executive director of the Tri-County Council for Western Maryland, who conducted the meeting, said council members decided that Garrett County should receive $20,000, Washington and Allegany Counties, $40,960 each.

He said the division was arrived at by taking into consideration the percentage of population over 60 years of age and below the poverty level.

Another meeting is set for 1:30 this afternoon. Actions of the council actually are recommendations to the Tri-County Council which must make the ultimate decisions.

Sermonette By Area Ministers

In Luke 21 Jesus discusses a subject that is so important he gives one-fourth of his total teaching to it. It is the subject of Material Wealth.

As he observes those who are giving their offering to the Church he condemns the ones who gives the most and praises the one who gives the least. The wealthy are the ones who give the most and a poor widow is the one who gives the least, yet Jesus says that the poor widow in some way gave more than all the others. Certainly the Church could not long endure if all the members gave so small an offering, even if they gave every week. The work of God's Kingdom requires large amounts of cash especially where there are large institutions. Congregations, or where Radio or T. V. is used to communicate the "Good News."

Today the Church of Jesus Christ needs faithful, generous, cheerful financial supporters who give more than a dollar when they attend, but who give according to their income and according to the need.

Jesus praise and condemnation was not based upon how much each gave, rather his praise and condemnation was based upon how much they kept for themselves. The poor widow gave her entire living, the wealthy kept most of their wealth. The poor widow's gift revealed an inner Spiritual condition.

The poor widow's gift showed how much God's Kingdom meant to her. Jesus taught that the Kingdom of God is a value so important that it could be compared to a treasure in a field that a man on discovering it went and sold all he owned in order to buy the field that he might obtain the treasure in it. Our giving, or, the amount that we keep for ourselves reveals how much we value the Kingdom of God. It shows whether in our order of values we put ourselves first or God's Kingdom first. The poor widow's gift also expressed her appreciation to and for God. I believe that only from a heart of gratitude will we have such complete giving of the self. I further believe that if we really see what God has done for us we would all respond in a more grateful manner.

Also, the poor widow's gift expressed her complete faith in God. She could afford to give because God would take care of her. This took a lot of faith because in those days there were very few opportunities for a woman to make a living by herself. We can all afford to give more than we can afford not to give. Many of us who say "I can't afford to give" usually are not saying that we would therefore be denied the basic necessities of life, but, rather we are usually saying that we cannot afford to give because if we do we will not be able to enjoy the level of living that we want for ourselves.

Jesus clearly does condemn some rich people, but not for being rich. He condemns them for putting their own selfish interests before their loyalty to God. His instruction is, Seek first the Kingdom of God and his righteousness and our other needs will be cared for. The poor widow was following this instruction.

R HOW IMPORTANT IS FLOSSING?

Most dental authorities today consider flossing to be at least almost as important as brushing your teeth. This is because proper use of dental floss will effectively remove disease-causing bacterial plaque from areas between the teeth, where a toothbrush cannot reach.

But, many people with average normal dexterity find flossing to be difficult and awkward. Some of the reasons are gagging, the floss gets slippery, fingers get in the way, it takes too much time. Now, as the importance of flossing is realized new aids to make it easier are being developed. See our complete dental aids section.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

ANOTHER DIMENSION

Lesson for February 10, 1974

Background Scripture: John 18:12 through 19:15.
Devotional Reading: John 18:1 11.

A few weeks ago, I stood in the church that, tradition tells us, is built upon the site of the house of Caiaphas, the high priest at the time of Jesus. On a lower floor there is a dungeon in which it is believed Jesus was kept for a while during his last hours. As I stood and looked down into that hole, I was overwhelmed with a sense of psychic depression that stayed with me for hours.

Rev. Althouse

Who had the power?

Yet, as I toured the ancient city of Jerusalem, it occurred to me that there was great irony in the confrontations between Jesus and Caiaphas and Jesus and Pilate. Both Caiaphas and Pilate were men of great power and stature in Jerusalem in the days of Jesus' ministry. Standing before the high priest, Jesus was cruelly struck by one of the officers because it was deemed that he did not show the proper respect for Caiaphas. Later, questioned by the Roman governor, Pontius Pilate, Jesus was once again upbraided for his seeming lack of respect for the power of Pilate. "Do you not know that I have power to release you and power to crucify you?"

Jesus could scarcely deny that these men had great power. Yet, though he knew they had the power to kill him, he said to Pilate: "You would have no power over me unless it had been given to you from above . . ." (19:11). Jesus was intimating that there was another, higher source of power than either Pilate or the Roman Empire he represented.

The kingdom of truth

This was not the first time that Jesus had indicated such a thing. When first brought to the practorium and Pilate, he was asked by the Roman governor, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus' response makes it clear that Pilate doesn't understand the nature of the authority that belongs to Jesus. Finally, he explains: "My kingship is not of this world . . ." (18:36). His level of power and authority are on another, higher dimension than any temporal power. "So you are a king?" Pilate wants to know, and Jesus answers: "You say that I am a king. For this was I born, and for this I have come into the world, to bear witness to the truth" (18: 37).

The Caiaphases and Pilates might hold sway in the temporal world, but in the dimension or kingdom of truth, the level of eternal realities, there was an authority that transcended that of all temporal rulers. It was because of this level or dimension of life, that Jesus, though he stood captive in chains, was still in control of the situation, still could and would wring a victory out of what otherwise would be a tragedy.

Today Caiaphas and Pilate are barely remembered, when they are, it is because of their relationship to Jesus who once was their victim, but now is their victor and ruler in a dimension that transcends this life on earth.

Man or Statue?

Today we see Lincoln in heroic size. He appears almost more of a statue than a man—a great figure cast in bronze, with a furrowed brow and solemn countenance.

Yet Lincoln was a man. He walked the earth, and felt love and joy; but he knew tremendous frustration and almost insurmountable sorrow. He prayed, earnestly and effectively.

Throughout each crisis in his life, and there were many, he was sustained by faith. God seemed close to him, and he turned to Him often. He didn't pause to think about whether he'd go to church or not. He went.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Pet Owners Beware!

Dear Sir

As a member of the Allegany Animal Welfare Society of Cumberland I feel it my obligation to warn Garrett County residents of the mysterious disappearance of their dogs and cats in the past few months. These are pets that never usually roam and no body is ever found, ruling out death caused by highway traffic.

There have been numerous mysterious disappearances of family pets, that I know of, especially large dogs in the Sang Run, McHenry, and Friendsville areas and I fear the animals are meeting with an untimely death. I have learned from the Animal Welfare Society that these culprits steal children's pets, transport truckloads of pets from these areas to be auctioned off in Philadelphia, Pa., to laboratory experiment stations where they are needlessly slaughtered, often without the use of an anaesthetic to dull the pain of being cut apart by these butchers'

Pet owners beware' Keep your family pet in close view, especially large dogs, for the thieves get more money for large animals as they are paid by the pound for their catch. One way of curtailing this heartless kidnapping is to have your pet's ear tattooed with your social security number as the laboratory experimenters have agreed not to operate on animals that have been tattooed in such a manner.

My daughter, Tracey, has had her beloved "Bandit" stolen and knowing our own personal tragedy over the loss of her cat I feel I should warn pet owners to save them grief when their pet turns up missing without a trace. If anyone has any information concerning who might be doing this heartless deed or knows of a large group of dogs and cats confined in a building or barn contact Mrs. George Parker at the Allegany Animal Welfare Society in Cumberland.

These animals did not stray - they were stolen!

Dear Sir

I read Pastor Leake's (Deer Park) letter to the editor. I did not appreciate it. To me it was weird and displayed poor citizenship.

Sincerely,

Dear Sir

I would like to reply to the letter to the Editor written by Ruth M. Snyder that appeared in the January 31 issue of The Republican.

As Chairman of the Garrett County Commission on Aging I do not receive any salary, reimbursement, or compensation from the Department of Transportation or the County Commissioners. My services are voluntary.

The proposed public transportation system for the county has been developed by the Commission on Aging with the help of other state and county agencies. This will not be a free system as your letter indicates. Passengers will be charged for the distance traveled. Drivers and mechanics will be selected from Garrett County welfare rolls. They will be trained for their jobs under the WIN program and will become self-sufficient tax paying citizens.

Mrs. Snyder said that almost every household had a car. I call her attention to the 1970 Census which says the average household in Garrett County contains 3.9 persons and 1,128 of these households do not own automobiles. This means 4,400 people do not have their own transportation and must depend on others to provide it for them in order to obtain food, clothing, medical care and other services.

Every mailing address in Garrett County received a postage paid questionnaire regarding the need for a transportation system. With the very limited amount of money available to the Commission on Aging, which incidentally was raised through raffles and donations; the mail survey was the only feasible method of determining how citizens felt about a transportation system.

The Maryland Department of Transportation has chosen Garrett County as a demonstration area for a rural public transportation system. With the help and encouragement of all the citizens of Garrett County, we can prove that rural transportation can work

Dear Sir

Imagine this: Two men are walking toward each other. They meet, stop, and talk. One says: "I have been an employee of the state of Maryland for quite a few years. Evidently the State likes my work because they just gave me a 6.8% increase in salary." The other man, without much show of emotion, states: "That's nothing. I haven't done any work all of my life yet, and don't intend on doing any, and the State sees fit to give me a 15% increase in my dole."

Which person comes out ahead? No one has to go to school to add up this 2 plus 2 problem.

Lentils - Ancient Staple For Modern Menus

Since Biblical times lentils have been an important contribution to balance diets. The ancient Egyptians used them. The Old Testament records the story of Esau selling his birthright to his brother Jacob for a "pottage of lentils."

The value of this high-protein vegetable has also been recognized for years in Europe and North Africa and is now enjoying increased popularity in this country.

The nutritional value of lentils has helped add to their acceptance. Lentils have low fat content but are high in vitamin A and B vitamins, iron, and high-quality protein. The fact that lentils don't need to be pre-soaked makes them quick and convenient to use.

Lentils can be used in making soups, casseroles, and salads. They are also versatile replacements for noodles, potatoes, beans, rice, and meat in many dishes. Also, lentils can be precooked and kept in the refrigerator for several days, making it easy to use them in several meals.

To cook one pound of lentils boil gently for about 20-30 minutes in 5 cups of water with 2 teaspoons of salt. Each cupful of uncooked lentils will give you two cupfuls of tender vegetable.

The cooked lentils can be used with, or in place of, greens in your favorite salad, or as a nutritious change-of-pace main course such as this:

Lentil Patties

For each person to be served: Blend 1 cup of cooked lentils with 1 beaten egg seasoned with salt, and drop by tablespoonfuls into a frying pan of medium hot cooking oil. Press flat and fry on both sides until delicately brown. Serve the lentil patties with a heated tomato and cheese sauce.

He was cited for the many hours expended in assisting fire prevention in investigation of suspicious or incendiary fires and for his contribution to a program of safety and fire prevention.

Mr. Jacobs suffered a heart attack in September of last year but has recuperated.

WHAT INSIDE STORY?

Liberals scream about your right to get Hugh Hefner's views on important matters like the body of Ms. Playmate, or the price of marijuana on college campuses.

1. You can't get any gas?
2. Your dollar can't buy a gallon of milk?
3. You are being unreasonably taxed by a carefully-created monster called the IRS?
4. Who originated the 'in'-group drug language and who, year in and year out, puts it to music?
5. The tapes, which might have given you the inside story on the Insiders in D. C., were not available to prosecutors?

Eliminating the double-talk and high-sounding nonsense, the media want you to believe:

1. We have suddenly run out of crude. Much of our oil was imported. (There are 75 billion barrels in the Los Angeles Basin alone.)
2. Inflation cannot be controlled. (By the legions of economic experts in D. C.)
3. No comment. But you can be sure that Federal Programs (Welfare, aid to underdeveloped countries, and all the Federal Bureaus which control our lives) are making the most of your tax dollar.
4. Kids have spontaneously turned to drugs — all over the country. The influence of liberal professors and publicized entertainers has been minimal.
5. Ms. Rose Mary Woods pushed a button and held her foot on a pedal for 15 minutes — by mistake.

You should have the right to find the inside story on your newsstands. The real answer to question 4 is being circulated in town. Read the Pied Pipers.

Two Cases Were Heard In Circuit Court Last Week

Two cases were heard in Circuit Court last week. The jury found a Washington County man not guilty of receiving stolen goods. A Garrett County man pleaded guilty of disorderly conduct and disturbing the peace before Chief Judge Stuart F. Hamilt, Jr.

Elwood William Grimm, of Smithsburg, had been charged with receiving stolen goods, a Chevrolet auto, near Hagerstown in September, 1972. Grimm had been arraigned in Hagerstown January 1973, when he pleaded not guilty and requested a jury trial. It was found not necessary he be arraigned again.

The case had been transferred from Washington County last September.

Don Allen Lemley, of the McHenry area, pleaded guilty on two charges, disorderly conduct and one charge of disturbing the peace at a trial last Thursday. A second charge of distrubing the peace and one of assault and battery were dismissed.

Judge Hamm sentenced Lemley to 30 days in jail and fined him $100 for disturbing the peace and $50 for disorderly conduct. The jail sentence was suspended on payment of the fines. The $150 cash bond was retained as payment of the fines.

Luke Workers Walk Off Job

Most mechanical hourly Westvaco's Luke mill left the job Tuesday morning about 8 in dispute over work assignment. Although labeled an unauthorized by the United Paperworkers International union, strikers were still out Tuesday night.

The mill continued to operate with a limited force. Local

Keith Wayne Jones, Norfolk, was charged with possession of marijuana but a motion to suppress evidence was granted last week. Police here had been alerted by Hagerstown police to look for a hot rod car driven by Jones. Jones was picked up in Oakland Jan. [illegible] union officials instructed their members to return to the job, but picket lines were established and other workers refused to cross the lines.

Injunctions were served on the strikers through the sheriff's office of Allegany County. J. P. Tonelli, president of the national union, in a telegram to David L. Yeam, personnel manager of the mill noted that the strike or work stoppage is not authorized, not ratified and not sanctioned by union authorities. The strikers were directed to end the strike immediately and return to work. The telegram said the international union did not approve or sanction work stoppage during the term of an agreement where a peaceful procedure is established to resolve worker grievances through grievance procedure and arbitration.

System Will Survive...

"This may be a good time to remind ourselves of a fact that has been rather obscured in recent days. It is that Washington, D. C., for all its power, tragedy, comedy, scandals, politics, and despite its being the Nation's capital—that Washington is not America. What happens there affects the Nation, of course. But it is well to keep in mind that nowhere does the sheer genius of our system prove itself so clearly as when things in Washington seem to fall apart, while the rest of the Nation goes its way.

"The country and its institutions and its people continue to function, perhaps not always wisely and well, but function they do.

"It is well to remember that our basic American system will survive. It will continue to do so as long as our people defend, preserve and protect it." —An editorial of WFIN radio station in Findley, Ohio.

Betty Crocker Winners Named

Kathleen Hoye

Beatrice Riggs

Winners of the 1974 Betty Crocker Family Leader of Tomorrow, at the two high schools of the county have been named in an announcement from General Mills in Minneapulis.

Named at Southern High school, Oakland, was Kathleen M. Hoye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Waller Hoye. Named at Northern High school, Accident, was Beatrice Mae Riggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Justin Riggs, Grantsville.

They won their honors by scoring high in a written knowledge and attitude examination administered to high school seniors at the two schools and throughout the country in December.

They will receive special designed awards from General Mills, sponsor of the annual search for leadership in family living and also remain eligible for state and national honors.

Beatrice Riggs

Miss Riggs is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Justin Riggs. She is a member of the Viking staff, Varsity basketball scorekeeper, president of the Health Careers club, member of the National Science Foundation program, a counselor at Camp Hickory.

Recently she was in Washington D. C. as a representative at the March of Dimes Teen convention, and is presently a Mothers' March chairman at Grantsville.

She is a member of St. Paul's Methodist Church. After graduation, she plans to study nursing at the University of Maryland. She is presently a candy striper and works part-time at the Goodwill Mennonite Nursing Home in Grantsville.

Kathleen Hoye

Miss Kathy Hoye was honored by the Optimist Club as an outstanding youth and was selected for "Who's Who in American High Schools." She is president of the senior class and captain of the Color Guard. She has also served as vice-president of the Student Exchange Club, chaplain of the Student Counil, president of the American Legion Jr. Auxiliary, and president of the Senior Chorus. She attended Maryland Girls' State and the 1973 National 4-H Conference in Washington. Kathy is a member of the Oak Park Church of the Brethren where she sings in the choir and is president of the Youth Fellowship.

She hopes to attend Swarthmore College near Philadelphia and major in sociology.

School Closing Creates Havoc On Sports Scene

The gasoline shortage and fuel crisis created havoc on the area sports scene. With schools closed all last week, numerous athletic events were postponed.

Southern high had games scheduled at Parsons on February 5, and Northern at home on February 8. The February 8 game was a postponed one originally set for January 4. Games were scheduled this week for February 12 with Petersburg, at home; and February 15, with Mountaineer, also at home. Southern also had scheduled a postponed game with Bishop Walsh, away, on February 14.

The Ram wrestlers had to postpone an encounter with Valley at home, and one at Keyser, away. The hi-county qualifying rounds were set for the 11th and 15th.

Northern Huskies had two games postponed last week February 5, with Salisbury, away; and one on February 8, with Oldtown, away. This week they are scheduled to play Turkeyfoot on Feb. 12, away.

The wrestlers had matches scheduled with Kingwood at home on Feb. 7, and on Feb. 11, to participate in the bi-county qualifying rounds.

Receives Award

Sidney Nazelrod, president of the Oakland chapter, Future Farmers of America, received an award presented by the National FFA foundation in cooperation with the National Farm Bureau, to the chapter, for work accomplished during the past year.

The selection for this award is based on a national comparison of FFA chapters. Only three percent of all FFA chapters in the United States and Puerto Rico receive this superior award, according to Richard Bishoff, FFA advisor at Southern High school.

The award was presented January 26, in Baltimore, by Glenn Lewis, State FFA advisor, at a meeting attended by Nazelrod and Mr. Bishoff.

Ramsey To Speak

David Ramsey, Director of Community Services for the Community Action program, will be the speaker when the League of Women Voters of Garrett County holds a general meeting and luncheon at 12 noon, Friday, Feb. 22, in the Food Service Room at Southern High school.

Ramsey is being presented in connection with the current study of Human Resources.

Members are invited to bring a guest. Reservations should be made by Feb. 16, with Chris Stegmaier. Cost is $1.50 per person.

Five Students Of Southern Planning European Tour

Five students of Southern High school wil travel to London, England, and Paris, France, April 12 to 20. The teacher counselor traveling with the group will be Miss Duey Snyder.

Accompanying Miss Snyder on the Scholastic International Spring trip will be Diana Custer, Aleta DelSignore, Cindy Graham, Sydney Loy and Rhonda Johnson. Whit Dunkle, a sophomore at Bishop Walsh High school, Cumberland, will travel with them. Four of the five students from Southern are members of Miss Snyder's 9-A French class. Sydney Loy is currently studying German but is interested in all foreign travel. Dunkle is a third year French student.

Before departure these students will study various aspects of foreign travel: passports, the French language, England's English, packing, maps of London and Paris, landmarks, transportation systems. Sessions will be held at the home of Miss Snyder.

Carl DelSignore will fly the students to the Kennedy airport, New York City, on April 12, from where they will leave on an international flight to London. Arriving in London on April 13, they will tour famous sites in London, following orientation. There will be an excursion to Hampton Court, attendance at a theatre. They will go to Paris by channel ferry, have a tour of central Paris, take an excursion to the Palace of Versailles, take an evening tour of Paris and return to New York from that city.

The students and Miss Snyder said they hoped the trip would spark community interest in travel abroad. Plans are being made for next year's tour. Interested students may contact Miss Snyder.

On Honor Roll At Purdue University

Deborah Ann Gnegy, graduate of Southern High school, in Oakland, was one of a number of students at Purdue university, West Lafayette, Ind., listed on the honor roll for the first semester. The students represented the top 11.38 percent of the 21,159 undergraduate students there.

Her listing was in agriculture. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Gnegy, Golf Crest Manor, Oakland. She transferred to the University of Maryland for her second semester of work, and hopes to obtain a degree in veterinary medicine.

Sample Obscenity Ordinances Given To City Attorney

Sample ordinances against obscenity, from Richard M. Bertsch, member of the legal staff of the Citizens for Decency through Law, have been presented to Oakland city attorney, William W. Grant, according to Andy Cosby, member of a local citizens' committee.

Cosby said CDL was a nationwide organization founded by Charles H. Keating of the Presidential Commission on Obscenity and Pornography.

Cosby said that Mr. Grant stated these sample ordinances would be presented to the city council for consideration at the March meeting.

A presentence investigation had been ordered at the January trial. No date has been set for the new trial. Kisselovich is being held in the Garrett County jail.

George Allen Fickes, Crellin, pleaded guilty on two of six counts in Circuit Court last Thursday. He pleaded guilty of storehouse breaking into Cogley's barbershop September 25 and grand larceny of goods and money in Cogley's at the same time.

A pre-sentence investigation has been ordered and cash bond already paid is continued until sentence is imposed.

Four other charges against Fickes were dismissed: breaking and stealing, another charge of storehouse breaking, receiving stolen goods, and conspiracy, all involving the same incident.

Each was placed on probation for two years under the supervision of the Department of Parole and Probation, under the general condition, and to refrain from the use of drugs. The offense occurred January 19 in Grantsville.

SCREENING FOR BLOOD PRESSURE IS A LOT OF FUN—Joseph H. Welch, president of the Oakland-Mt. Lake Park Lions club, apparently had pleasure last Thursday night getting a screening test for blood pressure at the kickoff dinner for the Heart Fund drive, sponsored by the Oakland Rotary club at the American Legion home. Joe's blood pressure was taken by an unidentified member of the Northern Rescue squad which provided several of their number to assist in the screening activities for a number of the dinner guests. In the background, also getting his blood pressure taken, is Dale Custer, Rotarian. From Joe's expression he was pleased with the results.

Snows Delayed Tank Deliveries

The half foot of snow that fell over most of the state last Friday prevented much emergency gasoline shipments by National Guard tanker trucks from getting to their destinations in Garrett and Allegany counties.

Both counties had reported enough fuel for emergency use, however, and the crisis was over by Monday.

Shipments in both counties Friday were not carried out because of the icy road conditions and the fact that the National Guard tankers had no heaters.

One of the first tankers to arrive in the county last Thursday had 2,500 gallons of gas. Three of several others that arrived in Western Maryland were sent to this county.

The emergency gasoline was rationed out to persons who applied to the Civil Defense agency and the County Commissioners. Wayne Hamilton, county commissioner head, said that fuel shipments had been distributed to various communities with the mayors or some other local official in charge of emergency allocations. He said only bona fide emergency personnel have been getting the gasoline.

The county's dairy industry, which was also hard hit by the strike, got some relief by last Friday when roadside pickets began to allow shipment of dairy trucks into Pennsylvania.

On Wednesday several of the more than 100 dairymen in the county began dumping their milk when they couldn't deliver it. The dumping was done to make room for the new milk produced by the cows. Claude Wagner, Jr., Oakland dairyman, said he knew of no instances of dumping on Thursday, with shipments to Pittsburgh, Uniontown and Baltimore, being resumed.

George Comp, Civil Defense director, Paul DeWitt, County Roads Administrative officer, and other officials aided the county commissioners office over the weekend in portioning out the emergency gasoline rations.

Storms Dump Nine Inches Snow On Mountain Top

Snow storms during the past week dumped up to nine inches of new snow on the Mountain Top. Although there were high winds Monday afternoon and evening, no major highway blockages were encountered. Temperatures remained below the freezing mark from Friday until Tuesday.

One-way traffic was encountered on Md. Route 495 near North Glade at Beachy road, and spots on U. S. Route 219 south of Oakland due to some minor drifting. The only partial blockage was due to motorists trying to buck the deeper parts and getting hung up, according to a State Highway spokesman.

According to County Roads Dept. information a few minor blockages occurred in scattered locations Monday night.

Four inches of snow fell Friday as part of a large storm system which covered the eastern seaboard. Heavier snowfalls were encountered east of here. Another four inches of snow fell Sunday and one inch Monday. The 25 to 30-mile winds Monday afternoon and late evening caused the minor drifting. The past week's snowfall of 9 inches along with the previous week's 5 inches puts February at 14 inches, already, or .3 inch over the average for the full month. This contrasts with January's deficiency. Precipitation totaled .82 inches including the

6th Snowmobile Races Are Set For Saturday

Two Days' Events Consolidated Into One Full Day

With the weather cooperating the sixth annual Snowmobile races will be held at Mellenry this Saturday, February 16, it was announced by Dale Pugh of the Deep Creek Lake Volunteer fire department which is sponsoring the event.

The races were originally set for January and then re-set for two Saturdays, February 2 and 16. There was no snow on February 2nd so officials pointed out that the two-day events would be consolidated in the one days activities.

Races will include Stock, Super Stock and modified, for the men, powder puff races for the women, and also races for the Juniors. These will all take place on the one day.

There will be cash prizes plus trophies for the winners. The races are sanctioned under the Pennsylvania State Snowmobile association.

Spectator admission will be $2 for adults with children under 12 years of age being admitted free. Races are to be held at the race track on the fair grounds.

Commissioners Get Snarled In Baltimore Snow

The Garrett County Commissioners were scheduled to meet with Governor Marvin Mandel last Friday morning in Annapolis but the weather forced their charter airplane to land at Baltimore - Washington International airport.

There was an attempt by the governor's office to have Wayne B. Hamilton and Bernard Guy, taken to Annapolis by state police car for the meeting but the snowstorm had things so snarled up that even that couldn't be easily arranged.

Commissioner Earl Opel had stayed overnight in Annapolis and he drove to Baltimore later in the day to join the other two commissioners for the return trip to Oakland.

A business meeting had been scheduled in this county with the governor Saturday morning but it was cancelled because of the weather. The governor had also planned to spend the remainder of the weekend in Garrett County for rest, recreation and a reception.

Bloomington Home Damaged By Fire

Firemen from three volunteer companies, Bloomington, Luke, and Piedmont, responded to the 2:40 p.m. call, and remained at the scene until about 4:30.

The blaze is believed to have originated around a stove pipe in the living room of the dwelling, before moving up the wall into a second floor bedroom, and on up into the attic.

Considerable damage was done by the fire, which probably began when the stove in the living room overheated. Furnishings of the two-story frame house were considerably damaged by smoke and water. William Pattison is owner of the Mrs. Riley was elected two years ago, the first woman to be so named since 1930. She was elected to be a member at large of the Executive Board of the Maryland Municipal League of Mayors and Town Councils, and in November was elected as vice-chairman of the Garrett-Allegany county chapter of the league. She is also president of the Civic Club of Oakland and is a member of the Loar Auxiliary of Garrett County Memorial Hospital and the League of Women Voters. She attends St. Paul's Methodist Church.

The Tichnells are staying with relatives.

Also Files

State representatives at all locations will prepare Maryland returns, hand out forms and furnish such information as may be required.

Oakland, Court house, February 13; Westernport, city building, February 14, 15, Barton, First National bank, February 19, Lonaconing, Liberty Trust company, February 20; Frostburg, the Fidelity bank, February 21, 22, Lake, Devon club, February 26, 27, 28.

In addition a permanent office is located at 9 Market St. in Cumberland.

Gas Shipments Ease Shortage

The gasoline crisis eased in Garrett County over the weekend, and gasoline stations appeared to have normal supplies for the coming weekend.

County Commissioner Wayne B. Hamilton said the situation continued to improve in the county with virtually everyone able to buy at least a little gasoline over the past weekend.

However, there was still doubt that the independent truckers' strike was really over, as there were still picket lines around Breezewood, Pa., and other places along the Pennsylvania turnpike.

Sizeable shipments arrived in the county last Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. A number of National Guard tanker trucks also arrived over the weekend with emergency gasoline. Two National Guard tanker trucks, headed for Oakland last Friday, were stalled at LaVale, unable to get over the mountain on account of the heavy snowfall east of this county. They made it to Oakland on Saturday morning.

The commissioners had prepared a priorities list for the distribution of the emergency gasoline with primary priorities to doctors and dentists, fire department trucks, volunteer firemen for fire use only, town trucks and city police, utilities, rescue squad, state police, CAC emergency squad, sanitation department, health department, and Bureau of Mines rescue squad.

The secondary list included public building custodians, clergy, funeral directors, security personnel, food store employes, postal employes, pharmacists, social services, and hospital emergencies for individual citizens.

Mr. Hamilton said that 16,000 gallons of fuel from national guard tankers had been received, and said there was enough gas to make it possible to conduct school.

As a result the Garrett County schools opened on Monday, the first day classes were held since last Monday. Garrett Community college also was in session Monday. It looked for a time that the schools would not remain open long, as a driving snow storm hit the area, with high winds beginning to cause drifting. But the storm was short lived.

The sheriff's office reported no trouble Sunday on the county's highways and there were no signs of picketing during the day.

George Edwards Files For County Commissioner

George Clayton Edwards, of Grantsville, election district 3, has filed for the nomination for County Commissioner on the Republican ticket. He would be a candidate in Commissioner district 2.

He graduated cum laude from Fairmont State college, in 1970 with a B. S. degree in Business Administration. He played on the NAIA championship football team of 1967 and was named an all-American in 1969. He was also drafted by the Baltimore Colts professional football team.

He is the son of Mrs. Stella Edwards and the late C. Clayton Edwards. He is married to the former Linda Fisher, of Friendsville, and they have one daughter, Kristin.

Children Unhurt After Fall Through Lake Ice Sunday

Two children of Dr. and Mrs. William Savage, Heather, aged 4, and Gordon, 3, had been readied for a trip to the local skiing area, where their father was on ski patrol duty. The two were outside while their mother finished a last-minute chore. Another daughter, Dinah Lee, 5, was in the house.

Mrs. Savage, who is expecting another child in the very near future, heard the ice crack, and saw the children in the water. She then waded into the water, breaking the ice as she went, until she reached the two frightened children who were obediently clinging to the ice in response to her instructions.

Mrs. Savage managed to bring both children ashore and was pulling Gordon to the house on a sled when some neighbors arrived.

After warm baths and a thorough drying, no one seemed to be the worse for their swim, since no ill effects have been noted.

The Lines at the Pumps

All of us who drive, particularly in the metropolitan areas of the State, are feeling the impact of the energy crisis as we wait in long lines for whatever amounts of gasoline we can get when we reach the pumps.

There seems, however, to be an inconsistency about it. Some stations close early while others are open late. Some strictly limit what a driver can buy. Others sell as much as a driver wants. Prices vary.

The energy crisis is not hit all areas with equal impact. Washington's Maryland suburbs, Montgomery and Prince George's counties, appear to be unusually hard hit when compared to the city itself and to the Northern Virginia suburbs where there seems to be more gasoline available.

Under the Federal regulations that went into effect on January 15, gas stations should receive from their suppliers 100 per cent of what they received in the same month in 1972. The major oil companies indicate, however, that they are unable to supply that amount.

A particular factor that aggravates the problem in the suburbs is that allocations do not account for population growth which results in more cars and increased demand for gasoline. The Federal Regulations provide a mechanism to allow for new customers. Many stations have applied to their suppliers for increased allocations under this provision but none of the requests has yet been satisfied.

Refiners and importers also are authorized under the regulations to reduce or increase monthly total allocable supplies by 5 per cent to purchasers within regions. Since Virginia apparently is not experiencing the shortages that Maryland is, it is possible for a refiner to take gasoline from Virginia and give it to Maryland. This has not happened either.

I want to know why these problems exist so that we can resolve them. One of the first steps is to pass legislation that will assure that the full story of the energy crisis is made known. When we have the facts, we can determine whether the problems we now face are caused by bureaucratic shortcomings or other factors.

It is clear that the problems we are experiencing will be repeated month after month unless the Federal Energy Office and the oil companies act promptly and meaningfully to answer the questions the public is asking.

Crisis Has Little Effect On Amish

[illegible] Sauerweimer is not much about the energy crisis. But he and his fellow Old Order Amish in Garrett County are not overly concerned about it. This senior Penn Dutch Sun Staff correspondent Bill[illegible] gave his opinion concerning the situation in Tuesday's issue of The Sun.

He wrote:

There are 1,200 stockholders presently in the company, which has been in business about one and one-half years and has over $1 million in assets. Only Maryland residents are eligible for participation, according to Mr. Kuhn.

Commissioners Report On Mop-Up Proceedings

How the County Commissioner office and other agencies worked during the recent independent truckers' strike was outlined at the regular meeting of the commissioners this week.

We quote

"In the wake of the truckers' strike and subsequent fuel and food shortage of last week, the County Commissioners surveyed the various gas service stations in the county to see how near normal fuel supplies were becoming. At the beginning of the week service stations were pumping the fuel with reservations keeping in mind their February allocations.

"The Committee for Emergency Energy Supplies (CEES) formed last week by the county commissioners was still receiving calls Monday, mostly thanking the commissioners for their efforts put forth last week to obtain fuel for emergency purposes. Serving on this committee were Paul DeWitt, chairperson; Tom Jones, Brenda Harvey, George Comp, Marshall Rickert, Tom Kuhn, and Darrell Malone. This committee answered inquries by county residents and set up an emergency rationing plan to aid in an effective distribution of emergency fuel.

"In cooperation with the above committee members, Governor Marvin Mandel, the Maryland State Troopers, Maryland National Guard and local retail dealers who reserved or held emergency fuels were effective in easing the fuel crunch under the pressure of the truckers' strike.

"The commissioners met with the Emergency Committee in an effort to tie up loose ends before disbanding the committee. This would entail accounting for the coupons and figuring costs for the emergency operation. Efforts are also being made to consolidate the emergency fuel brought into the county rather than burden the retailers.

"In a meeting with Dr. William Pope, county health officer, the commissioners discussed the new ambulances which are arriving in the county shortly. The two rescue squads put up the local share of money for the purchase of these vehicles. Matching funds came through a federal grant."

Little Divide

Standing in the Colorado Mountains north of Denver, it is possible to see winding along, like a giant backbone, the Continental Divide, which makes the waters slope away from it, some to head east to the Mississippi and others to flow west to the Pacific. What many Marylanders do not consider is that in our state, in Garrett County, we have a similar phenomenon.

You can see it vividly as you stand at the top of what Maurice Brooks calls the Rotlirock Fire Tower on top of Backbone Mtn., south of Table Rock. A deciduous forest waves over what he explains is "a secondary Continental Divide that separates waters flowing eastward through the Potomac to Chesapeake Bay from those moving westward through the Cheat, Monongahela, Ohio, and eventually through the Mississippi to the Gulf of Mexico.

A second aspect of the headwaters division is seen at Meadow Mountain, for you travel on the highway across Piney Run, with water that is contained in the Savage River system and drains east to the Potomac. As you proceed west across the crest, you see the Stone House and enter the area where streams flow to the west and the Mississippi system. The Casselman Bridge spans a rebel river which flows north to western waters. In the southern basin on the west of Backbone Mt., all waters are stolen by the Youghiogheny River and eventually also head west.

Frederick Gutheim gives us a clear idea of what happens in the country east of the tower at Table Rock. He tells us that the Potomac North Branch turns south at some bends to parallel its tributaries, these feeder streams coming south to it among those highland ridges which guide the creeks in a trellis or ladder type of drainage, they flow into the river at right angles. He lets us know that the unique old river is the producer of "long narrow tributary valleys, some eight or ten times as long as they are wide, isolated in themselves and within each of which travel is difficult." What he implies is a truth forthcoming from this geography: that small isolated communities developed people who could exist in closeness with one another and yet maintain a great spirit of doing for themselves, not really far from neighbors but across difficult terrain.

Little divides may enhance the living of rugged people.

By Charles McC Mathias

The Right of Privacy

President Nixon said in his State of the Union address that "one of the basic rights we cherish most in America is the right of privacy. With the advance of technology, that right has been increasingly threatened."

The President followed that statement a week later by submitting to the Congress legislation to protect the right of privacy by strictly limiting the use of computerized criminal information systems. I am cosponsoring that bill and another like it that I introduced with Senator Sam Ervin, of North Carolina. Though the bills are similar in direction, the Ervin bill provides that rules for what the computerized systems may store and transmit shall be drafted by a committee including local, state and federal officials. Under the Administration's bill, the Attorney General has this authority without having to consult locally.

This and other differences in the measures notwithstanding, the important point is that legislation in this area has been introduced. It will come for hearings before the Constitutional Rights Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, on which I serve. It will rank as one of the most important legislative efforts that the Congress will undertake this year and I am hopeful that with the cooperation of the Executive branch that the President already has initiated, a meaningful bill will emerge.

With Senator Ervin, I introduced legislation last November to give the FBI temporary authority to continue to disseminate arrest records for law enforcement and other purposes, although I have long been critical of the potential abuses of the system, because it lacks adequate standards and safeguards.

The new legislation that I am cosponsoring would provide those safeguards. It would apply to arrest and conviction records, fingerprint identification, intelligence data, and all other kinds of criminal records that local police and the FBI collect and exchange between themselves, other government agencies, and private industry.

The legislation would give citizens the right to see what information about them is put on computers and the right to correct inaccurate information. Data would have to be kept current and accurate, and citizens could sue in court if injured by improper use of their records.

The absence of safeguards like these has caused erosion in some of our confidence in the area of constitutional rights and civil liberties. The Congress and the Executive branch, working together, now have an opportunity to restore that confidence.

TAX CHECK-OFF

Federal income tax returns allow for a voluntary check-off of one dollar to help provide public financing of the 1976 Presidential election campaigns of both parties. Small contributions are the key to reform of our political system. Check-off for good politics and good government.

NOTICE

Parents Students

Our sincere thanks to all those persons supporting the petition requesting the teaching of the Bible as Literature in Northern and Southern High Schools. At a meeting with Messrs Ringer and Rodeheaver, members of the Board of Education staff, we learned that a mini-course entitled "Religious Literature" was offered to 12th graders at Southern High School for the school year 1973-74. This course included, among other religious literature, a study of the Old and New Testaments. Only five (5) students signed up; therefore the course was dropped. A minimum of fifteen (15) students is necessary.

This same course is to be offered at Northern High for 1974-75. Since this course was not attractive to the students we would like to see a course offered using "A Literary Study of the Bible" as a textbook.

PARENTS: Your signature on the petition, while helpful, is not enough. Your involvement must take another form. If you are interested in a course of study that is Bible oriented, it is suggested that you call or write either Mr. Ringer and/or Mr. Rodeheaver and/or the principal of the high school attended by your child and request that at least one semester of study will be offered that will teach "A Literary Study of the Bible." And further request that this course be offered to more than the 12th grade alone.

STUDENTS: Your active participation is needed!!!

Request Messrs Ringer and Rodeheaver, your guidance counselor and your English teacher to offer a course of study that will use "A Literary Study of the Bible" as a textbook. AND THEN SIGN UP FOR THE COURSE. DO IT NOW WHILE THE CURRICULUM IS BEING FORMULATED FOR THE COMING YEAR.

If you desire to see a copy of the suggested textbook, you will find a copy available in your school library.

There is also a copy of "A Literary Study of the Bible" by Joyce Vedral available in the Ruth Enlow Library at Oakland.

One Injured In Week's Mishap

A passenger in one car involved in one of three accidents this past week was slightly injured. All three accidents were in the Oakland-Deer Park area.

Mary L. Rush, 26, a passenger in the car driven by Allen D. Rush, both of Accident, apparently received only slight injuries in a two-car mishap on Md. Route 135 near the Deer Park Hotel road last Friday afternoon. Mrs. Annabelle Perando, RD 2, Deer Park, and Rush were traveling east on Rt. 135. Mrs. Perando attempted to make a left turn into a private drive as Rush attempted to pass her and the two collided. Tpr. J. E. Foley charged Rush with passing when unsafe to do so.

An accident at the east end of Oakland yesterday caused some car damage but no apparent injuries. George D. Stahl, Mt. Lake Park, was traveling west on Md. Rt. 135 (Oak street) shortly before noon. Darwin R. Reckert, Oakland, had stopped for a red light facing south on U. S. Route 219 (Ninth street). Reckert then proceeded through the intersection on a green light and was hit by the Stahl car. Stahl was charged by Tfc. L. R. Rosage with failing to obey a control signal (red light).

Richard W. Wildesen, Swanton, was headed east on Route 135 and Md. Route 560 last evening and attempted to pass a car driven by Mark V. Solomon, RD 2, Swanton, as it made a left turn and the two collided. Cpl. Stephen M. Russell charged Wildesen with operating at a speed too great for weather and road conditions.

Truck "Rests" Upside Down In Potomac

An Oakland Oil Company truck is being jolted from a 'nap' it had been taking upside down in the Potomac River since Wednesday morning.

The 1973 truck, which is resting on its top in the river, was to be pulled out and righted today after a fall from a private bridge at Wilson, near Bayard.

Driver Jimmy Beeman was not injured when the boards at the side of the bridge gave way, leaning the truck slowly to the side until gravity pulled it completely over.

No oil was spilled from the nearly-full vehicle, which can carry up to 2,000 gallons of fuel oil and kerosene.

A derrick was being brought from the Mineral Development Corporation to right the truck. Damages cannot be estimated until the top of the truck is again visible, but some damage to the cab roof, which was flattened, can be seen.

Games Re-Scheduled

Thomas Kuhn, athletic director at Southern High School, this morning announced dates of three make-up basketball games which were postponed during the past week when school was called off due to the gasoline shortage.

The Southern Rams will play Northern, at Oakland, on Saturday evening, February 23. Parsons will be played at Parsons on February 27, and Elk Garden will be met at Elk Garden on March 1.

Delegates' Wives, Relatives Paid

Four of the area's seven legislators in Annapolis have included their wives or relatives on their office expense payrolls, a check by daily newspapers shows.

The four are Delegates Melvin S. Sloan, Lester R. Reed and David J. Wilham, Allegany county, and Del. DeCorsey Bolden, of this county.

Each delegate is allotted $3,500 a year of state money for the operation of his office. Members of the Senate are allotted $5,000 for the same purpose.

The four local officials said they saw no impropriety in the practice.

Del. Bolden told a news reporter yesterday that his wife, whom he first put on the payroll in 1971-72, runs his home office for him. He also noted that when a public official is elected, the responsibility not only is his but it also spreads to other family members, and in this light he sees nothing wrong with employing his wife.

In 1972-73 Del. Bolden spent a total of $2,680.97 to run his office, including $1,485 for the payroll, which included two other persons besides his wife.

State Police Work Many Extra Hours Last Week

The 14 Maryland State Police troopers stationed here, plus three or more "extras" a day, compiled a lot of hours last week as a result of the truckers' strike.

At least three extra troopers from LaVale barracks or Hagerstown, were assigned to work in this county to aid in escorting trucks from one county border to another.

Although no arrests were made within the county boundaries, a number of telephone threats to individuals were reported, and insinuations of possible harm to truckers who continued their regular deliveries kept many from their appointed routes, according to police.

Beginning on the 6th, however, state troopers were asked to begin escorting the trucks, and calls flooded the local office asking for assistance.

On February 7, four state troopers worked 16 hours each, six more than their regular shifts, and six worked 12 hours. On the 8th, eleven worked 12 hours, and on the 9, 10, and 11th days of the month, thirteen troopers worked 12 hour shifts. On the 12th, the men on duty worked an average of ten hours per day, their usual shift.

Some of the overtime, however, was due to causes other than the truckers' strike, including court appearances, etc.

Listen, Americans!

By DR. GEORGE S. BENSON
President—National Education Program
Searcy, Arkansas

I have a suggestion to present to the government officials in Washington and our 50 states, and especially to the people of America. No governmental unit, Local, State or Federal, should be permitted to borrow money to expand budgetary spending. The people who must pay for it all should be given a chance to approve or disapprove—in a nationwide referendum—any borrowings for deficit spending.

Thus my proposal is for a people's referendum on all government borrowing. Such a vote is provided in some local governments, particularly in school districts. On the national level a referendum could be consummated in a matter of a few days. I recall that when the rationing of sugar and other foodstuff was necessary in World War II, every citizen went to his polling booth for his ration card. A referendum on Federal government borrowing could thus be held in a few days. It could be done in one day in local governments, and two or three days for State government borrowing proposals.

Let's have a look at where the Federal tax money comes from. For this fiscal year individual citizens must pay $111-billion, 600-million in income taxes. Corporation income taxes total $37-billion.

Social Security taxes total $78-billion. The budget lists this simply as Social Security taxes, but it also includes other payroll taxes, unemployment insurance taxes and deposits, Federal employee retirement contributions, and payments by the elderly for supplemental medical insurance. Estate and gift taxes will bring in $5-billion; Custom duties (paid by consumers), $3-billion; miscellaneous receipts, $1-billion; Excise taxes, $17-billion.

It adds up to $256-billion as compared to Federal spending of $268-billion. This leaves a $12-billion deficit—to be borrowed and added to the Federal debt.

Federal Budget expenditures in round figures: $81-billion for national defense; International affairs, $1-billion; Space research and technology, $3-billion; Natural resources and environment, $4-billion; Commerce and transportation, $12-billion; Community development and government housing, $5-billion; Education and manpower, $10-billion; Health activities and services, $22-billion; Income security, $82-billion; Veterans pensions and benefits, $12-billion; Interest on the Federal debt, $26-billion; "General Government," $6-billion; Revenue sharing, $6-billion; "Allowances," $2-billion.

Revenue sharing reflects the sucker-status of the American taxpayers. The significant fact is that the handling expenses on the $6-billion, as it passes through the bureaucratic processes in Washington, is very costly. That cost isn't shown. But if it is measured by previous bureaucratic activities, it might well be about 25 percent. On this basis, the taxpayers in the 50 states would be paying $7.5-billion into the Federal Treasury and getting back $6-billion in so-called Revenue sharing. It doesn't go to the people who paid in the taxes, but to the state political leaders to spend as they see fit on pet state projects.

Is there a chance to bring sanity into government finances? Yes. If something like the referendum on borrowing were initiated; and if about 50 million citizens wrote their local city councils, their state legislators and governors, and their Congressmen and Senators, this would constitute the kind of jolt needed. Regardless of what Party you belong to or support, your responsibilities of citizenship now become your defense against totalitarianism or destruction. Or, are you determined to be a sucker—and eventually enslaved?

George Washington

In the Prayer Room of the U. S. Capitol is a beautiful stained glass window whose central figure is a kneeling George Washington. Behind Washington this prayer, from the 16th Psalm is etched "Preserve me, O God for In Thee do I put my trust."

As Americans pause this month to celebrate the 242nd birthday of the Father of our country, it is fitting that we contemplate the source of this great man's strength and wisdom. Although many historians skirt the issue, there is no doubt that Washington himself — as depicted in the Prayer Room — gave the credit to his Father in Heaven.

Washington, who was initiated a Mason when he was 20, remained throughout his life the most deeply religious President to have served our nation. Both his state papers and his private correspondence are sprinkled with scores of references to Deity. Many prayers written in his hand survive.

Washington had ample reason to believe devoutly in God. He had miraculously escaped death at least six times — five of them coming in quick succession beginning in 1754 when he was only 22.

After one terrible battle during this period, when British-American troops were ambushed by French soldiers and Indians, Washington sat down that evening and recorded the following: "I have had four bullets through my coat today, and two horses shot from under me. Yet I have escaped unhurt. I have been protected beyond all human probability by a powerful dispensation of Providence."

More than 30 years later, in 1788, after he had led his beloved young country throughout its birth pangs, Washington wrote to his friend and comrade Marquis de LaFayette regarding the Constitution he had helped fashion. "It will be so much beyond anything we had a right to imagine or expect," wrote Washington, "that it will demonstrate as visibly the finger of Providence as any possible event in the course of human affairs can ever designate it."

Washington most certainly accepted the wisdom of the 127th Psalm: wisdom that our country and its leaders would do well to heed today. "Except the Lord build the house, they labour in vain that build it, except the Lord keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain." — U. S. Press Association.

Named Head Of Southern States

James L. Campbell of Harrodsburg, Kentucky, vice president of Southern States Cooperative for the past three years, has been named president of the association at a meeting of the Board of Directors. He succeeds Dr. B. F. D. Runk, of Troy, Virginia, who had served as president for the past three years.

Campbell, a dairyman, has served on the cooperative's Board of Directors for the past 12 years and has been a member of the organization since 1945. He represents a district made up of 45 counties in central Kentucky.

Jr. High Games Played

Paw Paw downed Piedmont 50 to 42, while Elk Garden whipped Capon Bridge 47 to 30. Two more quarter final round games are scheduled for Saturday at Keyser High.

Several Recent Minor Accidents Cause No Injuries

Several recent motor vehicle mishaps around the county have been relatively minor with no personal injuries. Slippery weather conditions caused some.

Mrs. Mary L. Riggs, Mt. Lake Park, and Thomas E. Bosley, RD 1, Gormania, were traveling north on U. S. Route 219 just north of Mayhew Inn road the afternoon of January 31. As Bosley attempted to pass the Riggs car, Mrs. Riggs attempted to make a left turn into a private drive and hit the Bosley car. Tfc. L. R. Rosage charged Mrs. Riggs with improper turning.

Ray Charles Dintamin, Mt. Lake Park, was traveling west on State Route 135 at D street, Mt. Lake Park, near noon on February 2. Herbert H. Steidings, Jr., RD 1, Swanton, in a pickup, had pulled from a 'stop' sign on D street onto Rt. 135 and failing to see the Dintaman car, pulled into its path and was hit by it. Tfc. G. D. Broadwater charged Steiding with failing to stop at a 'stop' sign.

A telephone pole was hit in a one-car mishap on old Rt. 219 in the Mellenry area just past midnight Feb. 2. Dennis E. Savage, Star Rt. Mellenry, was driving south on old Rt. 219, when, as he stated, an approaching vehicle ran him off the road and into a telephone pole. No description was given of the other vehicle. Tfc. Ronald Lewis investigated.

Nancy Marie Steyer, RD 2, Deer Park, was headed east on Glendale road early the morning of Feb. 3. Upon entering the bridge on State Park road, the surface being icy, her car slid to the right hitting the bridge, then slid further and hit the left side of the bridge. Tpr. David Miller made no charges.

Lora Jane Moore, RD 1, Oakland, was headed south and Lyle M. Madigan, Deer Park, in a pick-up, was headed north on the Sang Run road the afternoon of February 4. Lora Moore lost control of her car on the snowy roadway. Madigan could not stop for the same reason and the two collided. Tfc. L. R. Rosage charged Lora Moon with operating on an expired license.

The parked car of Jean F. Friend, Accident, was hit the evening of February 4 on Rt. 219 in Accident. Charles W. Wright, also of Accident, in a pick-up, pulled from a parking place and hit the Friend car. Tfc. C. D. Skidmore investigated.

Westvaco Files Suit In Strike

Westvaco corporation last Friday filed a $750,000 suit against the United Paperworkers International Union and Local 676, UPIU, AFL-CIO for damages resulting from a strike at the company's paper mill in Luke.

Meanwhile workers were warned that if they fail to return to work they are subject to discharge without recourse and may be found in contempt of a federal court restraining order, according to an international union representative.

The mill employs some 2,000 workers.

The suit is also asking for additional damages from the union on a day to day basis for continuing to violate the no-strike clause in the existing contract between the company and the union.

The work stoppage began last Tuesday morning when some 300 members of the maintenance force left their jobs in a dispute over work assignments.

As a result of mass picketing which prevented new shifts of production workers from entering the mill, the entire operation was forced to shut down Wednesday morning.

Pre-School Registration Set At Accident School

Pre-school registration will be conducted at the Accident Elementary school on Friday, February 15, from 1 to 3 o'clock, it was announced by Robert Wilson, principal. The registration will be in the school cafeteria and will be for those planning to enter kindergarten in September and new students planning to enter first grade. Mr. Wilson reminded parents to bring birth certificates and immunization records for their children.

This course will be open to the public and anyone desiring to obtain their drivers license is invited to attend. The course will be instructed by Coach William Frost who is drivers education instructor at Southern High School. For further information anyone interested should call the Community Services Division at Garrett Community College.

Dealers OK Mandel's Modified Gas Plan

Gov. Marvin Mandel met Monday with a group representing independent service station operators and agreed to modify his odd-even gasoline purchase plan.

The Governor agreed to change the plan to allow anyone to purchase gasoline on Saturdays and also agreed to treat all national holidays, starting with Washington's birthday next Monday, as an open date on which everyone could purchase fuel.

It was pointed out the Saturday open date "provides a safety valve so motorists won't have to go without gas for long periods of time."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mr. Hanst

I wish to offer an additional opinion in response to your editorial on Feb. 7, entitled PUBLIC IS THE BUTT . . .

Four viewpoints follow:

1. You stated that the independent truckers "must bear the responsibility . . ." for our present crisis. If this is so, how should we regard the nation's oil companies for raising the price of diesel fuel to a point where truckers can no longer turn a profit? Wouldn't it also be sensible to direct some blame toward our elected state and federal officials who were so totally unresponsive in this matter that the truckers felt a strike was necessary? And, finally, shouldn't we as individuals accept some of the responsibility? We were aware of the plight of our fellowman but we failed to say or do anything until they had put a crimp in our life-style.

2. You imply the independent truckers are "wrecking the County's economy." I think this is an overstatement. How often have we seen a mediocre snowstorm disrupt services, halt traffic, close schools, keep workers from their jobs, run fuel and food supplies dangerously low, and generally perform a better task of "economy wrecking" than the truckers have accomplished? Surely no one is as hard-pressed as Walter Cronkite would have us believe.

3. I agree, violence and intimidation are disgusting and every citizen should detest their use. I also find disgusting, however, a political system which cannot be jolted into action until strikes, threats, blockades and violence are a fact.

4. Although we have all been inconvenienced to some extent, I doubt that many of us will carry the scars into the next decade. We surely WILL carry into the next decade the same kind of problems we are now facing unless we are able to kick our bureaucratic system off its rear end and make it more eager to listen and respond. If we consolidate our efforts in that single purpose, perhaps we can encourage government to do its job FOR us . . . and not ON us.

Sincerely,
Beojamin W. Ridder
Oakland, Md.

—o—

Dear Sir

We would like to comment on last week's letter from Helen Yoder, in behalf of Rev. Walter Leake.

He is the most patriotic man we have ever met. He koows what he believes in and stands for issues, even when he has to stand alone. I can't agree that he shows poor citizenship. We should thank God that we still have men in America like that who will stand up for right no matter what the cost. We respect him for this and as a preacher who preaches the word of God as it is, and not to satisfy man's mind and ears as most modernistic preachers are doing now.

I guess one is considered weird for standing out and voicing his opinion as in his letter on Jan. 31. But the world is getting in such a shape that we better know the truth and want others who do know, to tell it like it is.

We sit in his congregation every Sunday so we know more about what Rev. Leake stands for.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Maxson
Pennington St., Oakland

Dear Sir:

In reference to Mrs. Edwin Yoder's letter in last week's Republican, I should like to ask her what is weird about truth. Maybe it seems strange and unreasonable to some people because it is so seldom used in our society today. But Jesus said, "You shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." If truth makes us free then I believe truth can keep us free.

As to her other charge of poor citizenship, I would like to say I am first of all a Christian, secondly a member of a political party, and thirdly I support Men, not parties. I have served 7½ years in the armed Forces of our country and was wounded fighting Communism in Korea as a teenager. I have seen too many precious young men died or worse still, be mangled for life to sit idly by while political hacks, or, worse still, political traitors sell this great nation down the socialist and communistic drain.

I stand with Patrick Henry of old, "give me Liberty or give me death", not slow strangulation. If what I stated in my previous letter was not true, then let it be refuted with FACTS, NOT OPINIONS.

Rev. W. H. Leake,
Deer Park, Md.

Dear Sir:

Upon seeing on Feb. 6 Walter Cronkite's television news at 6:30 concerning our county I was totally disgusted as far as this county goes. No one is starving or doing without essentials, due to the truckers' strike.

Of course, gas, bread and milk were limited but was anyone actually starving? It was appalling and utterly disgusting to see Mrs. Dorothy Rumble say that these truckers don't care and they were letting children do without milk. It seems she exaggerated the situation.

The trouble with some of these people is that they want everything put in their hands without sacrificing to get it. Are we forgetting these truckers have families too? They need food and gas to get around, but they are willing to picket to get lower gas prices and other measures which will not only benefit them but all.

These truckers weren't making us do without any more than the stores. They raise prices and keep us from getting the things we need because we can't afford to buy them.

So shift the blame if you want to, but the fact is we're all to blame for the shape this country is in. We've all splurged too much. Now that we have to buckle down some people are having a hard time adjusting.

I stand behind the truckers in these trying times, we have to learn to sacrifice to get what we need.

I wish we could picket some of these stores whose prices have soared outrageously. Their prices have almost doubleo while our wages have not. There is the trouble and that's why we're doing without, not because of the truckers.

Norma Tasker,
Rt. 1, Oakland

Dear Sir:

I wonder when people of our Natioo will realize that we are being used by bureaucrats and big Government to gain more control over our lives. Issues are being confused 'on Purpose' and we cry for more government control! Please, what we need is less control! Our nation became great without these Bureaucrats and I think we could return to greatness as a nation if we would return to local government and elected officials only!

However, there is one important key to National Greatness in which we can all participate. We, Americans, can turn from our sins (such as pornography, greed, lust for power, hatred, and lethargy), repent and break before God, otherwise we will continue to face crisis after crisis, until we are broken never to recover as a free nation! We are beginning to reap the results of our sin as a Nation. In light of today's news, Taylor Caldwell's book, "Your Sins and Mine" is almost prophetic.

The question in my mind is this: Are we as a nation smart enough to heed all of the Warning Signals flashing around us, or will we plunge on into destruction? AMERICANS, THE CHOICE IS OURS!

Mrs. Carol Leake,
Deer Park

Down The Drain!

We have said it before and we'll say it again. We pay very little attention to anonymous communications to the editor. In fact, we dispose of them by "filing" them to file 13, as the saying goes, which means we toss them in the wastebasket. We never plan to use communications written by persons who do not have the courage to sign their names. We expect persons who write letters to the editor to be responsible. We feel that those who do not sign their names would not be responsible in any way.

To Show Film

A film entitled, "The Battle of Armageddon" will be shown at the Crellin Assembly of God church, Saturday, Feb. 16th, at 7:30 p.m.

This film is produced by "Second Comiog" Inc., written and photographed by its President, Salem Kirban, author and authority on Bible Prophecy. Everyone is welcome. Rev. Paul Poland is pastor.

PLAYBOY BLACKLISTED?

In Victoria, Texas (pop. 50,000) a citizen's group led by Neil Gallagher succeeded in removing Playboy and other offensive magazines from the city's sales racks.

Through recent months, magazines which were once considered simply "trash" are creeping towards the standards of hard-core pornography. Adult "bookstores" in larger cities advertise and sell sex-torture devices!

We all tend to act within the guidelines of that which is acceptable in our society. That which is see-able becomes do-able. By refusing to condone smut on its newsstands, the citizens of Victoria have made a statement about the kind of society they want to live in. They have said "no sale" to smut peddlers who would exploit even the torture trade.

They have protected themselves from perverted ideas about sex and an unnatural obsession with sex. In a decent society, their children are free to experience the full beauty of the natural relationship that God intends for them in marriage.

Sample obscenity ordinances from the legal staff of the Citizens for Decency through Law have been presented to our Town Attorney. CDL has offered our Town officials its services and assistance in the obscenity field.

Rom. 1:26-32.

Garrett Lakers Defeat Howard

Pulling away from a 27-25 halftime deadlock, Garrett Community College Lakers cornered a 70 point load late in the second half and emerged with a 113-88 victory over Howard CC Monday night on the McHenry hardwood.

Steve Van Auscale sparked the Lakers with 28 points and had fifteen rebounds. He hit on 11 of 20 attempts from the floor. Jon Hall was the only other Laker in double figures getting ten. Garrett had 30 field goals compared to 23 for Howard and the Lakers held a 44-42 edge at the foul line.

Lange and Wilson had 17 and 16 for Howard County. Garrett committed only nine turnovers and shot 47 percent from the field.

Bublusky got 2, Gibson 1, Bosley 7, Yoder 6, Curtis 6, and Stitko 4 for the winners. Coach Dennis Fearnow's team now has a 9-6 record in the JUCO conference and 16-5 overall.

Mathias Reported Favoring Income Tax Rate Slash

Senator Charles McC. Mathias has proposed an eight percent cut in federal income tax withholding rates to "stimulate the economy without increasing the budget deficit or inflation."

He said such action would reduce the massive amount now over withheld from individual incomes by about $10 million annually. Mathias said last year a major portion of $22 billion refunded could be attributed to over-withholding.

The overall effect of over-withholding is to dampen consumer spending, through the year, he pointed out. He added, "The withholding system acts as a great sponge sucking money out of the economy."

Mathias said he would introduce a bill to correct the situation when the Senate returns from its Lincoln birthday recess on February 22.

WHO HAS HEARD FROM THE GOOD TOOTH FAIRY?

What is the going "rate" these days for the "good tooth fairy" to leave under the pillow for a baby tooth? Nobody seems to have a definite answer to this question. We have heard as high as a dollar for a first tooth and down to as low as a nickel for a third or fourth.

While we are not sure of the worth of that old tooth we do know that the new permanent tooth is really priceless and should be treated accordingly. It has to last an ever increasing lifetime. We carry many products that your dentist recommends for good dental care.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

Despite man's most valiant efforts the wheel was frequently at a standstill. What then? Waiting, waiting, waiting! What patience they must have learned—only faith sustained them. The wind would blow again.

The patient life also requires a foundation of faith. It can come early or late, slowly or fast.

If you lack the necessary faith to fulfill your life's needs, turn to the Church. The wind will blow again.

BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

THE VICTOR

Lesson for February 17, 1974

Background Scripture: John 19:16-42. Devotional Reading: John 2:13-22.

Chief Luthuli of South Africa was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in recognition of his outstanding leadership in the cause of peace. Yet this renowned man spent years under official "house arrest," isolated, for the most part, from the world that honored him. Alan Patton said of Luthuli upon his death, "They took away his chieftainship, but he never ceased to be a chief."

Rev. Althouse

In command

In a very real sense, although Luthuli was imprisoned, his jailors could not take from him that which was most important of all. Thus, though it seemed he was their victim, in reality he emerged the victor. They did all that men could do, but still he retained his moral authority.

So it was, too, with Jesus Christ. Although Jesus did not seek death, neither was he its victim. He accepted death on the cross as the consequence of his commitment to God. His life, thus, was not taken from him, wrenched out of his hands, he gave it. Even as they nailed him to the cross, he was in command of the situation. His Lordship was not one bit diminished by the cross; if anything, it was enhanced, magnified, exalted, confirmed. They could drive away his followers for a time, but they could not take away his Lordship.

On Calvary one April afternoon there was played out the greatest battle of all time: the massed forces of evil at their worst vs. the seemingly vulnerable Son of God. Judging by the usual canons of success and failure, Jesus did not have a chance. Forsaken by the fickle crowds that had cheered him on Palm Sunday, the victim of lies and trumped-up charges, abandoned by his closest friends and followers, the Nazarene did not appear to be a match for the combined forces of Rome and Jerusalem.

"It is finished"

Yet, despite their power, his enemies could not shake his commitment. His faith did not waver. He took the very worst they could offer — insults, physical abuse, crucifixion, and even death —and his Lordship emerged untarnished. They played their ultimate card, but it was not enough and the victim emerged as the victor. When Jesus, drawing his last breath, said, "It is finished," he did not mean that his effort had failed, but that his purpose had been fulfilled. It was not a cry of dispair with which Jesus died, but of victory!

Jesus came teaching—and ultimately demonstrating—a different standard of success. Just as he taught that we can get by giving and be first by being willing to be last, so, he said, it is often only through apparent failure that we experience true success. As Jesus himself won the greatest of battles through his suffering and death on a cross, so we are called in the midst of some of life's most trying moments by the power of God to rise up victors from the ashes of defeat.

LIBERTY ST. OAKLAND, MD.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE PEOPLE OF THE TRI-STATE AREA WHO OWN AND BUY CARS

For over two months now you have been bombarded by self-appointed "experts" in the newspapers, T.V., radio and government concerning the energy or fuel "crisis." But with each passing week it becomes more clear to a discerning American public that the so-called "crisis" is little more than: (1) a mild interruption in the normal flow of crude oil; or, (2) a distribution problem; or, (3) an effort to bring needed profits to the distributors and service station operators; or, (4) a result of well-intentioned, but often extreme efforts, of the environmentalists to provide "pure" air or (5) a combination of all of these.

Whatever the causes, too often the reporting by the news media has been sensationalized and exaggerated. Headline-seeking politicians, bureaucrats, and self-appointed "protectors of the public and the environment" continue to feed the news media with cries of alarm. If allowed to continue, these same people could talk us into a serious national, or even global, economic problem.

Your local auto dealers, in their interests as well as yours, ask you to consider the following facts, or at least thought-starters:

(1) There is every indication that you will be provided an adequate supply of fuel to drive the car you want to drive. We have been hearing of shortages since last Spring. Have you ever been stuck without fuel: except perhaps during the recent truck strike?

(2) The price of gasoline will be higher than we formerly paid. But has it increased any more than other commodities or services? What about the phenomenal increases in housing, groceries, taxes, or interest? Maybe the service station operators have some catching up to do.

(3) Air pollution from cars has never been proven to be a significant health hazard, except in certain areas of the country where unusual atmospheric conditions prevail. We in the retail auto industry breathe more auto exhaust gases in a month than the general public breathes in a year – yet we are not aware that we are in poorer health or live shorter lives than the general public. It is hard to justify right now the continuing use of devices designed to decreas "air pollution" which also waste 5 billion gallons of gas per year. Congress can change the Clean Air Act of 1970 and stop this waste today. It is about time your Congressman represents your interests, and not just that handful of predictors of gloom and doom living in their ivory towers.

(4) The kind or size of your car has a relatively small effect on your operating costs.

(a) At 50 cents a gallon, you can drive one of America's largest luxurious cars for only about $200 more per year than one of the smallest imports – if you are an average 12,000 mile per year driver. The cost difference gets down to only about $100 per year for an intermediate size car.

(b) The cost of required maintenance of many tiny imports, during the first 12,000 miles, can be as much as four times higher than that of the biggest American car.

(c) The cost of replacement parts and labor for the tiny imports is usually higher than for the big American cars, to say nothing of the comparative availability of parts and service.

(d) Public liability and property damage insurance costs no more for a big car than a small car. Age, sex, and marital status are the biggest cost factors in insurance.

(e) Prices have increased 20% to 30% on the small cars, while the bigger cars have increased only about 10-%. The full-sized American car, now more than ever, represents the best car value in our country, whether bought new or used.

(5) The deals available to you, on either a new or used car, large or small, have never been, or probably never will be, better than RIGHT NOW. There are still many new cars in our stock at the older, lower prices (about $150 lower than current prices). NOW is the smart time to buy.

(6) You have earned the right to enjoy the SAFETY, COMFORT, AND CONVENIENCE of the full-sized American car you have always enjoyed. By driving sensibly, and using fuel wisely, you can continue to exercise that right at reasonable cost.

Let's keep the Tri-State Area, our country, and our economy moving, in spite of the negative attitudes of the politicians, bureaucrats, and news media. If you want or need a new or good used car, NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY. And NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY THE KIND OF CAR YOU REALLY WANT. Don't let the headlines scare you into making a costly mistake, or passing up a good deal.

Congressman Goodloe Byron
Maryland—Sixth District

This regular column serves as another vehicle to keep in touch with all segments of my constituency. It is an open invitation for you to question me on issues, let me assist you with your problems, request informa- typical of the kind asked of me ion or comment on whatever appens to be on your mind. Letters should be sent to me, o U. S House of Representa- ives, Washington, D. C. 20515 While space is obviously limited for printing all replies, I shall make every effort to answer each person who contacts me.

The following questions were Typical of the kind asked of me in recent weeks;

This question has been asked by several citizens in recent weeks. The Internal Revenue Service informs me that you may purchase the 1974 edition of "Your Federal Income Tax" for $2.5 from Consumer Information, Pueblo, Colorado. The booklet takes you through each part of the tax return, giving explanations of the tax laws that deal with salary and wages, interest and dividends, rental income and capital transactions such as the sale of investment property. Standard deductions, itemized deductions, income averaging, adjustments to income (including moving expenses, sick pay and employee business expenses) are also explained.

In seeking an answer to your question I contacted the Secretary of the Army, Howard Callaway. Excerpts from his letter of reply follow: "During the period of January to December 1973, the Army recruited 163,800 men and women. Re-enlistments for the year totalled 46,300. In addition, 2,530 men and women extended their enlistments for two years or more during the period from January to October. The Army has achieved 88 percent of its recruiting objectives since we abandoned the use of the draft on December 29, 1972, and recent recruiting trends are up. The high school graduate content of our non prior service enlisted accessions since the draft ended has been about 60 percent. If we include prior service accessions, the high school figure rises to 63 percent; and if we take a snap shot of the whole Army, we find 71 percent enlisted men and women have at least a high school education. Although there were some shortfalls in meeting recruiting goals in the early months of this fiscal year, recently the monthly goals have been met and our enlisted strength permits us to maintain an effective and quality force." Secretary Callaway also indicated that discipline in the Army has improved under the voluntary system as well as combat readiness.

Will the new social security increases this year reduce my VA pension?

No. According to a recent general counsel opinion the Social Security increases which will be realized in 1974 will not be counted as income for VA purposes until 1975.

You are probably referring to a new Army Retention and Reenlistment Program that is available to qualified first term soldiers who are scheduled to leave the Army during January through December 1974. In order to provide an incentive to extend current service these soldiers will be allowed to select a station of choice for a twelve month extension. Selected station of choice assignment will be dependent on skill and grade position vacancy.

The 400-page, hardbound Yearbook - - "A Good Life for More People" - is available free from my office in Washington. But the supply is limited. Interestd citizens may order their personal copy by dropping me a line, c o U. S. House of Representatives, Washington, D. C. 20515.

How do you feel about pension reform?

I support the concept of establishing a Federal insurance program to protect workers from losing their benefits if their private pensions plan fail. The primary purpose of this program should be to provide workers a level of protection which would adequately protect their rights and just expectations. In short, I support the federal standards for minimum pension funding levels to insure that they contain enough money to satisfy benefit payments due retired employes and also that firms within the definition of Interstate Commerce would participate in a national pension insurance program.

Does the government publish any publications on how to conserve on car fuel?

In light of the nation-wide effort to conserve energy, the General Services Administration has published a new energy conservation bulletin entitled, "Tips for Conserving Gasoline." The pamphlet includes tips on driving techniques, car maintenance and car use and includes a gas mileage checklist for your car. You may obtain a free copy of this helpful and informative booklet by writing Consumer Information, Pueblo, Colorado, 81009. And while you're at it don't forget to order your copy of "Citizen Action Guide to Conserving Energy" - available for $1.75 from the Central Services Administration, Washington, D. C.

Who can I contact in regards to fuel for my home? Our regular supplier does not have enough heating fuel for us.

The Maryland State Energy Policy Office now has a toll-free number for consumers to call if they experience difficulty in securing emergency oil or propane gas supplies this winter. The new WATS line number is 1-800-492-5303 for all areas in Maryland outside the city of Baltimore.

Byron Speaks To Lions

Congressman Goodloe E. Byron was special guest speaker at Monday night's meeting of the Oakland-Mt. Lake Park Lions club. The program was arranged by the program committee, headed by Wayne Johnson.

One new member, James "Smokey" Stanton, was inducted that evening by Earl Clark, past district governor. The next meeting will be February 25. Smokey is a son of Robert Stanton, one of the charter members of the club.
